(PROGRESS is for sale in Fredericton at the bookstore of W. T. H. Fenety and by James H. Hawthorne.)

Are 15.—The only form of gaiety Fredericton society has indulged in during the last week is picnics, and they have been many.

Last Thursday afternoon Miss Gregory and about a dozen of her friends, ladies and gentlemen, went up the Nashwaak in canoes and took their tea on the popular picnic grounds up that delightful little stream, and returned home in the evening. This little entertainment was in honor of Miss Gregory's guest, Miss Burns.

On the same afternoon Mrs. J. Z. Currie and Mrs. John Sparden invited a number of their friends to enjoy the afternoon and take tea on the beautiful grounds at Beechmont, the residence of Mr. Richard Phillips.

On Saturday afternoon Mrs. Howie and a few of her friends took their tea out in Odell's grove.

Yesterday afternoon Mrs. Vesley Vauvart and her friends enjoyed a delightful afternoon up the Nashwaak. This party went up in rowboats and returned in the evening.

Friday evening Miss Harrison had a small musical at her home at the college. Among the guests were Miss Burns, Halifax, Miss Gregory, Miss Bailey, Miss Randolph, Miss Mrs. Randolph, Mr. Bacey, Mr. Schofield, Miss Sherman. A very enjoyable evening was spent.

A large party went up to camp comfort on Monday afternoon in the Panchon to spend a week. It consisted of Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Randolph, Judge and Mrs. Steadman, Mr. and Mrs. Chestnut, Mr. and Mrs. Joutet of Boston and Mrs. Joutet's children, Miss Steadman, Miss Babbie, Miss Moore, the Misses Randolph, Mrs. and Miss Tucker.

Camping out has become quite fashionable this year. Another party, including Mrs. David Hatt and family, Mrs. Fowler and family, with a number of others, are camping about five miles down river on Mr. Fowler's farm.

Canon Robert's camping party have been enjoying themselves thoroughly. They expect to return the last of this week.
