Games That Sportsmen Would Have Played on the Diamond.

To the baseball lovers of Chatham: The S. Hadley ball team having won the pennant of the city league, square and fair, will give their version of the last game which decided the champion-

The game was to be called at four o'clock, and Dr. Tye and J. Alexander had been appointed umpires by the president of the league. The latter was to act if Dr. Tye was unable to be on the grounds at four o'clock. The Hadley team wanted to have the game called at five o'clock, and asked the Planet team if they would agree to it; but they insisted that the game be called at four o'clock. The Hadley club agreed to it, and waited until 20 minutes past four, when they insisted that the game be called. But the Planet team wanted Dr. Tye to umpire and wanted to put the game off until he arrived. After tossing, they won the choice, and Umpire Alexander asked them which they would take, and they decided to take the field, They, however refused to play until Dr. Tye arrived. Umpire Alexander, having given the usual time for them to take the field, ordered the Hadley team to the field. All the players of the Hadley team immediately took their places, ed at five o'clock, and asked the Planet ley team immediately took their places, and began to play. The game was given to the Hadleys, by a score of 9 to 0.
This decided the championship of the league. C. M. BRANDT, Captain.

PLAY BALL.

to the Members of the S. Hadley Co. ball team, and baseball lovers in Chatham: The members of The Planet baseball lub regret the publication of the foreoing epistle from Captain Brandt, of he Hadley club, in the Banner of Saturday last. Such newspaper after-math in athleticism has become far oo common all over and has a naus degrade all manly sport, and oftimes those taking part in it, with a fair-minded and sportsmanlike public.

The Planet team have hampionship pennant of the City League upon the games actually play ed out and won and lost upon their merits. In a home organization of this kind, where the members of the teams are personal friends and fellow-citizens and the motto of all is, "May the best team win," the taking of con-tests untried upon technicalities and quibbles is, according to the views of our club, regrettable, as characterized to modify that spirit and create wounds that injure much more than the winning or fosing of a hundred pennants. It was for this reason that The Planet team refused to take the game complained of, when on the scheduled date of playing, only five of the Hadley players were present at the grounds. Our club wants no credit for games that are not won upon the diamond.

\But the Planet club does not wishfor any unpleasant feelings in the matter. If Captain Brandt feels that winning the pennant on the triumphed over a better team (his own), we take friendly issue with him, believe that as sportsmen we should offer him fair redress. It is late in the season, but perhaps not too late for one more game, and The Planet team is prepared to meet Captain Brandt and the Hadley team on the athletic grounds at four o'clock any aftermon decided upon to play out a full game of nine innings. If this con-test should result disastrously for us test should result disastrously for us we will relinquish the championship we have won, hand-over the pennant honors to Captain Brandt, and his agile diamond dusters, doff our caps and heartily congratulate the victors. The Planet tear, trusts this offer will commend itself to our friends of he Hadley club as being much better han any long newspaper wrangle giv-ng "our version" of the city league hampionship. In the game suggested will, of course, be understood that none but regular bona-fide employes, who played during the league series who played during the league series, are eligible to play and that the contest shall be officially umpired by Dr. W. H. Tye, Thos. Smith, John P. Dunlop, Wm. J. Taylor, John West, or some other gentleman whose knowledge of the game and disinterested character shall commend itself to the badgment of the connecting clubs. judgment of the competing clubs.

Sincerely yours, WM. COUPLAND, Capt. Planet-Ball Club.

J. C. Van Blaricom, P. M., and real estate dealer, at Honor, Mich., who has been visiting his sister, Mrs. T. B. Farley, the past week, has left for his home. Mr. Van Blaricom says this was his first visit to our city, and he was pleasantly surprised by the courtesy extended to him by firms and business men. He called on P. M. Barfoot, who took extra pains to show him his office and its workings. He says he has visited many post offices, and that Chatham's office is second to none; is up-to-date in every way. The clerks are courteous and pleasing to all, and the post master, he says, is a veteran at the business, and the right man in the right place.

He Compares Joseph Chamberlain to a flurderer and Would not Withdraw.

London, Oct. 23 .- During the course of the day's proceedings in the House of Commons, while the House was disof Commons, while the House was discussing the report on the supplementary estimates, Patrick O'Brien, Parnellite member for Kilkenny city, declared that the hands of the British Secretary of State for the Colonies, Joseph Chamberlain, were as much stained with blood as those of any murderer who ever mounted the scaffold. The Speaker, William Court Gully, called upon O'Brien to withdraw his remark, but he refused to do so, whereupon the House, by a vote of 316 to 26, resolved to suspend him, and he left the House, remarking:—"You had better bring up another army corps, unless you want it somewhere else." The House then adjourned.
