

Rameses present Santa

The Rameses Shrine will present a grand Santa Claus parade in Clarkson Saturday, Dec. 14, leaving Plaza Lodge at 11 a.m. and proceeding along Lakeshore rd. to Highway 122 and back to Ray White's Service Station.

It will include bands, clowns, floats, favors and, of course, Santa Claus himself.

Bring the kiddies out for fun and laughter and have their picture taken with old St. Nick. All proceeds will go towards the wonderful work the Rameses shrine is doing.

The Monday night Cub Pack at St Stephen's-on-the-Hill are very pleased to announce that John Chappell is now an assistant cub leader.

Akela Ross Chalmers is also pleased to report that 12 new chums were invested, i.e. Tud Dersch, Craig Nogas, Paul Chalmers, Peter Ellery, Kim to the McLaughlin Planetarium.

The explorers of St. Stephen's Church with Mrs. Cole and her assistant, Mrs. Dianne Terotta, in charge, held their regular meeting Tuesday, Nov. 26. This was a star ceremony and the meeting was conducted by the girls themselves with Kim Terotta in the chair, Sandy Porteous at the piano and Laurie McKenzie gave a short talk on China, their mission study for the year.

Explorer Barbara Cole, Laurie McKenzie, Kim Terotta and Nancy Pullen received their Stars.

Six new girls were initiated and received their first star: Marg McKenzie, Sandy Porteous, Beverley Yorke, Dianne Pulte, Kathy Dersch and Jill Smith.

Last Tuesday the girls held a craft day when they made corsages for the patients of the Lakeshore Psychiatric Hospital to wear at their Christmas party.

The Lorne Park Senior Citizens met in the Parish Hall of St. Paul's Anglican Church for their regular meeting Friday, Nov. 29, with 52 members present. The group was happy to welcome back two members who have been on the sick list for sometime. Percy Irvine, the crossing guard who was so seriously injured Sept. 20 while on duty, and Mrs. Margaret Hanforth, one of their most faithful members of long standing.

There are others still absent because of illness and all the members hope they will soon be able to come back to their meetings soon.

A card game followed a short business meeting. Refreshments were served, baked and donated by the president Mrs. Mary Houghton.

There will be no more regular meetings this year but the seniors are looking forward to their Christmas dinner and entertainment planned for Dec. 11, in the Parish

Santa will greet kiddies of all ages from the Shriners' caboose Sat., Dec. 14, during the parade slated for that day. Ed McGahey of Clarkson is santa this year and he is shown with Ben Zlot, right, and Lord Athol Layton, Potentate of Rameses Shrine. The Shriners Parade will feature everything that makes up these colorful caravans.
