annoying and oppressive upon the people."

IN MEMORIAM.
ALLEN HOUSE, Hartford Nov. 16, 1865.
a meeting of the officers of the 29th Regt.
i. Vols., "colored," the following preamble resolutions were unanimously adopted: hereas it has pleased God in His infinite wisdom to remove from among us, under circumstances peculiarly sad, our esteemed friend and er officer, Surgeon JOHN F. STEVENSON, ESQ., that we his fellow officers, in his do most sincerely mourn the loss of a kind, gentle, genial companion and accomplished member.
RESOLVED, That in his death the service has a valuable officer, and the profession to which as strongly attached, one of its most accomplished members.
RESOLVED, That while we mourn his untimely loss we bow in submission to the will of Him who is all things well.
RESOLVED, That we tender to the family and ds of the deceased our sincere and heartfelt sympathy in this their day of sorrow and address.

To the Editor of the Standard.
Can you inform me whether we are now in the Federal age or under the free and independent times of the nineteenth century. This right is suggested from hearing a gentleman at meeting of the Home Guard the other evening equently use the expression MY MEN—just as an accident of their being in the employment of an institution which he himself only employee should constitute them his personal property. My men—my men indeed, is it not ugh to make freemen kneel their teeth, to be ed my men—my chattel. It is high time for ple in this happily free country, to learn that are not "my men," but if true to themselves, own men, and nobody else's; and not children or slaves, to require any man although his loyer's representative only, to resent what he considers an insult.
Yours, ANTI HUMBUG.

the Rebellion; his thrilling capture; his confinement for twenty months in seven different Rebel prisons; his escape, and almost miraculous journey by night of nearly 400 miles. It will abound in stirring events, and contain more of the fact, incident, and romance of the war, than any other work yet published. Horace Greeley says of it:— "A great many books will yet be written concerning this war, in addition to the many already in print; but not one of them will give, within a similar compass, a clearer, fuller, more readable account, entirely from personal observation, of the nature, aims, purposes, tendencies, and instrumentalities of the slaveholders' Rebellion, than does the unpretending narrative of Mr. Richardson."
Teachers, ladies, energetic young men, and especially returned and disabled officers and soldiers, in want of profitable employment, will find it circulars adapted to their condition. Send for circulars. Address
