THE ENTRANCE

For Entrance and Public School Leaving.

VOL. II, No. 5.

TORONTO, ONT., NOV. 2, 1896.

25c. PER YEAR.
20c. IN CLUBS.

Every Thoughtful man and woman who will give the matter careful consideration will realize that the great advantage of being classed with superior lives for life insurance does not appear at once, but that the advantages accumulate with passing years. Where lives are selected with great care, fewer deaths occur, and therefore less money has to be paid for death claims. The longer men live to pay premiums, and the greater number they pay, the greater must be the surplus for distribution from over-payment of premiums. Again, the longer the reserves remain with the Company, the greater the surplus derived from interest earnings.

Insure in The Temperance and General Life Assurance Company and get the largest possible benefits.
