Corn cutting and silo filling has nearly reached fever heat here now. Preparations are being made to build new shed on the church grounds The material is already on the grounds Mayor Reed is in very poor health at present. Old age is fast telling on his feeble frame. Richard Kerr has purchased egistered Yorkshire hog for the imcovement of stock. T. Kerr and D. Johnston have purchased a new corn binder Hannah and Kerr's mill being crowded with work, the custom coming from all directions. Mrs. P. Blanchard is on the sick

Mrs. Hannah is visiting her relatives at North Gore.

The neighbors were very much saddened on Friday on hearing that Mrs. Chalmers of Smith's Falls had died suddenly. She was a Greenbush girl. Her maiden name was Irene Justus. She was well and favorably known in Athens, being a former student in the Athens high school.

The many friends of Mr. Henry Layng of Goveneur were pleased to receive a call from him last week. Mr Lang was a resident of this place 50 years ago, and he is hale and hearty yet, but notes many changes since he left here some 47 years ago.

A Birthday Party

Saturday last was the 76th anniversary of the birth of Mr. Thomas Pounder of East Buston, Mass., who has been for the last three months visiting old friends here and at Lyndhurst, Morton, Seeley's Bay, etc. Mr. Pounder stood in high favor with the children in the homes he visited, and their decision to celebrate his birthd y was made enthusiastically and unani-mously. Mr. Pounder was the guest of Mr. Wm Earl last week, and it was decided that the event should take place in Washburn's school-house. Thither then, from distant points, the children traveled, and at 2 p.m. about sixty friends had assembled. Of these, all were akin to Mr. Pounder excepting the Rev. R. B. Patterson, M. A., rector of the parish of Lansdowne Rear, the editor of the Athens Reporter, and Miss Washburne. The following were among those present:—
Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Warren,
Lyndhurst, and children — Charles,

Tommy, Frankie, Marjorie.
Constance Harvey, Lyndhurst.
Mrs. McFadden, Lyndhurst, and children—Elmer and Cecil.

Mrs. W. Wiltse, Lyndhurst, children-Martha B., Kenneth, Ada, Robert, Burnard.

Mr. and Mrs. Wellington Earl, Soperton, and children — Clifford, Willie, Luella, Charlie, Alma.

Mrs. John Singleton of Lyndhurst and daughter, Mildred. Mrs. Samuel Rathwell. Sweet's Corners, and children-Ella and Williamina

Mr. and Mrs. Hilliard Earl, Lyndhurst, and children--Annabel, William, Cecil, and Lenna May.
Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Kenny,
Lyndhurst, and children — Clarence,

Audrey, Harold Tye, Wilmer Tye.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Flood, Sopertor and children —Vera and Thos. E. Mrs Sloane, Lyndhurst. and children

William John and Hattie. Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Earl, Athens, and children-Robert J., Wesley and Letitia. Mr. Wm. Scott, and Mrs. Ellen

Scott, Sweet's Corners.

The weather was perfect, and both inside and outside the building the scene was animated and joyous. The school possesses sylvan surroundings of rare beauty, and away to the west the view is entrancing — across Plum Hollow and on to the rolling hills that mark the horizon.

Dinner was the first item on the program, and while it was being prepared Mr. Wm. Earl gave some interesting reminiscences of the early days. He was born and has always lived on the homestead and is now 72 years of age. Thos. Moulton, the oldest continuous resident of the district, is six months older. "All honest people and good neighbors" is the way Mr. Earl characterizes the people of the vicinity. On dinner being announced, a feast of fowl, meats, fish and pastry was found in waiting, and to this ample justice was done. Then, after a busy interval, devoted by the ladies to relaying the tables, ice-cream, nuts and candies were served, and the children expressed in smiles and laughter their appreciation of "Uncle Tom's" treat.

It was intended that Mr. Pounder and Rev. Mr. Patterson should address the gathering, but so much time was devoted to feasting and merry-making that there was no time for this, and about 5 p.m. all took leave of Mr. Pounder, wishing him many happy

From week to week Uncle Thomas Pounder has been deciding on going to Boston, where urgent business call him, but from solicitations and kind and loving invitations it appears he cannot bring his mind to leave his esteemed and true friends without complying with their earnest, hearttelt desires. It was his intention of ending for Athens to Friend Gordon's this week, on his way to Montreal, where he is going to remain over for a few days before leaving for Boston, but a family whom he admires is going to have a marriage ceremony of one of their daughters on Wednesday evening, Sept. 26, and, of course, Uncle Tom could not refuse such an honored request. He is going to tender to the happy couple, as a slight token of the sincere admiration in which he holds each one of them, a magnificent pickle cruet to the bride and an elaborately and neatly designed pair of gold cuff studs to the groom, wishing them all the happiness and prosperity in this life, and when done here below that heaven above shall be their resting and abiding place. He reports that the more he comes the greater the desire of enjoying his company, and his friends are constantly increasing. Already over sixty pleasant, sociable and friendly love feasts have been accepted and enjoyed, and many more awaiting his coming.

BE FAIR WITH YOURSELF

A number of the readers of this paper are not fair with themselves. How is that, I hear you say. Just this way-you buy your clothes where credit is given to other people. The merchant loses money on those people? Who do you suppose makes good these losses? Why, bless you, you do, if you buy your goods and pay for them.

We do not give Credit--we have no such Losses

Our customers do not pay an extra price because of the losses in giving credit.

We know our $12.50 suit for men is as good as what you could get in a credit store for $1500.

Be Fair with Yourself

You are not fair with yourself if you dont, at least, see if what we say is correct.

Use us Fairly

If we are selling the best clothing for the money, we should have your money. Say, will you please find out? Make up your mind right now that you will see our clothes before you purchase your next suit.

Guaranteed to Cure Lame Back or money refunded!

An excellent remedy for Reheuma-ism, Lame Back, Etc., Etc.

Read the following testimonial from a man you all know: Forfar, Feb. 6, 1906 Mr. W. A. Singleton, Crosby, Ont.

Crosby, Ont.

Dear Sir,—Being laid up with lame back, I thought I would drop you a line to tell you that your St. Legis Lumbago cure will do all you claim for it, as I have only used part of the bottle and I feel no returning symptoms of the dlaease. liseasc. I may say I have been troubled with lame back for the last ten years, and tried several other patent medicines but without results. I can heartily recommend it to any troubled with lame back, and I feel safe in saying that it's the cheapest medicine on the market. Yours Truly,

JAMES McCUE If your dealer does not keep this medicine, cindly ask him to order same for you as any sized order will be filled promptly.
