

WM. FOREMAN & CO.

IMPORTERS

THE GREATEST SALE OF

High Grade Millinery

RECORDED IN THE HISTORY OF THIS STORE

This season's nobbiest hats have been reduced for quick selling for To-Night and Monday and all Next Week. If you would have one of the season's most stylish hats this winter at about half the original prices. Be on hand early To-Night or Next Week. Colored Dress and Ready-to-Wear Hats on sale To-Night and all Next Week at $\frac{1}{4}$ to $\frac{1}{2}$ their regular price.

WM. FOREMAN & CO.

Our Holiday Display

EMBRACES GIFTS SUITABLE FOR EVERYONE

We have everything that is new and everything worth giving in:

Latest Leather Goods, Shaving Sets, Travelling Sets,
Toilet Sets, Mirrors, Fancy Atomizers,
Rhony Goods, of all kinds, Perfumes, the finest display ever shown here.

We have put attractive prices on them all.

THE RED CROSS DRUG STORE

W. W. TURNER

28 King St.

Phone 221

Only 4 More Days

....OF....

The Great Sale

These goods must be sold by next Wednesday in order to make room for Christmas Stock.

85c to $1.25 Dress Goods at 59c.

50c and 60c Dress Goods at 39c.

Millinery at half price.

35c Heavy Ribbed Worsted Hosiery for 25c.

7c Flannelettes for 5c.

8c Flannelettes for 6c.

12½c Wrapperettes for 8½c.

Door Panels and Pillow Shams at half price.

Lace Curtains 30% off.

Ladies, Childrens and Men's Underwear at special prices.

35c to 50c Ladies Belts for 25c.

Bargains in every dept.

Thibodeau & Jacques

EDITOR CARMAN COMMITTED FOR TRIAL

Belleville Justice Holds Him On
Libel Charge in $1,000 Bail.

Magistrate Wood's Judgment Is That the Plot to Steal the Constituency Is Proven, That the Bold Scheme Had Toronto Origin and That the Public Conscience Should Wake—Lott and Shibley Prime Movers—Police Magistrate Harryett Sent to Jail Without Bail Option.

Belleville, Dec. 10.—Magistrate Wood last night committed T. S. Carman, editor and proprietor of the Ontario, for trial on the charge of criminal libel, preferred by E. Gus Porter, M.P.-elect.

The evidence furnished a surprise by showing that the article complained of was not published on the day named in the indictment and asked that the case be thrown out. It was proved by the only witness on behalf of Mr. Carman that the date line of the paper, "Thursday, Dec. 4," was a typographical error, the alleged libel being contained in the issue of Thursday, Dec. 3, but Mr. DuVernet amended the information, and the magistrate declined to throw the case out on a technicality.

During the morning, strong evidence was produced by the prosecution. R. E. Ruttan told a story connecting E. G. Ruttan completely with the ballot box conspiracy, and showing that the boxes were in actual use on election day.

It was also proven that James Vance, secretary of the Ontario Liberal Association, had telephonic communication with W. J. Shibley on Nov. 9, the day before Shibley skipped, and before his name was mentioned in connection with the plot.

Mr. DuVernet asked that the charge be withdrawn, it being founded upon a mistake.

The Magistrate's Judgment.

Police Magistrate Wood's report on the evidence in the ballot box conspiracy fills fourteen pages of type, written for the purpose of the trial, after specifying the libel, and stating that the innuendo was that Mr. Porter, in order to injure B. O. Lott, devised a scheme to impute to Lott the criminal offence of securing his election by trafficking in bogus ballot boxes.

"I have undertaken the duty of investigating this charge with extreme reluctance. Public responsibility, however, is not new to me. As county councillor, member of the Legislature and Justice of the Peace, I have served the public for many years, but in the discharge of my duties I never had an investigation of so obviously painful and unpleasant a nature. The publication of this libel has been amply proved, as there can be no question that the defendant is one of the proprietors and publishers of the said newspaper, The Ontario, and that the libel was contained in its issue on above date.

The Untruth Established.

"The untruth of the libel on Mr. Porter is established by its having been proven that the scheme was conceived and brought into execution by W. J. Shibley and B. O. Lott, each a candidate for election to parliament assisted by P. J. Reilly and others, and that Porter, so far from having any hand in the outrage, was to be the victim of this nefarious plot to steal a constituency. I am constrained to say that the evidence given in other courts established the fact that this is no solitary instance of electoral corruption. From the extreme case of Ontario to the continuous series of crimes against political honesty have been shown to have been committed. From the evidence of frauds and tricks at elections, which have been so frequent of late, I HAVE RELUCTANTLY COME TO THE CONCLUSION THAT PUBLIC HONOR IN CANADA HAS STEADILY DECLINED. Such deterioration can only be stopped by a serious awakening of the public conscience, and I trust that the evidence that has been brought forward in this case may give such a shock to public opinion as to make the 'saving remnant' of honorable men in the province awake to the seriousness of the position. It seems to me that one of the most dangerous sophistries that can be urged in respect of crimes of this character is that there is no standard of honesty and duty in public and private life. If the public conscience becomes seriously weakened it cannot fail to affect the standards of private honor.

Originated in Toronto.

"The scheme seems, so far as B. O. Lott is concerned, to have originated at Toronto, for the evidence of Philip Lott shows that B. O. Lott told him that one James Vance, a Liberal organizer, had made arrangements for bogus ballot boxes. On the Sunday Byron Lott came from Toronto, Philip Lott swears that Byron and Philip Lott swears that Harryett came to his (Philip Lott's) house and told him that Byron was going to win West Hastings, and that he was going to steal the constituency by means of bogus ballot boxes, and explained the method of the operation. Reilly's account of his part of the transaction is that W. J. Shibley, a candidate for election in Frontenac, told him about two years ago that he had a chance to steal the riding. Shibley afterwards took Reilly to Watertown, N.Y., where they went to the tin-smith shop of Pratt & Corcoran, where they saw a man named Carscallen, who was at work on the ballot boxes. A bogus ballot box was brought back by them to Kingston. Apparently it was not satisfactory, and the next step was to obtain a genuine box, which Reilly swears was obtained from Deputy Sheriff Asseltine, and taken to Reilly's boarding house, where it was inspected by Shibley, and there remained until July, 1904, when it was sent at Shibley's request to Watertown. This identical box, after having served its purpose, is now produced in court with the original markings upon it of one C. Roof, who took the place of Carscallen in the manufacturing of bogus ballot boxes.

Again Shibley Sees Reilly.

"After the genuine box was sent to Carscallen at Watertown, nothing was done to Reilly's knowledge, until July or August, 1904, when Shibley saw Reilly and spoke to him about a 'sticker scheme' for winning elections, which he had learned from a man from the Southern States. Shibley then said that he had arranged with Carscallen for a new supply of boxes on an improved plan, the vital feature of which was the handle. Shibley told Reilly to look after the matter, and the latter went to Watertown and interviewed Carscallen, who refused to manufacture them, and said that his foreman, C. Roof, was doing the work. Roof, on being seen by Reilly, and being asked whether the work was finished, said: 'He had not things right.' After Reilly returned to Kingston, about the beginning of October, he was introduced by Shibley to B. O. Lott at the British Hotel, Kingston. It is shown that Lott was anxious to go to Watertown to see the boxes, and wished Reilly to accompany him. The evidence shows that it was then well known by the parties interested that the boxes were to be used at the coming elections. About the end of the first week in October, B. O. Lott and Reilly went to Watertown and registered at the Hardman Hotel—Lott under a false name. Lott kept in the background and sent Reilly to interview Roof.

Lott Sees the Box.

"Roof said: 'He had spent several nights over the matter, but he had got something pretty sick.' The trial, which was held at Kingston, was altogether satisfied with it and expressed the opinion that 'it had not a large enough false receptacle to overcome the weight of the evidence.' He suggested that this receptacle should be enlarged, and his suggestion was carried out. Reilly had previously been seen by one Whalen, a revenue officer at Prescott, to receive the boxes which were to be sent to Prescott by way of Ogdensburg. It was arranged that the boxes should be sent in twenty boxes, as follows: Ten to W. H. Carefoot (an assumed name) at Kingston; four to John Bremner, at Bancroft, and to Philip Lott at Central Ontario Junction. Shibley and B. O. Lott were to put up the money for the expenses, and a letter is produced, asking Lott to send him shares in the evidence it appears that Shibley contributed $100 and Whalen advanced $10. It was about Oct. 1 that Byron Lott told his brother, Philip, in the town of a revenue officer at Prescott, to receive the boxes which were to be sent to Prescott by way of Ogdensburg. It was arranged that the boxes should be sent in twenty boxes, as follows: Ten to W. H. Carefoot (an assumed name) at Kingston; four to John Bremner, at Bancroft, and to Philip Lott at Central Ontario Junction. Shibley and B. O. Lott were to put up the money for the expenses, and a letter is produced, asking Lott to send him shares in the evidence it appears that Shibley contributed $100 and Whalen advanced $10. It was about Oct. 1 that Byron Lott told his brother, Philip, in the town of a revenue officer at Prescott, to receive the boxes which were to be sent to Prescott by way of Ogdensburg. It was arranged that the boxes should be sent in twenty boxes, as follows: Ten to W. H. Carefoot (an assumed name) at Kingston; four to John Bremner, at Bancroft, and to Philip Lott at Central Ontario Junction. Shibley and B. O. Lott were to put up the money for the expenses, and a letter is produced, asking Lott to send him shares in the evidence it appears that Shibley contributed $100 and Whalen advanced $10. It was about Oct. 1 that Byron Lott told his brother, Philip, in the town of a revenue officer at Prescott, to receive the boxes which were to be sent to Prescott by way of Ogdensburg. It was arranged that the boxes should be sent in twenty boxes, as follows: Ten to W. H. Carefoot (an assumed name) at Kingston; four to John Bremner, at Bancroft, and to Philip Lott at Central Ontario Junction. Shibley and B. O. Lott were to put up the money for the expenses, and a letter is produced, asking Lott to send him shares in the evidence it appears that Shibley contributed $100 and Whalen advanced $10. It was about Oct. 1 that Byron Lott told his brother, Philip, in the town of a revenue officer at Prescott, to receive the boxes which were to be sent to Prescott by way of Ogdensburg. It was arranged that the boxes should be sent in twenty boxes, as follows: Ten to W. H. Carefoot (an assumed name) at Kingston; four to John Bremner, at Bancroft, and to Philip Lott at Central Ontario Junction. Shibley and B. O. Lott were to put up the money for the expenses, and a letter is produced, asking Lott to send him shares in the evidence it appears that Shibley contributed $100 and Whalen advanced $10. It was about Oct. 1 that Byron Lott told his brother, Philip, in the town of a revenue officer at Prescott, to receive the boxes which were to be sent to Prescott by way of Ogdensburg. It was arranged that the boxes should be sent in twenty boxes, as follows: Ten to W. H. Carefoot (an assumed name) at Kingston; four to John Bremner, at Bancroft, and to Philip Lott at Central Ontario Junction. Shibley and B. O. Lott were to put up the money for the expenses, and a letter is produced, asking Lott to send him shares in the evidence it appears that Shibley contributed $100 and Whalen advanced $10. It was about Oct. 1 that Byron Lott told his brother, Philip, in the town of a revenue officer at Prescott, to receive the boxes which were to be sent to Prescott by way of Ogdensburg. It was arranged that the boxes should be sent in twenty boxes, as follows: Ten to W. H. Carefoot (an assumed name) at Kingston; four to John Bremner, at Bancroft, and to Philip Lott at Central Ontario Junction. Shibley and B. O. Lott were to put up the money for the expenses, and a letter is produced, asking Lott to send him shares in the evidence it appears that Shibley contributed $100 and Whalen advanced $10. It was about Oct. 1 that Byron Lott told his brother, Philip, in the town of a revenue officer at Prescott, to receive the boxes which were to be sent to Prescott by way of Ogdensburg. It was arranged that the boxes should be sent in twenty boxes, as follows: Ten to W. H. Carefoot (an assumed name) at Kingston; four to John Bremner, at Bancroft, and to Philip Lott at Central Ontario Junction. Shibley and B. O. Lott were to put up the money for the expenses, and a letter is produced, asking Lott to send him shares in the evidence it appears that Shibley contributed $100 and Whalen advanced $10. It was about Oct. 1 that Byron Lott told his brother, Philip, in the town of a revenue officer at Prescott, to receive the boxes which were to be sent to Prescott by way of Ogdensburg. It was arranged that the boxes should be sent in twenty boxes, as follows: Ten to W. H. Carefoot (an assumed name) at Kingston; four to John Bremner, at Bancroft, and to Philip Lott at Central Ontario Junction. Shibley and B. O. Lott were to put up the money for the expenses, and a letter is produced, asking Lott to send him shares in the evidence it appears that Shibley contributed $100 and Whalen advanced $10. It was about Oct. 1 that Byron Lott told his brother, Philip, in the town of a revenue officer at Prescott, to receive the boxes which were to be sent to Prescott by way of Ogdensburg. It was arranged that the boxes should be sent in twenty boxes, as follows: Ten to W. H. Carefoot (an assumed name) at Kingston; four to John Bremner, at Bancroft, and to Philip Lott at Central Ontario Junction. Shibley and B. O. Lott were to put up the money for the expenses, and a letter is produced, asking Lott to send him shares in the evidence it appears that Shibley contributed $100 and Whalen advanced $10. It was about Oct. 1 that Byron Lott told his brother, Philip, in the town of a revenue officer at Prescott, to receive the boxes which were to be sent to Prescott by way of Ogdensburg. It was arranged that the boxes should be sent in twenty boxes, as follows: Ten to W. H. Carefoot (an assumed name) at Kingston; four to John Bremner, at Bancroft, and to Philip Lott at Central Ontario Junction. Shibley and B. O. Lott were to put up the money for the expenses, and a letter is produced, asking Lott to send him shares in the evidence it appears that Shibley contributed $100 and Whalen advanced $10. It was about Oct. 1 that Byron Lott told his brother, Philip, in the town of a revenue officer at Prescott, to receive the boxes which were to be sent to Prescott by way of Ogdensburg. It was arranged that the boxes should be sent in twenty boxes, as follows: Ten to W. H. Carefoot (an assumed name) at Kingston; four to John Bremner, at Bancroft, and to Philip Lott at Central Ontario Junction. Shibley and B. O. Lott were to put up the money for the expenses, and a letter is produced, asking Lott to send him shares in the evidence it appears that Shibley contributed $100 and Whalen advanced $10. It was about Oct. 1 that Byron Lott told his brother, Philip, in the town of a revenue officer at Prescott, to receive the boxes which were to be sent to Prescott by way of Ogdensburg. It was arranged that the boxes should be sent in twenty boxes, as follows: Ten to W. H. Carefoot (an assumed name) at Kingston; four to John Bremner, at Bancroft, and to Philip Lott at Central Ontario Junction. Shibley and B. O. Lott were to put up the money for the expenses, and a letter is produced, asking Lott to send him shares in the evidence it appears that Shibley contributed $100 and Whalen advanced $10. It was about Oct. 1 that Byron Lott told his brother, Philip, in the town of a revenue officer at Prescott, to receive the boxes which were to be sent to Prescott by way of Ogdensburg. It was arranged that the boxes should be sent in twenty boxes, as follows: Ten to W. H. Carefoot (an assumed name) at Kingston; four to John Bremner, at Bancroft, and to Philip Lott at Central Ontario Junction. Shibley and B. O. Lott were to put up the money for the expenses, and a letter is produced, asking Lott to send him shares in the evidence it appears that Shibley contributed $100 and Whalen advanced $10. It was about Oct. 1 that Byron Lott told his brother, Philip, in the town of a revenue officer at Prescott, to receive the boxes which were to be sent to Prescott by way of Ogdensburg. It was arranged that the boxes should be sent in twenty boxes, as follows: Ten to W. H. Carefoot (an assumed name) at Kingston; four to John Bremner, at Bancroft, and to Philip Lott at Central Ontario Junction. Shibley and B. O. Lott were to put up the money for the expenses, and a letter is produced, asking Lott to send him shares in the evidence it appears that Shibley contributed $100 and Whalen advanced $10. It was about Oct. 1 that Byron Lott told his brother, Philip, in the town of a revenue officer at Prescott, to receive the boxes which were to be sent to Prescott by way of Ogdensburg. It was arranged that the boxes should be sent in twenty boxes, as follows: Ten to W. H. Carefoot (an assumed name) at Kingston; four to John Bremner, at Bancroft, and to Philip Lott at Central Ontario Junction. Shibley and B. O. Lott were to put up the money for the expenses, and a letter is produced, asking Lott to send him shares in the evidence it appears that Shibley contributed $100 and Whalen advanced $10. It was about Oct. 1 that Byron Lott told his brother, Philip, in the town of a revenue officer at Prescott, to receive the boxes which were to be sent to Prescott by way of Ogdensburg. It was arranged that the boxes should be sent in twenty boxes, as follows: Ten to W. H. Carefoot (an assumed name) at Kingston; four to John Bremner, at Bancroft, and to Philip Lott at Central Ontario Junction. Shibley and B. O. Lott were to put up the money for the expenses, and a letter is produced, asking Lott to send him shares in the evidence it appears that Shibley contributed $100 and Whalen advanced $10. It was about Oct. 1 that Byron Lott told his brother, Philip, in the town of a revenue officer at Prescott, to receive the boxes which were to be sent to Prescott by way of Ogdensburg. It was arranged that the boxes should be sent in twenty boxes, as follows: Ten to W. H. Carefoot (an assumed name) at Kingston; four to John Bremner, at Bancroft, and to Philip Lott at Central Ontario Junction. Shibley and B. O. Lott were to put up the money for the expenses, and a letter is produced, asking Lott to send him shares in the evidence it appears that Shibley contributed $100 and Whalen advanced $10. It was about Oct. 1 that Byron Lott told his brother, Philip, in the town of a revenue officer at Prescott, to receive the boxes which were to be sent to Prescott by way of Ogdensburg. It was arranged that the boxes should be sent in twenty boxes, as follows: Ten to W. H. Carefoot (an assumed name) at Kingston; four to John Bremner, at Bancroft, and to Philip Lott at Central Ontario Junction. Shibley and B. O. Lott were to put up the money for the expenses, and a letter is produced, asking Lott to send him shares in the evidence it appears that Shibley contributed $100 and Whalen advanced $10. It was about Oct. 1 that Byron Lott told his brother, Philip, in the town of a revenue officer at Prescott, to receive the boxes which were to be sent to Prescott by way of Ogdensburg. It was arranged that the boxes should be sent in twenty boxes, as follows: Ten to W. H. Carefoot (an assumed name) at Kingston; four to John Bremner, at Bancroft, and to Philip Lott at Central Ontario Junction. Shibley and B. O. Lott were to put up the money for the expenses, and a letter is produced, asking Lott to send him shares in the evidence it appears that Shibley contributed $100 and Whalen advanced $10. It was about Oct. 1 that Byron Lott told his brother, Philip, in the town of a revenue officer at Prescott, to receive the boxes which were to be sent to Prescott by way of Ogdensburg. It was arranged that the boxes should be sent in twenty boxes, as follows: Ten to W. H. Carefoot (an assumed name) at Kingston; four to John Bremner, at Bancroft, and to Philip Lott at Central Ontario Junction. Shibley and B. O. Lott were to put up the money for the expenses, and a letter is produced, asking Lott to send him shares in the evidence it appears that Shibley contributed $100 and Whalen advanced $10. It was about Oct. 1 that Byron Lott told his brother, Philip, in the town of a revenue officer at Prescott, to receive the boxes which were to be sent to Prescott by way of Ogdensburg. It was arranged that the boxes should be sent in twenty boxes, as follows: Ten to W. H. Carefoot (an assumed name) at Kingston; four to John Bremner, at Bancroft, and to Philip Lott at Central Ontario Junction. Shibley and B. O. Lott were to put up the money for the expenses, and a letter is produced, asking Lott to send him shares in the evidence it appears that Shibley contributed $100 and Whalen advanced $10. It was about Oct. 1 that Byron Lott told his brother, Philip, in the town of a revenue officer at Prescott, to receive the boxes which were to be sent to Prescott by way of Ogdensburg. It was arranged that the boxes should be sent in twenty boxes, as follows: Ten to W. H. Carefoot (an assumed name) at Kingston; four to John Bremner, at Bancroft, and to Philip Lott at Central Ontario Junction. Shibley and B. O. Lott were to put up the money for the expenses, and a letter is produced, asking Lott to send him shares in the evidence it appears that Shibley contributed $100 and Whalen advanced $10. It was about Oct. 1 that Byron Lott told his brother, Philip, in the town of a revenue officer at Prescott, to receive the boxes which were to be sent to Prescott by way of Ogdensburg. It was arranged that the boxes should be sent in twenty boxes, as follows: Ten to W. H. Carefoot (an assumed name) at Kingston; four to John Bremner, at Bancroft, and to Philip Lott at Central Ontario Junction. Shibley and B. O. Lott were to put up the money for the expenses, and a letter is produced, asking Lott to send him shares in the evidence it appears that Shibley contributed $100 and Whalen advanced $10. It was about Oct. 1 that Byron Lott told his brother, Philip, in the town of a revenue officer at Prescott, to receive the boxes which were to be sent to Prescott by way of Ogdensburg. It was arranged that the boxes should be sent in twenty boxes, as follows: Ten to W. H. Carefoot (an assumed name) at Kingston; four to John Bremner, at Bancroft, and to Philip Lott at Central Ontario Junction. Shibley and B. O. Lott were to put up the money for the expenses, and a letter is produced, asking Lott to send him shares in the evidence it appears that Shibley contributed $100 and Whalen advanced $10. It was about Oct. 1 that Byron Lott told his brother, Philip, in the town of a revenue officer at Prescott, to receive the boxes which were to be sent to Prescott by way of Ogdensburg. It was arranged that the boxes should be sent in twenty boxes, as follows: Ten to W. H. Carefoot (an assumed name) at Kingston; four to John Bremner, at Bancroft, and to Philip Lott at Central Ontario Junction. Shibley and B. O. Lott were to put up the money for the expenses, and a letter is produced, asking Lott to send him shares in the evidence it appears that Shibley contributed $100 and Whalen advanced $10. It was about Oct. 1 that Byron Lott told his brother, Philip, in the town of a revenue officer at Prescott, to receive the boxes which were to be sent to Prescott by way of Ogdensburg. It was arranged that the boxes should be sent in twenty boxes, as follows: Ten to W. H. Carefoot (an assumed name) at Kingston; four to John Bremner, at Bancroft, and to Philip Lott at Central Ontario Junction. Shibley and B. O. Lott were to put up the money for the expenses, and a letter is produced, asking Lott to send him shares in the evidence it appears that Shibley contributed $100 and Whalen advanced $10. It was about Oct. 1 that Byron Lott told his brother, Philip, in the town of a revenue officer at Prescott, to receive the boxes which were to be sent to Prescott by way of Ogdensburg. It was arranged that the boxes should be sent in twenty boxes, as follows: Ten to W. H. Carefoot (an assumed name) at Kingston; four to John Bremner, at Bancroft, and to Philip Lott at Central Ontario Junction. Shibley and B. O. Lott were to put up the money for the expenses, and a letter is produced, asking Lott to send him shares in the evidence it appears that Shibley contributed $100 and Whalen advanced $10. It was about Oct. 1 that Byron Lott told his brother, Philip, in the town of a revenue officer at Prescott, to receive the boxes which were to be sent to Prescott by way of Ogdensburg. It was arranged that the boxes should be sent in twenty boxes, as follows: Ten to W. H. Carefoot (an assumed name) at Kingston; four to John Bremner, at Bancroft, and to Philip Lott at Central Ontario Junction. Shibley and B. O. Lott were to put up the money for the expenses, and a letter is produced, asking Lott to send him shares in the evidence it appears that Shibley contributed $100 and Whalen advanced $10. It was about Oct. 1 that Byron Lott told his brother, Philip, in the town of a revenue officer at Prescott, to receive the boxes which were to be sent to Prescott by way of Ogdensburg. It was arranged that the boxes should be sent in twenty boxes, as follows: Ten to W. H. Carefoot (an assumed name) at Kingston; four to John Bremner, at Bancroft, and to Philip Lott at Central Ontario Junction. Shibley and B. O. Lott were to put up the money for the expenses, and a letter is produced, asking Lott to send him shares in the evidence it appears that Shibley contributed $100 and Whalen advanced $10. It was about Oct. 1 that Byron Lott told his brother, Philip, in the town of a revenue officer at Prescott, to receive the boxes which were to be sent to Prescott by way of Ogdensburg. It was arranged that the boxes should be sent in twenty boxes, as follows: Ten to W. H. Carefoot (an assumed name) at Kingston; four to John Bremner, at Bancroft, and to Philip Lott at Central Ontario Junction. Shibley and B. O. Lott were to put up the money for the expenses, and a letter is produced, asking Lott to send him shares in the evidence it appears that Shibley contributed $100 and Whalen advanced $10. It was about Oct. 1 that Byron Lott told his brother, Philip, in the town of a revenue officer at Prescott, to receive the boxes which were to be sent to Prescott by way of Ogdensburg. It was arranged that the boxes should be sent in twenty boxes, as follows: Ten to W. H. Carefoot (an assumed name) at Kingston; four to John Bremner, at Bancroft, and to Philip Lott at Central Ontario Junction. Shibley and B. O. Lott were to put up the money for the expenses, and a letter is produced, asking Lott to send him shares in the evidence it appears that Shibley contributed $100 and Whalen advanced $10. It was about Oct. 1 that Byron Lott told his brother, Philip, in the town of a revenue officer at Prescott, to receive the boxes which were to be sent to Prescott by way of Ogdensburg. It was arranged that the boxes should be sent in twenty boxes, as follows: Ten to W. H. Carefoot (an assumed name) at Kingston; four to John Bremner, at Bancroft, and to Philip Lott at Central Ontario Junction. Shibley and B. O. Lott were to put up the money for the expenses, and a letter is produced, asking Lott to send him shares in the evidence it appears that Shibley contributed $100 and Whalen advanced $10. It was about Oct. 1 that Byron Lott told his brother, Philip, in the town of a revenue officer at Prescott, to receive the boxes which were to be sent to Prescott by way of Ogdensburg. It was arranged that the boxes should be sent in twenty boxes, as follows: Ten to W. H. Carefoot (an assumed name) at Kingston; four to John Bremner, at Bancroft, and to Philip Lott at Central Ontario Junction. Shibley and B. O. Lott were to put up the money for the expenses, and a letter is produced, asking Lott to send him shares in the evidence it appears that Shibley contributed $100 and Whalen advanced $10. It was about Oct. 1 that Byron Lott told his brother, Philip, in the town of a revenue officer at Prescott, to receive the boxes which were to be sent to Prescott by way of Ogdensburg. It was arranged that the boxes should be sent in twenty boxes, as follows: Ten to W. H. Carefoot (an assumed name) at Kingston; four to John Bremner, at Bancroft, and to Philip Lott at Central Ontario Junction. Shibley and B. O. Lott were to put up the money for the expenses, and a letter is produced, asking Lott to send him shares in the evidence it appears that Shibley contributed $100 and Whalen advanced $10. It was about Oct. 1 that Byron Lott told his brother, Philip, in the town of a revenue officer at Prescott, to receive the boxes which were to be sent to Prescott by way of Ogdensburg. It was arranged that the boxes should be sent in twenty boxes, as follows: Ten to W. H. Carefoot (an assumed name) at Kingston; four to John Bremner, at Bancroft, and to Philip Lott at Central Ontario Junction. Shibley and B. O. Lott were to put up the money for the expenses, and a letter is produced, asking Lott to send him shares in the evidence it appears that Shibley contributed $100 and Whalen advanced $10. It was about Oct. 1 that Byron Lott told his brother, Philip, in the town of a revenue officer at Prescott, to receive the boxes which were to be sent to Prescott by way of Ogdensburg. It was arranged that the boxes should be sent in twenty boxes, as follows: Ten to W. H. Carefoot (an assumed name) at Kingston; four to John Bremner, at Bancroft, and to Philip Lott at Central Ontario Junction. Shibley and B. O. Lott were to put up the money for the expenses, and a letter is produced, asking Lott to send him shares in the evidence it appears that Shibley contributed $100 and Whalen advanced $10. It was about Oct. 1 that Byron Lott told his brother, Philip, in the town of a revenue officer at Prescott, to receive the boxes which were to be sent to Prescott by way of Ogdensburg. It was arranged that the boxes should be sent in twenty boxes, as follows: Ten to W. H. Carefoot (an assumed name) at Kingston; four to John Bremner, at Bancroft, and to Philip Lott at Central Ontario Junction. Shibley and B. O. Lott were to put up the money for the expenses, and a letter is produced, asking Lott to send him shares in the evidence it appears that Shibley contributed $100 and Whalen advanced $10. It was about Oct. 1 that Byron Lott told his brother, Philip, in the town of a revenue officer at Prescott, to receive the boxes which were to be sent to Prescott by way of Ogdensburg. It was arranged that the boxes should be sent in twenty boxes, as follows: Ten to W. H. Carefoot (an assumed name) at Kingston; four to John Bremner, at Bancroft, and to Philip Lott at Central Ontario Junction. Shibley and B. O. Lott were to put up the money for the expenses, and a letter is produced, asking Lott to send him shares in the evidence it appears that Shibley contributed $100 and Whalen advanced $10. It was about Oct. 1 that Byron Lott told his brother, Philip, in the town of a revenue officer at Prescott, to receive the boxes which were to be sent to Prescott by way of Ogdensburg. It was arranged that the boxes should be sent in twenty boxes, as follows: Ten to W. H. Carefoot (an assumed name) at Kingston; four to John Bremner, at Bancroft, and to Philip Lott at Central Ontario Junction. Shibley and B. O. Lott were to put up the money for the expenses, and a letter is produced, asking Lott to send him shares in the evidence it appears that Shibley contributed $100 and Whalen advanced $10. It was about Oct. 1 that Byron Lott told his brother, Philip, in the town of a revenue officer at Prescott, to receive the boxes which were to be sent to Prescott by way of Ogdensburg. It was arranged that the boxes should be sent in twenty boxes, as follows: Ten to W. H. Carefoot (an assumed name) at Kingston; four to John Bremner, at Bancroft, and to Philip Lott at Central Ontario Junction. Shibley and B. O. Lott were to put up the money for the expenses, and a letter is produced, asking Lott to send him shares in the evidence it appears that Shibley contributed $100 and Whalen advanced $10. It was about Oct. 1 that Byron Lott told his brother, Philip, in the town of a revenue officer at Prescott, to receive the boxes which were to be sent to Prescott by way of Ogdensburg. It was arranged that the boxes should be sent in twenty boxes, as follows: Ten to W. H. Carefoot (an assumed name) at Kingston; four to John Bremner, at Bancroft, and to Philip Lott at Central Ontario Junction. Shibley and B. O. Lott were to put up the money for the expenses, and a letter is produced, asking Lott to send him shares in the evidence it appears that Shibley contributed $100 and Whalen advanced $10. It was about Oct. 1 that Byron Lott told his brother, Philip, in the town of a revenue officer at Prescott, to receive the boxes which were to be sent to Prescott by way of Ogdensburg. It was arranged that the boxes should be sent in twenty boxes, as follows: Ten to W. H. Carefoot (an assumed name) at Kingston; four to John Bremner, at Bancroft, and to Philip Lott at Central Ontario Junction. Shibley and B. O. Lott were to put up the money for the expenses, and a letter is produced, asking Lott to send him shares in the evidence it appears that Shibley contributed $100 and Whalen advanced $10. It was about Oct. 1 that Byron Lott told his brother, Philip, in the town of a revenue officer at Prescott, to receive the boxes which were to be sent to Prescott by way of Ogdensburg. It was arranged that the boxes should be sent in twenty boxes, as follows: Ten to W. H. Carefoot (an assumed name) at Kingston; four to John Bremner, at Bancroft, and to Philip Lott at Central Ontario Junction. Shibley and B. O. Lott were to put up the money for the expenses, and a letter is produced, asking Lott to send him shares in the evidence it appears that Shibley contributed $100 and Whalen advanced $10. It was about Oct. 1 that Byron Lott told his brother, Philip, in the town of a revenue officer at Prescott, to receive the boxes which were to be sent to Prescott by way of Ogdensburg. It was arranged that the boxes should be sent in twenty boxes, as follows: Ten to W. H. Carefoot (an assumed name) at Kingston; four to John Bremner, at Bancroft, and to Philip Lott at Central Ontario Junction. Shibley and B. O. Lott were to put up the money for the expenses, and a letter is produced, asking Lott to send him shares in the evidence it appears that Shibley contributed $100 and Whalen advanced $10. It was about Oct. 1 that Byron Lott told his brother, Philip, in the town of a revenue officer at Prescott, to receive the boxes which were to be sent to Prescott by way of Ogdensburg. It was arranged that the boxes should be sent in twenty boxes, as follows: Ten to W. H. Carefoot (an assumed name) at Kingston; four to John Bremner, at Bancroft, and to Philip Lott at Central Ontario Junction. Shibley and B. O. Lott were to put up the money for the expenses, and a letter is produced, asking Lott to send him shares in the evidence it appears that Shibley contributed $100 and Whalen advanced $10. It was about Oct. 1 that Byron Lott told his brother, Philip, in the town of a revenue officer at Prescott, to receive the boxes which were to be sent to Prescott by way of Ogdensburg. It was arranged that the boxes should be sent in twenty boxes, as follows: Ten to W. H. Carefoot (an assumed name) at Kingston; four to John Bremner, at Bancroft, and to Philip Lott at Central Ontario Junction. Shibley and B. O. Lott were to put up the money for the expenses, and a letter is produced, asking Lott to send him shares in the evidence it appears that Shibley contributed $100 and Whalen advanced $10. It was about Oct. 1 that Byron Lott told his brother, Philip, in the town of a revenue officer at Prescott, to receive the boxes which were to be sent to Prescott by way of Ogdensburg. It was arranged that the boxes should be sent in twenty boxes, as follows: Ten to W. H. Carefoot (an assumed name) at Kingston; four to John Bremner, at Bancroft, and to Philip Lott at Central Ontario Junction. Shibley and B. O. Lott were to put up the money for the expenses, and a letter is produced, asking Lott to send him shares in the evidence it appears that Shibley contributed $100 and Whalen advanced $10. It was about Oct. 1 that Byron Lott told his brother, Philip, in the town of a revenue officer at Prescott, to receive the boxes which were to be sent to Prescott by way of Ogdensburg. It was arranged that the boxes should be sent in twenty boxes, as follows: Ten to W. H. Carefoot (an assumed name) at Kingston; four to John Bremner, at Bancroft, and to Philip Lott at Central Ontario Junction. Shibley and B. O. Lott were to put up the money for the expenses, and a letter is produced, asking Lott to send him shares in the evidence it appears that Shibley contributed $100 and Whalen advanced $10. It was about Oct. 1 that Byron Lott told his brother, Philip, in the town of a revenue officer at Prescott, to receive the boxes which were to be sent to Prescott by way of Ogdensburg. It was arranged that the boxes should be sent in twenty boxes, as follows: Ten to W. H. Carefoot (an assumed name) at Kingston; four to John Bremner, at Bancroft, and to Philip Lott at Central Ontario Junction. Shibley and B. O. Lott were to put up the money for the expenses, and a letter is produced, asking Lott to send him shares in the evidence it appears that Shibley contributed $100 and Whalen advanced $10. It was about Oct. 1 that Byron Lott told his brother, Philip, in the town of a revenue officer at Prescott, to receive the boxes which were to be sent to Prescott by way of Ogdensburg. It was arranged that the boxes should be sent in twenty boxes, as follows: Ten to W. H. Carefoot (an assumed name) at Kingston; four to John Bremner, at Bancroft, and to Philip Lott at Central Ontario Junction. Shibley and B. O. Lott were to put up the money for the expenses, and a letter is produced, asking Lott to send him shares in the evidence it appears that Shibley contributed $100 and Whalen advanced $10. It was about Oct. 1 that Byron Lott told his brother, Philip, in the town of a revenue officer at Prescott, to receive the boxes which were to be sent to Prescott by way of Ogdensburg. It was arranged that the boxes should be sent in twenty boxes, as follows: Ten to W. H. Carefoot (an assumed name) at Kingston; four to John Bremner, at Bancroft, and to Philip Lott at Central Ontario Junction. Shibley and B. O. Lott were to put up the money for the expenses, and a letter is produced, asking Lott to send him shares in the evidence it appears that Shibley contributed $100 and Whalen advanced $10. It was about Oct. 1 that Byron Lott told his brother, Philip, in the town of a revenue officer at Prescott, to receive the boxes which were to be sent to Prescott by way of Ogdensburg. It was arranged that the boxes should be sent in twenty boxes, as follows: Ten to W. H. Carefoot (an assumed name) at Kingston; four to John Bremner, at Bancroft, and to Philip Lott at Central Ontario Junction. Shibley and B. O. Lott were to put up the money for the expenses, and a letter is produced, asking Lott to send him shares in the evidence it appears that Shibley contributed $100 and Whalen advanced $10. It was about Oct. 1 that Byron Lott told his brother, Philip, in the town of a revenue officer at Prescott, to receive the boxes which were to be sent to Prescott by way of Ogdensburg. It was arranged that the boxes should be sent in twenty boxes, as follows: Ten to W. H. Carefoot (an assumed name) at Kingston; four to John Bremner, at Bancroft, and to Philip Lott at Central Ontario Junction. Shibley and B. O. Lott were to put up the money for the expenses, and a letter is produced, asking Lott to send him shares in the evidence it appears that Shibley contributed $100 and Whalen advanced $10. It was about Oct. 1 that Byron Lott told his brother, Philip, in the town of a revenue officer at Prescott, to receive the boxes which were to be sent to Prescott by way of Ogdensburg. It was arranged that the boxes should be sent in twenty boxes, as follows: Ten to W. H. Carefoot (an assumed name) at Kingston; four to John Bremner, at Bancroft, and to Philip Lott at Central Ontario Junction. Shibley and B. O. Lott were to put up the money for the expenses, and a letter is produced, asking Lott to send him shares in the evidence it appears that Shibley contributed $100 and Whalen advanced $10. It was about Oct. 1 that Byron Lott told his brother, Philip, in the town of