GOOD THINGS COMING TO THEATRES OF
ST. JOHN

MAE EDWARDS
COMPANY TO OPEN
ENGAGEMENT HERE

AT THE QUEEN SQUARE THE-ATRE TONIGHT.

Mae Edwards and her popular company will open an engagement tonight at the Queen Square with the big New York success, "Just Mickey." Also they carry high class vaudeville which will be seen between the acts and as a special feature an eight-piece jazz orchestra.
What the New York papers say about this company:

"Just Mickey," an Exceedingly Bright and Entertaining Three-Act Comedy-Drama, Delights Big Audience.

With a company far exceeding that of last year in every way and a repertoire of bright new dramatic successes and vaudeville of the top-notch variety, and plenty of it, and a lively jazz band of eight pieces which rendered decidedly captivating music, the Mae Edwards company carried all before them as far as entertainment triumphs go.

Their opening bill last night was entitled "Just Mickey," a three-act comedy-drama, which was a real treat from start to finish.

Miss Edwards certainly has succeeded this time in getting a first class aggregation of players, and in this breezy little drama which was devoid of all the questionable features of the modern problem play, the audience were as fully satisfied and it is safe to say far better pleased than they would have been had the play been of the other class named.

A play which will furnish a large order of clean merit is the kind which the public appreciate and the audience of last night certainly had their share of this, for Miss Edwards as the inimitable "Mickey," furnished more laughs to the square yard than any player seen here for some time. Her acting was excellent and vivacity was portrayed in her every word and action.

Other members of the cast were Jack Werner Corbin, who in the role of a novelist was splendid, and particularly good also was the character of Israel Putman as acted by Harry Stuart, Misses Gertrude Riggs and Elythe Lee ably sustained the other female roles, while

PALACE THEATRE

Anne Cornwall in "The Girl in the Rain."

The Heavens opened and the weeping world about them seemed more brilliant than the dawn. A fire roared merrily up the broad chimney and tenderly he held her close.
... closer, until she became a part of his soul.

Out of the storm she had come to him, this whisp of humanity. What mattered it to her ragamuffin or to culture born?
And so she remained. She had taught him the language of another world... a world of love.

But their paradise was short-lived.
One day he heard a shrill cry, a cry of fear, of anguish. When he reached the house she had gone, fleeing into the rose-scented night. The men had come in search of her told him she was a thief, that they had come to take her to prison and where his wisdom believed, his heart cried aloud, "It is false."

Who was she? Did he ever find his ideal woman again? See Anne Cornwall in "The Girl in the Rain" at the Palace Theatre tonight.

The eighth episode of Universal's startling serial "The Great Radium Mystery" will also be shown. Two shows nightly at 7 and 8.30.

Trieste, Nov. 1.—Premier Giolitti's "natural blockade" is having a serious effect on Fieume, which is now without Gabriele D'Annunzio has published a statement with reference to the offering for sale of the steamer Cogna, seized in September at Fieume, by D'Annunzio's officers.

"This command," says the statement,

"which intends to avoid all damage to the owners' cargo, is ready to accept offers from the owners for a percentage of the value of the cargo. Such payment will be considered a loan and the command intends to assume the guarantee."

Try This Way of Making Liquid
KLIM

READ the label on the tin for proportions, pour fresh water into a fruit jar, add the KLIM, then shake the jar for a moment or two. In actual practice, this method is the quickest and most convenient way of making liquid KLIM in whatever quantity you require. If you make more liquid than is needed for immediate use, leave the balance in the jar and put in a cool place until required. Keep the jar handy to the Klim tin and you can quickly make a supply of liquid separated milk that has the fresh flavor so necessary in getting the best results from your favorite recipes.

Good cooks recognize the advantages of Klim.
It guarantees a reliable supply of fresh pure separated milk at all times and under all conditions. It eliminates waste. It saves the ice bill and is not affected by variable weather conditions.

KLIM is packed in three sizes, the half-pound tin is a splendid "trial package," or for use at a picnic or on a day's outing. The pound tin makes four quarts. The big ten-pound tin is the favorite for family use—it is the economical size to buy. Order from your nearest grocer.

atmosphere of cheerfulness and brightness into every room.
If your home is poorly furnished you may not notice it, but other people—neighbors and callers—have noticed the old shabby furnishings, and have perhaps drawn wrong conclusions. They have thought the owners couldn't afford anything better. No one wants such wrong impressions carried away from his or her home.
