OLIVE THOMAS LEFT SMALL ESTATE

Nathan Burkan, who was the attorney for the late Olive Thomas, has been appointed administrator by the New York Surrogate's Court for the estate left by the picture star. Mr. Burkan informed the court the estate would exceed $35,000, which is the nominal estimate usually in the applications for letters of administration. Miss Thomas left no will.

Her life was insured by the Schenck concern for $350,000, the policy having been issued a short time before she went abroad. The Schencks have not been in touch with the attorney for the estate, although it was reported they would make an offer to add part of the insurance to the estate. Miss Thomas during her life was the support of her mother and several relatives. Mr. Burkan stated that no real property had been disclosed in the estate.

WOMEN'S POWER ABILITY TO SAY "NO"

Women's greatest asset is her ability to say "No," according to Paul Oliver, the French psychologist. Men often fail because they can't say "No" or by saying it too bluntly when they do. Women, on the other hand, know how to express infinite shades of meaning and feeling in that one syllable. The word "No" is the essence of woman's sovereign power.

MONTANA TO STOP SLAUGHTER OF ELK

4,000 Were Killed in Yellowstone Park During the Year.

Helena, Mont., Oct. 22.—This is going to be the last year for the elk slayers on the Montana side of the Yellowstone National park, according to "Jake" DeHart, state game warden. And it may be that an aroused public opinion and a late season will unite to prevent this year a repetition of the slaughter in 1919, when Mr. DeHart estimates that more than 4,000 park elk were killed by hunters in the two counties adjoining the great national playground and game preserve.

The branch line of the Northern Pacific railway was unable to handle all of them and scores of carcasses spoiled at stations along the line. DeHart predicts changes in Montana's game laws by the legislature, which meets in January. Protesters against the elk slaughter have come in from almost all parts of the nation. Present laws not only permit each person owning a hunting license to kill one of these tame elk but provide that a second one may be killed upon the payment of an additional license fee of $25. The tooth, hide and antlers of the animal are worth more than that, saving nothing of the meat. When the snows come, the elk leave the park in herds of thousands. They are so numerous and so gentle that hunting them offers no greater thrill than it would to walk into a stockyard, select a suitable animal and shoot it. Instances are recorded in which a hunter changed his mind after shooting, left the animal, being were it fell, and proceeded to kill his second choice.

MR. TAYLOR MIS- QUOTED IN REPORT OF HIS CONFERENCES

To the Editor: Dear Sir:—In reading the news item which appears in your issue of 22nd inst., representing the discussion at the Board of Trade with regard to the Tariff, I observe one or two inaccuracies which I would thank you to have corrected. In view of the fact that said inaccuracies will prove misleading and possibly, therefore, frustrate the object of my visit to St. John.

In the first paragraph, under the heading "Open Discussion," I am reported to have stated that the Sales Tax was a 2 per cent tax on sales by manufacturer or jobber to retailers or consumers—the inaccuracy arises from the use of the words "or jobber," as sales by the wholesaler or jobber to the retailer or consumer are subject to a Sales Tax of 1 per cent only, and it is in respect to sales by the manufacturer to the retailer or consumer that a 2 per cent Sales Tax is collectible. A second inaccuracy appears in connection with my replies to Mr. Dykeman on behalf of the Retail Merchants' Association.

In discussing this phase of the matter, I had reference to the Manufacturers' Tax only when I stated that goods were sold prior to May 19th, and paid for in full the Luxury Tax is not collectible, etc. In respect to Sales Tax, however, the same conditions do not apply, as the Act refers to sales and deliveries in the latter case, whereas in the case of goods subject to Luxury Tax the tax is collectible upon the sale thereof.

G. W. H. TAYLOR,
Asst. Deputy Minister Inland Revenue.

WEDDINGS.

Brown-Elliott. An event of much interest took place Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Theo. Elliott, Knightville, Kings Co., when their eldest daughter, Frances Margaret, became the bride of Irvine A. Brown, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jas. H. Brown of Corn Hill. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. A. C. Bell of Petticoe, under an arch of asparagus fern, in the presence of over one hundred guests.

The bride looked charming in a dress of Alice blue silk Georgette crepe over Duchess satin, with bridal veil and orange blossoms, carrying a bouquet of carnations and maiden hair fern, entering the parlor on the arm of her father, to the strains of a bridal march from Lohengrin, nicely rendered by her sister, Miss Julia Elliott. Little Miss Irene Elliott, niece of the bride, acted as flower girl, carrying a basket of white and pink carnations. After the ceremony the guests repaired to the dining room, which was decorated with white flowers and partook of a nicely arranged wedding supper.

The bride was the recipient of many beautiful and useful gifts. The bridal party left by auto for Petticoe to connect with the Maritime express, taking with them the best wishes of everybody, mingled with showers of confetti. While away Mr. and Mrs. Brown will visit Quebec, Montreal, Ottawa, Toronto and Niagara Falls. On their return they will reside in St. John.

How the League Issue Is Splitting the Parties

The desertion of the Harding camp by a former Republican National Committeeman and a number of other prominent pro-League Republicans after Senator Harding's uncompromising rejection of the League of Nations in its present form in his Des Moines speech, convinces many observers that the League has taken its place at the eleventh hour as a clear-cut issue of the Presidential campaign. But if the League issue is now rending the Republican ranks, it is also a matter of common newspaper remark that earlier in the campaign it won over to the Harding banner many Irish-American and German-American voters who supported Wilson in 1916. And it will be remembered that it was on this issue that the Hearst papers abandoned their traditional Democratic allegiance.

In the Democratic camp Senator Harding's Des Moines speech was greeted with every appearance of rejoicing. The New York Times (Dem.) declares that "the election of Cox means a League of Nations acceptable to President Wilson, and Republican success apparently precludes American participation in the League," but, affirms the Baltimore American (Rep.), all that Senator Harding has done in this matter has been to "turn his back upon the Wilson League and turn his face toward the Constitution and toward the Senate," and the New York Globe (Rep.) is "convinced that Senator Harding will be compelled to move for the ratification of the Treaty of Versailles."

A most interesting and instructive analysis and digest of public opinion on the League of Nations issue will be found in the leading article of THE LITERARY DIGEST FOR October 23rd. Other striking news-features in this number are:
