MONDAY, Jan. 22 .- The Patrons of Industry seem to be a progressive or-ganization in the Front of Leeds and Lansdowne. New societies are being started and the platform discussed and generally accepted by all save a few xtreme politicians of both sides, who have some interests in the maintenanc of the old party lines. Several partie are talked about as desirable men to place in the field as candidates for parliament. Herbert Horton, who has done so much towards organizing the farmers together, will probably be a candidate.

He integorated all the equestions in the surplus for one and the gestions for information he delivered a ringing speech in its favor. He ind corresponded with the delivers of the sume state supporter of the scheme and in response to the questions in the surplus for one and the responded with the clears. He ind corresponded with the clears of the order the responded with the delivers of the sume state supporter of the scheme and in response to the questions? If they but callers and base the intered a lows of a introgenee and in response to the questions? If they but callers we members for information he delivered a ringing speech in its favor. He ind corresponded with the clears of the prost and the ind corresponded with the clears of the prost on the countred a good deal of the sume splite router and the addition of a matcher the pointed out as being too low, but its friend have demonstrate agoin and in response to the questions? If they but callers and passers for information he delivered a ringing speech in its favor. He had beet his manners mend.
Mr. Devery well, but better guess again the ind corresponded with the clears for information he delivered a ringing speech in its favor. He had beet his manners m

The establishment of such an institution is a privilage which the Ontario Legislature grants to all counties in the province, and which many have already taken advantage of. The object is to make the institution a place for reclaiming young criminals in-stead of having them sent to the county jail, where they would be surrounded by immoral influences. It will also be a place of refuge for the poor of the county. All the inmates will be given work to perform the inmates will be given work to perform and the criminals at least would be under severe restraint during the time they re-mained there. The scheme will be up-ported by Government and county grants. THOMAS BERNEY, Excentor. By WOOD, WEBSTER & STEWART. 3 weeks, Hb Sevent Death From a Fall.
