

of the property and any equipment, or accessories thereto belonging, and for such purpose the Seller may enter upon any premises where the property may be and remove it.

8. The Seller may re-sell the property so retaken at public or private sale with notice to the purchaser upon such terms and in such manner as the Seller may determine, and to that end may make such repairs as the Seller deems necessary. From the proceeds of any such sale, the Seller may deduct all expenses for retaking, repairing and selling the property, including the costs of the Seller's solicitor as between solicitor and client, and the balance thereof shall be applied to the amount due. Any surplus shall be paid over to the Purchaser.

It is agreed that the repossession and retention sale or right thereto shall not affect the Purchaser's liability until full payment has been made.

This Agreement shall enure to the benefit of and be enforceable by the parties hereto, and their executors, administrators, successors and assigns, respectively.

Dated, this 18th day of February, A.D. 1949.
