The woman was old and ragged and gray, And bent with the chill of the winters day. The streat was wet with a norm of more And the woman's feet were aged and slow. And the woman's feet were aged and slow, Bob stood at the crossing and waited long, Alone, uncaved for, small the throng of human being who passed her by. Nor headed the glaune of her anciens eye.

A GALLANT RESCUE.

For many years I resided in the vil-lage of Chippeau, situated at the mouth of Welland River (commonly called Chippewa Creek), which flows into the Nisgara about one and a half miles above the Falls, and perhaps three-fourths of a mile above the first rough water of the terrible Rapids. Notwithstanding the dangerous prox-imity of the Falls, people are continu-ally crossing and recreasing the river here, between the American and Cana-dian shores.

re, between the American and Cana-mashores.

Freat caution is generally exercised boatmen, and the loss of life on this etch of water is less than on any body equal width-constantly traversed by all open boats—that I know of. De-trable fatalities have occurred from ne to time, but these have always, the result of ignorance, or gross releasness.

The control of the co

reach the cataract itself, or would go to pieces on touching the Rapids.

As we shus a speculated, our idle talk was suddenly replaced by a general cry of horror, for, from the bottom of what we had thought an empty shell, the head and shoulders of a man all at once became visible, and the next moment he rose to his feet. Beyond all doubt, the luckless being had only that instant awakened.

Can human imagination conceive or Can human imagination conceive or constant and the control of the control of the daring deed—how daring on one unacquainted with its scene can realize.—Romance.

A Bear Story.

have to learn it; it just came to me."

"Aren't you afraid to do it?"

"I don't know what that means," responded Jack. There was nothing boastful in his tones. The boys knew that he simply meant that he and fear the strangers.

"I wonder if there is anything we can do that you can't do better?" asked one of Jack's admirers.

"Yes, yon can read you can write. I can't do either." Jack's voice was sad, his eyes grew softer, and his lips trembled.

"That's too bad. Did you never go to school?"

"No: we move around too much. None of my folks cares for books and so I cannot read books or papers. I wish I could."

"How long are you going to be here. Jack'r saked Will Hale.

"Till cold weather; then we go south."

"Well, by that time you will be able to read and write, for, Jack, I'm going to teach you."

"But you boys go to school for years.

"The bear was musteld.—Watchman."

The bear was musteld.—Watchman.

danced about until their foe became still in death. And thus was Jacko avenged.—Evangelist.

much thereatench leaff or would go to select on touching the Rapids.

As we have specialised, our didn talt was anddenly replaced by a general cyal which the selection of the s

For Bronchitis "I never realized the good of a medicine so much as I have in the last few mouths, during which time I have suffered intensely from pneumonia, followed by bronchitis. The properties of the properties of the properties benefit, I began the use of Ayer's Cherry Pettoral, and the effect has been marvelous, a single dose relieving me of choking, and Higgsinbotham, Gen. Store, Long Mountain, Va.

La Grippe

"Last Spring I was taken down with la grippe. At times I was completely crostrat-ed, and so difficult was my breathing that my breath seemed as if confined in an iron cage. I procured a bottled Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, and no sooner had I begna taking it than relief followed. I could not believe that the effect would be so rapid. "—W. H. Williams, Cock City's. Dak.

Lung Trouble

AYER'S Cherry Pectoral

Prepared by Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mans. Sold by all Druggists. Price $1; six bottles, $5. Prompt to act, sure to cure

INTERNATIONAL S. S. CO.

2 TRIPS A WEEK --- FOR ----

BOSTON. COMMENCING NOVEMBER 7th, Steamers will leave SAINT JOHN

MONDAY & THURSDAY Mornings

at 7.25 standard, for Eastport, Portland and Boston,

Returning, will leave Boston same days at 8.30 a. m., and Portland at 5 p. m., for Eastport and Salet John 100 Intercolonial Railway.

1892. WINTER ARRANGEMENT. 1893

O'S AND AFTER MONTAGE MEAN. 1892

O'S AND AFTER MONTAGE WILL ron Bally
the Trains of this Radivey will ron Bally
the Trains of this Radivey will ron Bally
the Trains of the Radivey

Will, LEAYE ST. JOHN—

RESENSE for Compbellion, Fugward, Firston
and Hallfar,

Repress for Radive,
18 to
Monitoria, and Chicago

A Farlor Car rone such way on express trains

A Radive Car rone such way on express trains

Oxided. Fiscance and Discago

Oxided. Postage and Discago

Oxided. Postage and Discago

Oxided. Postage and Postago

Hall Radiversal table through sleeping carp at Moncton at 1886 cylinks.

#0 0 'clock.
TRAINS WILL ARRIVE AT ST. JOHN-

signess from Halffax and tydnay. 72.50
The trains of the Insterectional Railway between fontreal and Halifax are lighted by electricity, and heasted by steam from the locomotive. All trains are run by Eastern Standard Time. D. POTTINGER, Chief Superintendenb Pathway Office. Muncion. N. B.

Railway Office, Moncton, N. B., 21st October, 1892.

Western Counties Railway. FALL ARRANGEMENT.

JAMES S. MAY. W. Bobert May.

James S. May & Son, MERCHANT TAILORS,

Domville Building, Prince Wm. St.,

SAINT JOHN, N. B.

November 30.

OVER AND OVER

Over and over again.
We cannot measure the need
of even the times flower.
Nor check the flow of the golde
That run through a single ho But the marning dews must fal
And the sun and the summer
Must do their part, and perfore
Over and over again.
Over and over again
The brook through the meado
And over and over again
of the production suffice
The ponder one suffice when
The ponder one suffice
Though ding be not in value
And a blessing failing us once.
May come if we try arani.
And a blessing failing us once.
May come if we try arani.

THE HOM

which were (apparenty) is of fine-dust. But—I looke microscope and there lay gorgeous flowers. Of cour growing in fairy-land are with the following properties of the following the fair of the following the follow coning piay as joyously possible. Do not hedge harbitrary, unnecessary ru him to have a purpose an if possible, to an exact ent the difference in the word meaningless play of a weal and the intelligent play of child. It is in this musuccess of the Froebel's depends. The Kinderga success of the Froebel's depends. The Kinderga so that he learns habits from infancy. The child against his will, he is tabut the delightful games method of instruction all purpose, and all prepare the next step which he wieducation. Moreover, the and hand to be exact and There is vast harm in a games, just as there is in written "down to" the is theusion of the little one, by have no ability to writerup comprehension.

As it is in the first education of the intervention of the composition of the compositio habit of exact purposeful whabit of exact purposeful weatly in childhood it will it cult to form later in life. child must not be allow anything that he does not to some definite end. Thing "too many irous in tempting much more the sibly brought to asuccess is peculiarly one of your