

St. George's Church, Toronto.

The Annual Meeting of this Association was held on Thursday evening, the 15th of March, in St. George's Church. After evening prayer the chair was taken by the Rev. James Beaven, D. D.

The weather being unseasonable, the attendance was not so large as on former occasions—but many staunch friends of the church were present notwithstanding.— Among them we noticed the Rev. W. S. Darling, M. A.; the Rev. T. S. Kennedy, Secretary of the Church Society; the Hon. Mr. Vice-Chancellor Spragge, J. Arnold, T. P. Robarts, Robert Denison, S. B. Harman, James Nation, Andrew Fleming, T. McCleary, David Burns, F. W. Barron, John Daly, Mr. McGillvray, Henry Rowsell, Mr. Winyeatt, E. T. Dartnell, Somerville Boulton, and a fair attendance of ladies.

The Rev. Chairman explained the circumstances under which he had been asked to take the chair, alluding with feeling to the melancholy bereavement which had fallen on the Rev., the Incumbent (Dr. Lett,) which prevented his presiding on this occasion. He
