BOWMANVILLE DISTRICT.

The fourteenth annual Epworth League Convention was well attended in Oshawa, on December 1st. No one could see the large gathering of delegates without being convinced that the Epworth League is a vital factor in the church work on the District. The morning and afternoon sessions were held in Medcalf Street Church, Church. Both morning and evening sessions were addressed by Rev. E. W. Morgan, returned missionary from West China, and a soul-stirring address in the evening were contributed by the general secretary, Dr. Stephen catechised and Movement during the forward papers and addresses of practical value "Belgrave Mission," Mrs. E. Schindler, of Miss E. M. Werry, and the delegates will long remember the simple, yet thrilling description of the Armenian massacre as given by Mr. Adam Garabedian, who, as a boy at home, experienced many of the horrors of those awful outrages. Taken all in all the Convention was a most pronounced success.

ST. JOHN, N.B.

Rev. H. D. Marr, B.A., of St. John, during the visit of Mr. Farewell, in the city. The programme comprised a dinner of the West Side church in Carlton Church, on Friday, Nov. 19th; Sunday service in Exmouth Street Sunday School; Centenary Church Church at eleven mass meeting at four o'clock, and preaching service in Queen Square Church at seven o'clock. On Monday and Tuesday land Street Church. Taken all in all the Conference was "Religious Work among Young People" and the results of the gathering cannot be too highly estimated. We had very profitable sessions, and evoked a hearty and enthusiastic response. I am sure our people derived we are not in a position to give anything like an adequate report of this Conference, we are pleased to make this note regarding it."—Ed.)

Rev. F. A. Wightman, Sunday School Secretary of the Charlottetown District. Rev. N. B. and P. E. I. Conference, in a personal note to the General Secretary, gives the following:

"The special feature of our Sunday School work since Conference was the six days on the District, including one Sunday. He followed the itinerary which I planned and which touched the majority of our Circuits outside of Charlottetown. The season of the year, the middle of November, was not very opportune, and yet Mr. Farewell's meetings were much appreciated, and his addresses were much appreciated. I have no doubt good results will follow."
