

6250584

(c) if, for more than two consecutive weeks, the person has not been gainfully employed during normal full time, to apply, within seven days from the time when the direction is given, for specified full time employment which, in the opinion of the Selective Service Officer, is suitable and to accept the employment when it is offered to him, and every person to whom any such direction is given shall comply with the direction.

(2) An employee shall, for the purpose of this section, be deemed to be unemployed on the termination of a period of seven days from the day his employer gives him a notice of separation or he gives his employer a notice of separation.

(3) When a Selective Service Officer directs an employed person to accept employment under this section, he shall send a copy of the order to such person's employer.

(4) In deciding whether employment is suitable for a person, a Selective Service Officer shall consider such factors as he deems relevant including the person's physical condition, training, experience, prior earnings and personal responsibilities and the distance of the employment from his residence; and he shall not consider employment to be suitable if the wages are lower, or the conditions of work are less favourable, than either those fixed by collective agreement for the place where the work is to be performed or, if there is no such agreement, those observed by good employers.

(5) When a Selective Service Officer directs a person under this section to accept employment which necessitates changing his place of residence, he shall provide such person with financial assistance under this part.

(6) No person shall terminate employment which he has been directed to accept under this section or cease to perform his duties in the employment without a written permit from the Selective Service Officer.