In Italian Strike Riot in the Limestone City.

Two Officers of the Law Seriously Wounded-Dissatisfied Italian Nav vies Retaliate on Police Who Clubbed Them Into Submission - Man ought to Have Done Stabbing ed With Nine Others.

Kingson, June 29.—Two officers of the law yere seriously wounded with difference in the hands of Italians during a riot following a strike of 100 foreigners yesterday. The Italians chased the police, who had been sent by the authorities to quell the disturbance, and the mayor and police magis trate called out the regular troops.

The riot occurred at the outer depotation of the road yesterday morning they became dissatisfied with their wages. They have been getting $1.40 per day, and want $1.65. They board and sleep on old cars at the depot.

Yesterday morning the railway foreman ordered them to make up a train and proceed to Collins' Bay to work, and then trouble began. The strikers assembled on the station platform and raised a disturbance. on, June 29.—Two officers of Fought With Clubs.

The rioters were gathered on the platform making all kinds of threats. The policemen ordered them off, and when they refused to obey drew their clubs and endeavored to put them off by force.

Thereupon the strikers drew knives and revolvers and started to attack the officers. Mr. McRae and Detective Harrott came to the assistance of the local police, and a fierce fight ensued. The officers of the law were not armed with revolvers, but fought manfully with their clubs and did great execution, knocking about a score of the strikers senseless. The latter succeeded in retailating, however, and the policemen were finally forced to beat retreat, pursued to their cab by the maddened foreigners.

Slashed By Striker. As mercury will surely destroy the sense off smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucus surfaces. Such articles should never be used except on prescriptions from reputable physicians, as the damage they will do is ten-fold to the good you can possibly derive from them. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., contains no mercury, and is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. In buying Hall's Catarrh Cure be sure you get the genuine. It is taken internally and made in Toledo, Ohio, by F. J. Cheney & Co. Testimonials free.

Slashed By Striker. In the fight Police Sergt. Nesbitt was badly wounded in the left arm, it being slashed open with a stilletto from the shoulder to the elbow. Special the shoulder to the elbow. Special Agent McRae was also even more seri-ously wounded, and the gravest fears for his condition are felt. He sustain-ed a deep stab with a stilletto in the abdomen.

The police brought the two wounded abdomen.

The police brought the two wounded men back to the city and drove them to Dr. Bogart's surgery. Mr. McRae was later removed to the General Hospital. P. C. S. Naylon and McAdoo escaped unhurt. They claim that it was a miracle that they were not all killed. Revolvers were drawn by the dozen and many shots fired. The rioters were all armed with knives and fought like mad creatures, and the batons of the policemen were spattered with blood, showing that they had not remained inactive. Detective Harrott carried a leather baton, which he exhibited, showing where the heavy seam in the leather had been ripped by the force of the blows dealt.

THE LONDON COSTER.

He Is the King of the Curb In the London's outdoor man is the coster. He is the Ishmael of the gutters. A very jolly Ishmael, it is true, who is more than content to acknowledge the line of demarcation between himself and the true cockney. But, nevertheless, in a modified, twentieth century he is still the wild man whose hand is against every man's and every man's against his. He is probably the last remnant of the world's old race of wanderers—the last suggestion of the primitive man—left to the cities. He is to us town dwellers what the countryside. His descent seems to spring from the same roving stock. And he is regarded, from a safe dis-tance, with the same contempt by those who den't know him. His habits and his impulses still savor strongly of the days when tribe warred against tribe and every man's arm was for himself and his clan. And, although his pitch is below the curb, his caravan a barrow and his beast of burden a Russian pony, a donkey or himself, he is as free and exclusive as any other lusty scion of the people who live under the skies. Ishmael he is, and Ishmael he chooses to remain. And the chances are ten to one that whoever goes a-fish-ing for information among the barrows will come back with an empty creel or a fine show of fishermen's tales, for your coster knows both how to keep silence and how to use his tongue picturesquely in defense of his jealously guarded traditions and the internal economies of his existence.-Outing.

THE ELEPHANT.

He Is Good Natured, Docile, Obedient and Long Suffering.

"The elephant is the best natured beast in all wild creation," said a circus man. "Most people have an idea that the big beast is apt to go wrong any time and make all kinds of trouble for everybody. Now, as a matter of for everybody. Now, as a matter of fact, I have never but once seen a freak of this kind. Then the result was directly due to the intolerable abuse of flat headed grooms. It seems to me that if some one was putting a steel point or hook into a soft joint of yours or mine meny times a day and steel point or nook into a soft joint of yours or mine many times a day and without any good reason for it we would show temper and tear up things too. The only difference is the elephant has more patience. He is decile, bedder, and long suffering. When obedient and long suffering. When an elephant gets a little out of sorts there is always some lightweight at-tendant, it seems, to fly off and say he is 'daffy.' Ninety-nine times out of a hundred the poor elephant has been badly treated, and, as he cannot talk, he does about the only thing he can do and trumpets his disgust or possibly goes a step further and eases his feelings by taking a crack with his trunk are as kind hearted and tender as wo-men and respond to little attentions the same way, and in the same way, just like a woman, when they get soured, it takes a long while to them again if it can be done at all."

At Anchor.

A chief of bureau in the navy department tells a good story of the time when one of the secretaries of the navy got the notion into his head that officers should not permit their wives to reside at the foreign stations to which their husbands might be attached. So an order to that effect was promulgated. Soon thereafter considerable per-plexity and no little amusement was afforded the secretary when he received the following cablegram from Commodore Fyffe, then in command of the Asiatic squadron:

Asiatic squadron:

Secretary Navy, Washington:

It becomes my painful duty to report that my wife, Eliza Fyffe, has, in disobedience to my orders and in the face of regulations of department, taken up her residence on the station and persistently refuses to leave.

Male Birds Lead the Way.

When birds are migrating the males usually precede the females. The robins, for instance, which are seen early in the year, are almost invariably males, which apparently traveled on before their mates. The female birds follow, perhaps because they are not so powerful and also perhaps because they like to take their time and gossip with one another. In the fail the male birds leave first—the old ones—while the females travel along together with their mother birds

A lawyer who visited Rome tells

A lawyer who visited Rome telm-how the fire department grappled with a blaze in the Eternal City. He says: "The fire was in what we would call a grocery store. It seemed a long time before the fire department responded, but after awhile I saw a hose wagon dash around the corner, with a number of firemen standing on the running boards on each side. The wagon stopped at a hydrant, and each fireman jumped from the wagon with a little roll of hose. The first man coupled his to the hydrant, and then each man coupled his section to the preceding section. Finally they had water on the fire, and after another long period a man with a plumed hat drove up in a victoria. He was the chief. The captain of the company and the chief saluted with much ceremony, then shook hands and then held a long and dignified conversation. Finally, I suppose, the captain told the chief the grocery was on fire, and the chief acknowledged it was and complimented him on his perspicuity. Oh, yes, they finally put the fire out, and Rome still stands!
