Peace Declared.

Chicago, Nov. 12—Peace was declared in the major leagues baseball war this afternoon.

After conferring for more than three hours, representatives of the sixteen major league clubs agreed this afternoon to adjust their differences and peace was formally declared.

The club owners unanimously agreed on Judge Landis as chairman of the civilian tribunal.

After the meeting the magnates came out arm in arm and a majority of them proceeded to Judge Landis' chamber to inform him of their decision. "We've made a real peace—one that will last,"

C. Shilling, suspended eight years ago by the New York body, but recently temporarily reinstated by the Maryland racine commission. Permission to be present at the hearing was granted to Commander J. K. L. Ross, race horse owner, who was instrumental in obtaining Shilling's reinstatement, and a member of the Maryland Club board of directors.

Baltimore, Nov. 12—Johnny Rose, of St. Paul, who is making New York his eastern boxing headquarters, was no match for George Chaney, the knockout king, in their scheduled twelve-round bout here tonight.
