

Gratuity in case of bodily injury on duty.

quit the service before such period, by reason of severe bodily injury received without his own fault in the discharge of his public duty, the Governor in Council may allow him a gratuity not exceeding three months' pay for every two years service, or a superannuation allowance not exceeding one-fifth of his average salary during the then last three years.

Provision for abolition of office, reduction of staff, &c.

10. If any person to whom this Act applies is removed from office in consequence of the abolition thereof, in order to the improvement of the organization of the department to which he belongs or is removed or retired from office to promote efficiency or economy in the Civil Service, the Governor in Council may grant him such gratuity or superannuation allowance as will fairly compensate him for his loss of office, not exceeding such as he would have been entitled to if he had retired in consequence of permanent infirmity of body or mind, after adding ten years to his actual term of service.

Pensioners under $0 liable to serve if required, under penalty of loss of allowance.

11. Any person receiving a superannuation allowance, and being under the age of sixty years, and not disabled by bodily or mental infirmity shall be liable to be called upon to fill, in any part of Canada, any public office or situation for which his previous services render him eligible, and not lower in rank or emolument than that from which he retired; and, if he refuse or neglect so to do, he shall forfeit his said allowance.

Service before Confederation to be counted.

12. Service in an established capacity in any of the public departments of the Government or offices of the Legislature of any of the Provinces now included in the Dominion of Canada, before such Province became a portion of the Dominion, by any person who has thereafter entered the Civil Service of Canada shall be reckoned in computing his period of service for the purpose of this Act.

Discretionary power of Governor in Council.

13. In any case of doubt the Governor in Council may, by general or special regulations, determine to what persons the provisions of this Act do or do not apply, and the conditions on which, and the manner in which, they shall apply in any case or class of cases.

Payment of allowances.

14 The allowances and gratuities granted under this Act, shall be payable out of the Consolidated Revenue Fund of Canada.

Annual return to be made to Parliament.

15. The Minister of Finance shall lay before Parliament, within fifteen days after the commencement of each session, a return of all superannuations and retiring allowances in the Civil Service within the year, giving the name and rank of each person superannuated or retired, his salary, his
