

Subsequently the representation from the Senate was increased and the Chancellor constituted an ex-officio member. In 1884 an Order-in-Council was passed, by which the name was changed to "Board of Trustees," and the membership constituted as follows: The Chancellor, the Vice-Chancellor, and the President of University College, ex-officio; five members elected by, but not necessarily members of, the Senate of the University; and two members elected by, but not necessarily members of, the Council of University College. The functions of the Board remain as before.

III. THE SENATE.

The constitution of the Senate as the supreme authority, under the Crown, in the internal management of the University, has varied from time to time. At present, it consists of three classes of members: (1) ex-officio members; (2) appointed, and (3) elected members. Among the former are the Minister of Education, the present and past Chancellors and Vice-Chancellors, and the President of University College, and of each federating University or College. Members are appointed by the Councils of the University and University College, the Law Society of Upper Canada, and by the governing body of each federating or affiliated College or School, subject to certain restrictions in the case of affiliated institutions. The Crown has also the power to appoint nine members of the Senate. The elected members of the Senate are representatives of the graduates in Arts, Medicine, and Law of the University of Toronto and any federating University, and of the High School teachers of the Province. They number at present twenty-five out of a total of sixty-one members of Senate. The body thus composed is subject to change once in three years, when all except the ex-officio
