

the Registrar of the College on or before the first day of October, and such Students must appear to pass their examinations on the first Thursday of the same month.

The College provides instruction in the Departments of Classics and Mathematics for Students who pursue the above special course, and do not intend to graduate in Arts; but such Students are required to take the Hebrew, English, History, Natural Science and Philosophy of the respective years at McGill College, and to present to the Senate certificates from the University professors of their having passed Sessional examinations in these subjects. No literary Student will be granted his standing who does not pass examinations in these departments, either in the manner specified, or, for special reasons, before the Board of Examiners. To those whom Presbyteries may permit to pursue their studies apart from the College appropriate text books will be prescribed, on application to the Senate through the Principal or Registrar.

AFFILIATION WITH MCGILL UNIVERSITY.

The attention of Students is directed to the special advantages afforded them in virtue of the affiliation of the College with McGill University. They have thereby access to the Library, Museum and Lectures of that Institution. By Scholarships which are in the gift of benefactors they may enjoy exemption from College Fees. In addition to these there are sixteen Exhibitions and Scholarships of from $100 to $125 each annually offered for competition to Students in Arts, and at the close of the curriculum, gold medals, prizes and certificates of honour are awarded to successful competitors.

While it is desirable that Students should complete their literary studies before entering upon their Theological course, the terms of affiliation allow them to combine these, exemptions in the University curriculum being granted to Students of affiliated Theological Colleges.
