Liquors in virtue of the License he may then hold, and from obtaining any such License during the five years ensuing such conviction: Provided always, that the prosecution of such conviction shall take place within three months next after the offence, and not afterwards.

No Person to be allowed to sell liquors in any temporary stand, tent or booth &c.

XI. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, that no temporary stand or stands, tent or tents, booth or booths of any kind, placed or pitched out of doors for the sale of Liquors in retail, shall on any pretence be allowed, whether the same be set up by a person or persons having a License or Licenses or not, and that any Justice of the Peace, Peace Officer or Churchwarden shall be, and hereby is authorized and empowered to seize all such Liquor as he shall find exposed for sale by retail in any such temporary stand, tent or booth, and also to demolish such stand, tent or booth, and if he shall so deem it necessary, arrest the offender or offenders, until such Liquors shall have been examined and security have been given to appear and answer to such prosecution as may legally ensue; and every such Justice of the Peace, Peace Officer or Churchwarden, acting in this behalf and suing, shall be a competent witness, but shall not be entitled to any part of the penalty or fine, imposed and levied upon such offender or offenders as aforesaid, in any case wherein he shall have been a witness.

Peace Officers and Churchwardens authorized to seize the liquors sofor sale &c. and arrest the offender &c.

Persons to be appointed for the purpose of discovering and prosecuting persons selling spirituous liquors without licence &c.

XII. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, that the Justices of the Peace in the respective Districts of Quebec, Montreal and Three Rivers, may annually, as herein-above mentioned, with respect to Visiters and Inspectors, appoint and employ one or more fit and proper persons, with a suitable compensation from the funds aforesaid, for the purpose of visiting the several Towns, Parishes, and Townships, throughout their respective Districts, to discover, denounce and prosecute persons vending and retailing Spirituous Liquors without a License; and the person so appointed and employed shall be a competent Witness, but shall not be entitled to any part of the penalty or fine imposed and levied upon any offender in any case wherein he shall have been a Witness.

XIII. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, that this Act shall be and remain in force until the first day of May, one thousand eight hundred and no longer.