

aforesaid, shall not in such case be entitled to have the said fair or exhibition held thereat until its turn shall arrive in ordinary course, and not then unless the requisite ground and buildings shall have been first provided as aforesaid.

Grounds on which fair has already been held to be deemed to have been approved by Directors.

VI. Where ground and buildings as aforesaid have already been provided at either or any of the said cities by the local governing authorities or otherwise, upon and in which ground and buildings the said annual fair or exhibition has been held, such holding shall be considered as tantamount to an approval by the said Directors of the said Association, and as an acknowledgment by them that such ground and buildings contain sufficient accommodation for the purposes of the said annual fair or exhibition, and such cities respectively shall not be required to furnish or supply any further provision of ground or buildings for the purposes of such fair or exhibition. 5 10

Time fixed for next fair confirmed.

V. The time already fixed by the Directors of the said Association, at their last annual meeting held under the authority of the said recited Act shall be the time at which the next annual fair or exhibition shall be held in the City of Kingston in the year 1859. 15

How Directors to govern their approval of ground.

VI. The Directors of the said Association in giving or refusing their approval of the provision of ground and buildings by either of the said cities both as to quantity and quality shall be governed as far as possible by the provision of ground and buildings made by such other or others of the said cities at which since such provision the said annual fair or exhibition has been held. 20