

- 709-10, 713n; communications, 704; delay in notifying acceptance of West Indies trade agreement, 711-12; suggested union with Canada, 714
- British High Commissioner, Siberia, 210-11, 215
- British Honduras, proposed transfer of Indians to, 664n; inclusion in area studied by Royal Commission, 680; special position, 689; no action on reciprocity, 689, 693, 702; three-year Canadian trade concessions, 700, 708; trade statistics, 702; Canadian tariff rates, 709; suggested union with Canada, 714, 718
- British military mission to United States, proposed, 168-69
- British Minister, Lisbon, 754; Paris, 720-21 (see also Carnegie, L. D.; also British Ambassador, Paris); Minister and Legation, Peking, 591, 591n, 594, 597, 599—see also Jordan, Sir John N.
- British North America Acts, 158
- British North Borneo, 708-9
- British preference, Canadian policy of, 238, 787; effect on Belgium and Germany, 256-57, 673, 725-27; to continue under West Indies trade agreement, 680, 690-92, 701; extension of preferences to other British colonies, 706-9; exceptions, 707-9; tariffs within Empire no concern of other states, 673-74, 725, 727, 757, 776; no injury to British exporters expected from Canada-US reciprocity arrangement, 790, 796-97—see also British trade treaties; Dominions and British trade treaties; Imperial preference
- British Trade Commissioner Service, 16n
- British trade treaties, enemy states not to benefit from preferential clauses during early post-war period, 305, 322, 325-28—see also Canada, national status, Section E; Dominions and British treaties
- British War Cabinet—see War Cabinet (UK)
- British War Mission, Washington, 24n, 28-29, 31, 33
- British West Indies, main entries under West Indies: Royal Commissions, trade conferences, trade agreement, communications, steamship service, union with Canada—see also names of individual colonies
- Brodeur, Louis P., Minister of Marine and Fisheries, 1906-11, Minister of the Naval Service, May 4, 1910-Aug. 10, 1911: at 1909 Imperial Defence Conference, 226, 230, 233-38; at 1911 fisheries conference, Washington, 467; signature of conference minutes, 470-71; policy on pelagic sealing, 552, 557
- Brunei, 708-9
- Bryan, William Jennings, Secretary of State (US), Mar. 5, 1913-June 9, 1915, additional privileges for US fishermen in Canada, 486-87—see also desired subject headings during period of incumbency
- Bryce, James (Viscount, 1914), British Ambassador, Washington, Feb. 1907-Apr. 1913, extent of responsibility for Canadian affairs, 27—for discharge of functions see desired subject headings during period of incumbency, as follows: boundary questions, 361-434; North Atlantic fisheries, 448-81; pelagic sealing, 507-90; commercial relations with US, 756-98; pecuniary claims agreement, 799-816; naval vessels on the Great Lakes, 818-37; Panama Canal tolls, 844-47
- Burn and Berridge, handling of Newfoundland case in Labrador boundary dispute, 426-27, 440-41
- Burns, John, 260, 260n
- Burrell, Martin, Minister of Agriculture, 1911-19, Komagata Maru incident, 650, 650n, 651; proposed agreement on Chinese immigration, 651; review of policy on Indian immigration, 669
- Burton, Henry, 346, 346n, 349
- Burton, Senator (Ohio), 434
- Burton Act, 370
- Bury, Sir George, 308, 308n
- Buskard, G. F. Secretary to Prime Minister, 219
- Byers, Captain W. D., 588
- Byng, Lieut.-Gen. Sir Julian H. G. (KCMG, 1915; Baron, 1919), 165, 165n

C

Cabinet—see Governor in Council; subject headings for individual Cabinet decisions; also Imperial War Cabinet; War Cabinet (UK)