

person to interfere with the same, or prevent the peaceable possession thereof, &c., by the Trustees, Master, &c., or others, for the purposes of education, unless sanctioned by the terms of any deed, &c., of the site given by the owner or occupant, &c

All conveyances of such sites ineffectual to enable grantee, &c., therein named to interfere with same or the school-house thereon, or parties in possession thereof, for purposes of education.

Preamble to section.

Repeals so much of sec. 32 of Act 17th Vic., cap. 3, as exempts the inhabitants of Charlottetown, Common and Royalty, from being assessed by their Trustees for books, fuel, &c.

tenant or occupant, by deed or otherwise, whether registered or unregistered, in any manner to interfere with such site or school-house thereon erected, or to prevent the free and peaceable possession and use thereof, and access thereto and thereover, by or to the Trustees, Masters or Children, or the Inhabitants of the District, or the Board of Education, or others for the purposes of education, unless such interference shall be expressly sanctioned by the terms of any deed, lease or agreement given by the owner, tenant or occupant of, or person entitled to, the land on which the house is or shall be erected; and any conveyance or deed of the site heretofore made, or hereafter to be made, shall be ineffectual to pass any estate therein, so as to enable the grantee, or releasee, or person to whom the same is conveyed, to interfere with such site, or any school-house thereon, or any of the aforesaid parties, in the free and peaceable use and occupation and possession thereof, as aforesaid.

XXII. And whereas the restriction contained in the thirty-second section of the Act of the seventeenth Victoria, chapter three, by which the inhabitants of Charlottetown Royalty and Common are exempt from being assessed for the purposes in the said section mentioned, has not been found to operate with advantage: Be it therefore enacted, that so much of the said section of the said last recited Act as exempts the inhabitants of the Common and Royalty of Charlottetown from being assessed by the Trustees elected under the thirty-first section of the said last herein recited Act, for the purpose of providing books, fuel or furniture for the use of Schools, or to defray the cost of erecting school-houses, or of the repairs thereof, or for any
