Of Remarkable Memories.

There was a Corsican boy who could re-There was a Corsican boy who could rehearse 40,000 words, whether sense or nonsense, as they were dictated, and then repeat them in the reversed order without making a single mistake. A physician, about 60 years ago, could repeat the whole of "Paradise Lost," without making a mistake, although he had not read it for 20 years. Euler, the great mathematician, years. Euler, the great mathematician, when he became blind, could repeat the whole of Virgil's "Eucid" and could remember the first line and the last line of every page of the proticular line of he had been accustomed to read before he he had been accustomed to read before he became blind.

One kind of retentive memory may be considered as the result of sheer work, a dement without reference either to cultivation or to memory on other subjects. This is frequently shown by persons in human life in regard to the Bible. An old beggarman d one particular achieve in regard to the Bible. An old beggarman at Stirling, known 50 years ago as "Blind Alick," afforded an instance of this. He knew the whole of the Bible by heart, insomuch that if a sentence was read to him he could name the book, chapter and verse; or if the book, chapter and verse were named, he could give the exact words.

O for a soft and gentle wind!

I heard a fair one cry:
But give to me the snoring breeze
And white waves heaving high;
And white waves heaving high, my lads,
The good ship tight and free—
The world of waters is our home,
And merry men are we.

There's tempest in yon horned moon,
And lightning in yon cloud;
But hark the music, mariners!
The wind is piping loud;
The wind is piping loud, my boys,
The lightning flashes free—
While the hollow oak our palace is,
Our heritage tha sea. Our heritage the sea.

Whose bread is delicious and white;
Her coffee is fragrant and brown,
Her pasty a perfect delight,
t she daily complains of the worry they bring— But she daily complains of the worry they bring—She's my own darling wife, but a fidgety thing!

Your wife is worn out, and needs Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, the only medicine guaranteed to cure debilitated women. How many overworked American ladies we see with lack-lustre eyes and haggard faces, growing old before their time, from those exhausting silments that men know nothing of. They can be permanently cured by this remedy, as numberless grateful women will attest. Price refunded, if it fails to give satisfaction in every case. See guarantee printed on bottle-wrapper.

Some Strange Misnomers.

Dashaway—"Why, of course I would. How absurd."

Travers—"Then bring the scene a little nearer. Suppose that in four years from now you should meet me as I have described myself, with this exception—that I had on a good hat. Would you still do the square thing?"
