THE LADY MADAM ROSELER

Has just arrived in the city. She recognized as the most wonderful pal-list in the world. On her visit to Europe she gave readings that astonished the most enlightened and skeptical people of European cities. This wonderful Egyptian challenges any palinist in the world to compete with her. She reads the hand just as it indicates from the cradle to the grave, tells every person the planet they were born under; their lucky and unlucky planets, and what step in life to take to better themselves; what part of the country is best for them; also explains what business you are best adapted for, when and whom you will marry; settles and explains love affairs and family troubles; remedies the separated, etc. Why not see the best?
It costs no more. Satisfaction or no charges. All readings strictly confidential. Give her a trial before you criticise.

AGENTS WANTED

WANTED—Agents to teach my manner of inhaling Avena Life Balm, which will positively cure Tuberculosis in first and second stages. Inhaler, three months' treatment, complete. Directions. Dr. Wyman, Beechwood, N. B.
Can. 4068-12-5

A certain bishop with rather a reputation for verbosity rose to address the House of Lords on some important occasion. He began: "I shall divide my speech into 12 heads." His listeners shivered and thought of the door.

He began to speak on his legs and begged to interpose a little anecdote. "A friend of mine," said the noble marquis, "was returning home late one night, when, opposite St. Paul's, he saw a drunken man trying to ascertain the time on the big clock there. At the moment it began to strike, and slowly told out 12. The man listened, looked hard at the clock and said: 'Confound you, why couldn't you have said that all at once!'"

The chamber, needless to say, resounded with laughter, in which the bishop joined heartily; and what is more, he took the hint.

Contention
The acrobat must be a vain
And most conceited elf.
For half the time he is, that's plain.
All wrapped up in himself.

AMERICAN GREEKS

New York, Nov. 27.—Two hundred Greeks who left this country at the outbreak of the Turko-Balkan war to fight in their country's battles, returned yesterday, arriving here on the steamship Ionian. Many of them saw service in the big engagements of the conflict.

The Ionian was purchased by the Greek Line to take the place of the company's steamer Macedonia, which was torpedoed by the Turks during the war, in which she was employed as a transport.

RETURN FROM WAR

When dividends sag a little,
When work gets a trifle slack,
The working crew and the owners
Just jump on the Super's back
If the timbers crack in a run,
Or a mule should get the crew,
Or the lights go out you hear this:
"Oh send for the District Super!"

He always sleeps with his boots on He's never off shift at all,
For he's got to leap from his hard-ed sleep
Whenever he gets the call,
And if there is "hell a poppin'"
From careen or damp or fire,
He leads the fight by day or night
With a courage that may not tire

He's boss of the hold and breakers
Of entry and room and shaft,
By study and fret and toll and sw He's mastered the mining craft,
He carries a load of worries,
His job is a damn hard berth,
He goes the route—and his pay's
A quarter of what he's worth!

Dry
Guzler—"My life was a desert
I met you" Miss Caustique—"Ah! at last I an explanation of your mar-thirst."—Judge.

THE DISTRICT SUPERIN-
DENT

(By Berton Bruley, written expressly for Coal Age)

He is the boss of the outfit,
He is the Chief, the Nob,
The Heavy Big Noise of all the boys,
The Lad with the Heavy Job,
The Owner's the upper millstone
And the men in the mine the nether,
And the super, I mean, is in between,
And they're grinding him fine, together!

For the owners howl for profits
And the miners howl for pay,
And both sides whoop at the poor old Super.
