Military Will Protect All Roads Leading To Berlin ENGLAND PREPARES FOR ELECTION

BAVARIANS ARE STOPPED AT FRONTIER

Large Military Action is Planned by the German Troops.

RECRUITS ADDED

Tension Seems Largely Relaxed in Berlin, the Cables Say.

(British United Press.)

Berlin, Nov. 8.—General Reinhardt, commanding the Federal troops in Thuringia, is carrying out an aggressive campaign against "red" organizations there. The move, however, is mere camouflage for larger military action he is taking to bar all roads to Berlin against the Bavaria Fascist units gathered along the frontier.

President Ebert Wednesday told callers that the action against the "reds" must not be taken too seriously, and explained that the government was really proceeding to unify its forces for resistance to any Bavarian Fascist thrust. Prophecy is absurd in the present chaotic condition, but there are some indications that the projected Fascist coup may be postponed or averted.

Tension is Relaxed.

Tension seems largely relaxed in Berlin. This is not, however, a certain criterion, and it recalled that prior to the Kapp "Putsch" the government was confident that all was calm.

Few food disorders occurred Wednesday, as the municipality had taken strict measures to prevent looting. Numerous stores bore the sign "this is a Christian shop." Curious crowds visited the Jewish quarters to see the aftermath of the anti-Semitic disturbances, but although there was much grumbling about "food hoarders," no large scale disorders occurred.

Thousands Starving.

An ironical feature of the hunger and unemployment situation is that while thousands are starving, many of the larger stores are closing down, not caring to sell valuable goods for money that may be worthless tomorrow.

CRANKS ABUNDANT

Says England More Efficient in Every Way—"Land of Make-Believe."

(By Canadian Press.)

New York, Nov. 8.—Israel Zangwill, Englishman of letters, yesterday told the league for political education what he thought of the U. S. He said: "There are more cranks to the square mile in the U. S. than in any other country of the world."

"There is more honor, justice and dignity in England than in the U. S. The Ku Klux Klan, which is a sort of exaggerated Boy Scout movement, would be laughed out of existence, but the U. S. has no sense of humor."

"Everything is less efficient in the U. S. than in England. The mails, the press, the railroads and your Central Park are a disgrace."

"On the other hand, too many men are jack-of-all trades. The elevator boy goes to Columbia, but that fact should not prevent him from being a good elevator boy."

"The U. S. makes without acting and acts without thinking. Years ago she went to war because of taxation without representation. Today I am taxed eight per cent of all I earn in this country yet I have no vote."

"The U. S. has no sense of shame. The Sunday newspaper weighs four pounds. The world was better off when people read the Bible and Shakespeare."

"This country has the best half-educated people in the world. It is a land of make-believe."

Boston Taxi Firm Hires All Its Tires

Boston, Nov. 8.—One of the largest taxi cab firms in Boston, perhaps the largest, does not own a tire on any of its scores of machines. It seems that the taxi cab officials have figured out that it is cheaper by one-tenth of a cent per mile to hire tires than buy them. Consequently, the tires are regularly inspected by an employee of the tire company, kept inflated to the proper number of pounds and cared for in other ways. When a tire shows signs of "blowing" it is removed from the rim and a new one substituted. In this manner there are few road delays, which are the bane of taxi cab operators.

SCOTLAND IS NOT FOR PROHIBITION

Wets Score Victories in Nearly All of Forty-three Towns Voting.

London, Nov. 8.—It is clear that prohibition is not advancing by leaps and bounds in Scotland. Judging from the results already compiled by the local option vote taken in 43 towns this week, the liquor dealers and their customers have every cause for satisfaction. In all except a few places the "wets" not only won but increased the victory they scored in the last contest three years ago.

The utmost efforts of the pro-liquor element, however, failed to shake the resolution of the residents of Milling, Kirintulloch and Kilsyth, who reaffirmed their faith in prohibition. "On the other hand, the small town of Auchterarder, Perthshire, fell from grace and elected to revert to the column of the 'wets' after three years experience with prohibition."

Two places which on last occasion were open to the possibility of a partial decision adhered to the prohibition. Aberdeen proved an interesting proposition for the wets, deciding for liquor by four figure majorities in each of the eleven wards. Many other towns are yet to be heard from.

RETURNING POPULARITY OF DAVID LLOYD GEORGE STIRS LIBERAL CIRCLES

Premier Baldwin and Conservatives are Active as "Little Welshman" is Speeding Toward England After Triumphant American Tour—He is Looked Upon Now as Strongest Man in English Politics—No Possibility of Reaching Agreement With Asquith Forces.

BY HARRY N. MOORE (British United Press Cable.)

London, Nov. 8.—With the close of the Imperial Conference after five weeks of sittings, interest in England, which has never been over enthusiastic about the conference, now shifts definitely to the state of domestic politics.

There does not seem to be any question that a general election will be held next month or in January, at latest. Wild rumors have been current in the political clubs during the last few days, that Premier Baldwin was planning a dramatic coup by calling a meeting of the party for next Monday, the day before the assembling of Parliament, and of bringing on an immediate dissolution.

The scheme is not likely to be followed. The sole object of the plan was to get ahead of Lloyd George, who is steaming to Cherbourg and England at full speed and will be in London Saturday evening.

CHINESE HIDES IN SHIP FOR 84 DAYS

Secret Known to Fellow Countrymen—Is Ordered Deported.

Boston, Nov. 7.—With the aid and connivance of fellow-countrymen in the crew of the British steamer Egremont Castle, Lam Ah Fung, a 24-year-old Chinaman, stowed away on the vessel last August while she was at Shanghai and during a passage that occupied 84 days successfully kept from sight of the officers. Not until the steamer dropped anchor in lower Boston harbor was his presence discovered.

During all this time he lay concealed in the bunkers, cramped in an uncomfortable position (and not daring to venture forth except in the dead of night, then stealing furtively to the deck to stretch his limbs and inhale the fresh air. Food and water during his long period were supplied by one or more of Fung's friends in the crew.

Fung was taken to the immigration station and given a hearing. He steadfastly refused to implicate those who had helped him, nor could the commander, Captain J. Cain, discover who of the seamen had befriended the stow-away and aided him in keeping under cover for so long a time. Fung was ordered deported, and will probably be returned on the same steamer when she starts back for China.

Hangs Half Hour Head Downward

New York, Nov. 8.—Nicholas Scheinbauer, proprietor of the International Trucking and Hugging Company, was suspended head downward in an elevator shaft for more than a half hour with one of his ankles crashed between the elevator and the wall. Through all the time he was conscious and talked with his brother John, who tried fruitfully to release him. He is in St. Vincent's Hospital, where it will probably be necessary to amputate his left foot.

Steinbauer, who is 29, went with his brother and several workmen to deliver a large flying machine. The machine was too large to get in the elevator, and in shifting it some part of it touched the elevator control, shooting the car toward the ceiling. In tipping the machine knocked Steinbauer but the top of the elevator in coming down caught his ankle. The elevator was wedged upward inch by inch until Scheinbauer was released.

Toronto Has a Day of Accidents

Toronto, Nov. 8.—One killed and six injured by automobiles, a gas poisoning fatality and a youth critically hurt in a fall down an elevator shaft was the toll of accidents here yesterday. The drizzling rain and gross condition of the roads is given as the cause of the large number of mishaps.

James Howe, aged 65, of Kingston, died of injuries sustained when he was struck down by an automobile. He was visiting his son.

Brantford Kivwanias Saved Life of Child When Minutes Meant Much.

Brantford, Nov. 8.—Two Brantford Kivwanias—D. T. Williamson, vice-president, and H. E. Gignac, secretary—raced death and won. On Saturday at 12:30 they received word from Nurse Anguish of the Social Service League that, unless at once taken to the Hospital for Sick Children, Toronto, and operated on, a little girl would die within 30 minutes. Williamson in his sedan, with Gignac, Nurse Anguish and the child and her mother, was on his way to Toronto. At Missico the child collapsed and a stimulant had to be secured from a physician to maintain life for the rest of the journey. The run to the hospital for sick children was made in excellent time, and ten minutes after arrival the operation was under way. At its conclusion the surgeon reported it successful, but blood transfusion was necessary. Both Kivwanias volunteered, underwent blood tests, and Williamson was chosen. The girl is recovering nicely.
