To which must be added donations of $50 each made by the Society to the Ladies' Protestant Home and the Finlay Asylum	100 00

Total distributed in charity $766 55

Of those partially assisted to return Home two were single men, and the others were families of 3, 5, 7, and 3, respectively; all were deserving cases.

It is worthy of note that the above expenditure includes some $50 or over for clothing which had to be purchased for individuals completely destitute, about to cross the Atlantic, &c.

R. H. Russell, Esq., shipping master, kindly found opportunities for six of the above to work their passages home, the Society providing them with clothing and other necessities. These were able-bodied individuals temporarily without employment, whom we make it a rule never to send Home at the Society's expense. The Deputy Shipping Master, Mr. Miller, has also been very obliging in rendering assistance in the same direction.

A mother and her two children were accommodated for a time in the Ladies' Protestant Home, where every care and attention possible were shown them.

The Richelieu and Ontario Navigation Company, and the Quebec and Gulf Ports S. S. Company have kindly favoured us in the usual way.

Our physician has cheerfully rendered professional aid, and our chaplains have earnestly assisted this Committee in its efforts to alleviate distress. The Rev. J. S. Sykes, Port Chaplain, has also done good service in this way.
