MONROVIA.

[Programme for sale in Monrovia at the Monrovia Bookstore, at the Central Bookstore, by J. S. McCoy and by M. B. Jones.]

Dec. 18.—The new Presbyterian church was opened last Thursday evening with a sacred concert. The audience was large and very attentive, indicating no doubt their high appreciation of the efforts of those who took part. The Presbyterian choir were assisted by the best talent in the city. The concert opened by the singing of the Doxology by the entire congregation and choir.

Prof. Watts came next with solo on the new organ, March in F major in memory of the late Fryer Thompson. The professor executed this in his most perfect style and there were many favorable remarks passed upon his playing, after the concert. Mrs. Geo. W. Daniel, who followed with a vocal solo "Come Unto Him," was in excellent voice, and very sweet and powerful voice, and this was probably her best effort since coming among us. Then followed organ solos by Prof. Watts, and Mr. Blair, the organist of the church. The second part consisted in the rendition of St. Clair's mass, in G by the choir. In this solo were taken by Mrs. Benedict, Mrs. Geo. W. Daniel, Mrs. Armstrong, Mrs. Wetmore, Mrs. Robb, Mrs. Ward, Messrs. Wetmore, Spencer, Sutton, and Girvan. Though a little long, the mass was much enjoyed. The concert terminated with the singing of the national anthem. The new organ is a very handsome one costing over four thousand dollars. Baine, the Misses Tweedie, Daisy Wood, Estabrooks, Mabel Rains, Owen Shewen, Fannie Bell and Ida Foster, and Messrs. H. Henderson, B. E. Todd, T. Smith, C. Parvett, Walker, Tait and Townsend.

On Friday evening Beethoven hall was well filled with a fashionable audience who listened with great pleasure to a very pleasing recital given by the students. The opening piece, "The Mill" (Gillies), by the singing orchestra, was exceptionally well rendered. Miss Blanche Wilson's two solos were well received but perhaps she was heard at her best in the "Arie" from the Daughter of the Regiment (Donizetti). The other solo of the evening was Miss Maud Hamilton's, whose beautiful voice was most advantageously heard in "The Shepherd's Prayer" (Handel). Mrs. Wilson's solo was Miss Hamilton's prolonged encore, to which however she failed to respond. Miss Beal played a piano solo with much brilliancy and Miss Annie Black rendered a difficult Rondo by Chopin. Miss Dorothy Webb played a violin solo very sweetly, but the gem of the evening was the solo given by Mrs. F. T. Baine, who sang a violin class. Miss George Coleward very acceptably, her selection being "Lilka" (Stacy Laika). The closing piece was "Gone by" which was most satisfactorily rendered by a chorus and the orchestra.

"77" COLDS

DR. HUMPHREY'S SPECIFIC FOR

"Dr. A. Conan Doyle, the creator of Sherlock Holmes, at the Lotus Club dinner said: 'That on the first day of my arrival I acquired for the highest building. I ascended it in an elevator at least they assured me it was an elevator. I thought at first I had wandered into the dynamite gun.'"

The contrast between an EXPRESS elevator in New York City's high buildings and an English EXPRESS is no greater than the contrast between the old-fashioned medicine and Dr. Humphrey's "77" SPECIFIC FOR COLDS, GRIPPE, INFLUENZA, CATARRH, PAINS, and soreness in the Head and Chest, Cough, Sore Throat, General Prostration and Fever. But why enumerate the kind of colds that "77" is a SPECIFIC from the first chill or shudder to the worst kind of obstinate cold "that hang on."

With a vial of these pleasant pellets in your pocket you need not fear the cold damp weather or sudden change in the temperature (such as we are now having). A few doses of "77" will check the first symptoms of Fever or Cold, and its continued use will complete the cure.
