THEACADIAN

KING'S CO. TIMES. HONEST, INDEPENDENT, FEARLESS .- DEVOTED TO LOCAL AND GENERAL INTELLIGENCE.

Vol. X1.

WOLFVILLE, KING'S CO., N. S., FRIDAY, JUNE 24, 1892.

The Acadian.

Published on FRIDAY at the office WOLFVILLE, KINGS CO., N. S. TERMS:

$1.00 Per Annum. (IN ADVANCE.)

CLUBS of five in advance $4 00. CLUBS of five in advance $4 OO.

Local advertising at ten conts per line for every insertion, muless by special arrangement for standing notices.

Rates for standing advertisements will be made known on application to the affice, and payment on trancient advertising must be guaranteed by some responsible party prior to its insertion.

The Addian Job Drarament is constantly receiving new type and material, and will continue to guarantee satisfaction on all work turned out.

Newsy communications from all parts.

on all work turned out.

Newsy communications from all parts of the county, or articles upon the topics of the day are cordially solicited. The name of the party writing for the Acadian must invariably accompany the communication, although the same may be written over a ficticious signature.

Address all comunications to Address all comunications to Address all comunications

DAVISON BROS.,

Editors & Proprietors,

Wolfville, N S

Legal Decisions
1. Any person who takes a paper regularly from the Post Office—whether directed to his name or another's or whether has subscribed or not—is responsible has subscribed or not—is responsible.

or the payment.

2. If a person orders his paper discontinued, he nest pay up all arrearages, or the publisher may continue to send it until payment is made, and collect the whole amount, whether the paper is taken from

The courts have decided that refus-The courts have decided that recaling to take newspapers and periodicals from the Post Office, or removing and saving them uncalled for is prima facial widence of intentional fraud.

POST OFFICE, WOLFVILLE

Office Hous, 8 a. m to 8 30 p. m. Mails are made up as follows: For Halifax and Windsor close at 7 00

m. Express west close at 10.20 a. m. ntville close at 7 00 p m.

GEO. V. RAND, Post Master

PEOPLE'S BANK OF HALIFAX. Open from 10 a. m. to 3 p. m. Close on Saturday at 1 p. m. G. W. Munro, Agent.

Churches.

BAPTIST CHURCH-Rev T A Higgin BAPTIST CHURCH—Boy TA Higging Astor—Services: Sunday, preaching at 11 am and 7p m; Sunday School at 2 30 pm Half hour prayer meeting after evening service every Sunday. Prayer meeting on Tuesday and Wednesday evenings at 7 30. Seats free; all are welcome. Strangers will be cared for by

COLIN W BOSCOM, Ushers

A DEW BARSS

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH-Rev. PRESHYTEMIAN CHOINE Subbath of Dass, Pastor — Service every Sabbath at 3 00 p. m. Sabbath School at 2 p. m. Prayer Meeting on Sabbath at 7 p. m. and Wednesday at 7.30 p. m. Strangers always TAVISON J. B.—Justice of the Peace

METHODIST CHURCH—Rev. Cranssick Jost, A. M., Pastor; Rev. W. R. Furner, Assistant Pastor: Horton and Wolfville Preaching on Sabbath at 1: a m and 7 pm. Sabbath School at 9 30 a m. CODFREY. L. P.—Manufacturer of m and 7 p m. Sabbath School at 9 30 a m.
Greenwich and Avonport services at 3 p m. Prayer Meeting at Wolf Friday at 7 30

Sr JOHN'S CHURCH—Service every Sunday after noon at 3, except the first Sunday in the month, when there will be Moning Prayer with Celebration of the Holy Communion at 11. ISAAC BROCK, D. D.,

ST FRANCIS (R. C).—Rev T M Daly, P. P.—Mass 11 00 a m the last Sunday of each month.

Masonie.

St. GEORGE'S LODGE, A. F. & A. M. meets at their Hall on the second Frie of each month at 7½ o'clock p. m.

J. W. Caldwell, Secretary

Temperance.

WOLFVILLE DIVISION S. of T. mee every Monday evening in at 8.00 o'clock, ACADÍA LODGE, I. O. G. T., mee every Saturday evening in Temperan Hall at 7 30 o'clock. CRYSTAL Band of Hope meets in th Temperance Hall every Saturday after hoon at 3 o'clock.

THOUSANDS IN REWARDS.

as Forward? This is a rare opportunit am and Miss, every Father and Son. to s Alls, every week throughout this greats will be distributed as follows: The fr received (the postmark date on each as the date received at the office of the AMAZINE (each and every week duries the second correct nawer, $100; the about the second correct nawer, $100; the conditions of the second correct names, $100; the conditions of the second correct names, $100; the conditions of the second correct names and the next $0 correct names are second correct names and the next $0 correct names are second correct names and the next $0 correct names are second correct names and the next $0 correct names are second correct names and the next $0 correct names are second correct names and the next $0 correct names are second correct names and the next $0 correct names are second correct names and $100; the second correct names are second correct names are second correct names and the next names are second correct names are second correct names are second correct names are second correct names.

SKODA'S DISCOVERYIS

Physicians and Nervines BOTH FAILED! NERVOUS PROSTRATION

Of Years' Standing CURED BY SKODA'S

BETTER to business for BETTER to business for uld ree THAN creatly help me and he thought would cure me.

I took the medicine according to directions and have seen no symptoms of Nervousness since taking the fourth GOLD bottle. I sleep well.

Nervos are strong. Eat heartily, and an well. I have told scores what it has done for me. Resply yours.

Portland, Me. I. M. HARMON. POTURING, MC.
THE ONLY MEDICINE SOLD WITH A GUARANTEE CONTRACT WITH EACH BOTTLE. TRY A COURSE (6 BOTTLES) AT OUR RISK, IF NOT BENEFITTED RETURN BOTELES AND GET YOUR MONEY. PAYONLY FOR THE GOOD YOU RECEIVE. SKODA DISCOVERY CO., Wolfville, N.S.

DIRECTORY

Business Firms of WOLFVILLE

The undermentioned firms will use you right, and we can safely recommend them as our most enterprising business

BORDEN, CHARLES H.—Carriages and Sleighs Built, Repaired, and Paint

DAVISON, J. B.—Justice of the Peace Conveyancer, Fire Insurance Agent.

HARRIS, O. D.—General Dry Goods Clothing and Gents' Furnishings. HERBIN, J. F.-Watch Maker and HIGGINS, W. J.—General Coal Deal er. Coal always on hand.

KELLEY, THOMAS.—Boot and Shoe Maker. All orders in his line faith fully performed. Repairing neatly done Repairer.

PATRIQUIN, C. A.—Manufacturer of all kinds of Carriage, and Team

ROCKWELL & CO.—Book - sellers, NStationers, Picture Framers, and dealers in Pianos, Organs, and Sewing Machines.

PIANO AND HARMONY. ing back immediately, as if her trembling limbs refused her support.

POETRY.

BY J. F. HERBIN A flash of gold and jet, then bubbling throats

From meadow-fence and dike fill up the breeze.

List and bethink! These are not beautiful than eve

Canst thou not see, within each feathered thing
There is a life that looks nowhere beyond o unattempted songs and hights of sky? In each quick moment, eager voice and wing Find Life's sweet acme holding breath in bond.

Wolfville, N. S. —Independen

SELECT STORY.

The Shadow of Nobility.

CHPTER XII .- Concluded. HER boy had seemed to droop on th ich Campagna, but here he visibly re vived. Without any apparent underscanding, there was a measure of satisfaction in the way he turned his head up the slope of the hill, but still under embrasures hung festoons of "red and ed the oleander, myrtle, and cyclamen. Out beyond these lay "the blue profound," where heaven came down the near.

"A soft and purple mist, Like a vaporous amethyst," influence, as in an isle of dreams doors.

"And now, how and why did you and flame. Watching the living glory part. in wonder and amaze, she broke into a drooped and faded.

"The radiant morn hath passed away, And spent too soon her golden store The shadows of departing day . Creep on once more.

Our life is but a fading dawn; Its glorious noon how quickly past Lead us, O Christ, when all is gone, Safe home at last.

O, by Thy soul-inspiring grace, Uplift our hearts to realms on high; Help us to look to that bright place Beyond the sky;

Where light, and love, and joy, and pea And thronging angels never cease Their deathless strain;

Where saints are clothed in spot white,
And evening shadows never fall,
Where Thou, Eternal Light of Light,
Art Lord of all."

A fisherman on the beach below pauses to look up, and sees the lady on the terrace above. He does not understand the language in which she sings, but, taking it for granted that it is an evening hymn to the Virgin, in hoarser and more sonorous tones he sends forth over the misty water a strain which his

"Ave, Sanctissima!
'Tis nightfall on the sea;
Ora pro nobis!
Our souls rise to thee!

Watch us while the shadows lie O'er the dim water spread; Hear the heart's lonely sigh,— Thine, too, hath bled! Ora pro nobis!
The wave must reck our sleep
Ora, Mater, ora!
Thou star of the deep."

The lady's song is ended first, and he is listening to that other one with mingled feelings of pity and pleasure-She does not see a skiff which has lain idly floating in the middle of the bay. am able to take care of my and is now being sowed swiftly to the strand. It shoots into the little creek, the Italian rowers lie on their oars, but one figure leaps ashore. Rapidly he commences an ascent by a zigzag path, caching a vine-covered platform. Then, as she sees him clearly against the pale grey sky, she starts to her feet, sink-

"Annis!"

"George !" There is a long which cach withdr

She is agitated. Blance, and controls himself to calmness. blue sea moaned, with one fair form the lent enchantment to all around, She looked up, as if "seeing Him Who her, giving her a as his has been. She feels a little ory of the past. "Annis, why are you here?" he says presently, "How and why did you I hear from my aunt occasionally, but she never mentioned your leaving England. I wonder I did not hear

"I left England very quietly," she replied, recovering her composure. "You know I was living quietly," and she glanced at her dress. "I was not

"But why did you come here of all places on the earth? Are you alone?"
"You ask so many questions!" she said, trying to smile. "I came here to be alone; to get away from people I know. I have been at Rome,"

He looked fixedly at her. Though to the whispering breeze, as it played very pale, her eyes met his fearlessly over the terrace on which he lay. It and frankly. After that look he felt over the terrace on which he lay. It in some strange, inexplicable way put off from her. A barrier of reserve shelter of the headland. From its deep seemed to fall between them. Then his look went beyond her, and rested on golden viues," while above them bloomed the oleander, mytle and evolumen, of ottoman, under a bright awning com-

The Countess knew all his mind received in that look. She stood up once more, and led the way to the other end was over sea and land. Lady Noel- of the terrace; he followed her. Mrs thorne had sat for hours bathed in its Morenscher took her charge within

Then the sunlight began to decline "And now, how and why did you over the hills, and the water lay beneath come here?" she forced hereelf to say, them in quivering stretches of crimson as if to ward off further inquiry on his

"That is easy to account for," he snatch of sacred song with which she rejoined. "I have been on a holiday had become familiar, as too quickly it tour, and was returning. I wrote to you from Florence."

"Yes, thank you. I meant to answer

"I scarcely expected an an-we; I looked not for an answer, I was on the opposite slore to-day, and had heard of this place. It was the chosen retreat of one 'out of whose days and nights a joy had taken flight.' I thought its wild sea-murmurs and soft sunshine might do as much for me."

Was that why you came ?" "That was why I purposed to e im hesitated midway, and would have turned back but that I caught a note of song. It came to me on the water, faint, uncertain, but delicious; and wooed me on. Then I heard two voices, very dissimilar. There were two," he added jealously. "Yes, a fisherman was singing on the beach, and I-I was singing to my

There were tears in her eyes. mad impulse came upon him to kiss them away, but he restrained himself. Machines.

RAND, G. V.—Drugs, and Fancy blend for a moment, rise and fall, then form with his arm. Presently he spoke

"Is he always as he was just now?"

"Always." "I need not ask whether you have and the best advice. Can nothing be "Nothing but what God can do-in He was not satisfied, but resolved to speak to her again of this matter.

"Have you no one here but your nurse?" he asked. "And my maid." "I cannot leave you so, Annis."
"You must," she said firmly. "I "You must," she said firmly. "I tional, pure in thought, and of good amable to take care of myself. I could not allow you to remain." tional, pure in thought, and of good report in deed. There George Knight's vision of piety ended.

"Then I will come to-morrow "Yes," she rejoined, hailing the title themselves they should study dreams. deem us from sin and endless misery.

morrow."

There is more philosophy in it than we He opened for us a way into heaventhink. George Knight, though he It was not till afterwards that I could dreamed of a seaside nook over which say, 'He loved me and gave Himself He sees that at a the wind sighed, and round which the for me." dowy and almost did not gain any fresh insight into the is invisible." state of his heart. One thing was cers Knight's gaze followed the direction of er, bronsed and tain—that the glamour of the present hers.

lies is as rapid had quite blotted out the angry mem
"It is a creed shared by many," he

CHAPTER XIII. And Lady Noelthorne had thought it affect the lives of its professors?" the brief season in Rome so delightful. It was in truth a summer's dream because of the winter's day going before; but that was all. was on sea or land" was truly glorify ing everything at last. The Countess was not forgetting herself now. O no! she was vividly alive to her own exist-er dawn in life for him. Like the new morn, he was tremulous, yet elate, and So long did

We have said that he had already in her arm. Then she spoke again. too contented to let it be blotted out of sight for ever.

"Annis, why do you seem so far on. "Here you are beside me: I can look at you and watch you as much as ever I did in my life before. I can take your hand and hold it thus; yet this fair frame is far away still. I am inner lives."

she suggested. real self. Tell me the secret, sweet. He could not help the term of endearment It slipped out straight from his heart to hers. She made no comment though she flushed visibly. Then, controlling herself, she answered:

There are two things filling my soul n which you have no share."

"Your boy?" "Ye -- Edgar. He used to be the first," she said simply, but it is not so vow-thank God it is not so. I quite forgot God, George, until trouble came. Trouble forced me to cry out to Him, and then to seek His face, for He only could help. I felt as if He was turne against me for my wrongdoing, an this was my punishment. I had such a strange teacher then, more innocenand pure-minded than myself--a poor flower-girl. From her I received my first impressions of heaven and truth.

He was interested; nay more, deeply moved. This man, who was withou religion in his soul, who worshipped and served the creature more than the Creator, had no objection to the woman he loved becoming pious after a fashion. It seemed to be a feeling shared by the majority or his sex, though not avowed, that women in general are by nature nore akin to heaven than themselves Lady Noelthorne might be fervent emo

"What do you call truth?" he asked, as men have asked in all ages.

It cost the Countess something to with a feeling of relief. "Come to- make a bold confession of her belief, for as yet her faith had not been tested The Countess went indoors alone. and her duty to those who knew not George Knight descended to the beach, the Gospel was not clear. Now, how-dismissed the Italian rowers, and found ever, a vague sees of what was require a shelter for the night ju a vine covered ed awoke in her heart, and, under its The next minute the stranger stands cottage close to the pret's ruined villa. inspiration she spoke out bravely :

Perhaps after all the joy had not quite "The truth I first learned from Fe, loved most deeply fading away from his the humble flower girl, was, that a embrace : Zeno taught his pupils that to know Saviour was sent into the world to re-

Involuntarily George

said. "And no doubt, if held in force, and as a truth, it would revoluntionize the world in blessing. But how does

It was a home thrust, though the She did not trust herself to speak. speaker little thought of any personal application just then. How did it afapplication just then. How did it af-fect its professors? How had it affect try and auswer me truly as before God?" But what could compare with the present? What need to compare it with anything? "The light that never was simply in digust, and under the influence was simply in digust, and under the influence of an overweening was all that she could do. He went earthly affection. Again Laura Lam phrey's earnest words came back to her. What was she doing with her life?

shelter of the beetling crag. She took it, searcely noticing him, full only of the thoughts he had awakened in her hills, "the bridal of the earth and sky," stretched away on either hand, and awakened whether there was another the same of the beetling crag. She took it, searcely noticing him, full only of the thoughts he had awakened in her mind. Her gaze roamed out over the deep, which, like "a floor of sapphire," stretched away on either hand, and her fingers locked themselves nervously together.

This question was beyond her powers to meet. The crimson strike to check and brow; she turned her head aside, and her fingers locked themselves nervously together.

So long did she remain thus, that, would not be defeated. He would be most impatient for the hour when he might climb to his lady's bower on the his thoughts forgiven her; resentment for it is a grand reality. I have felt it died out of his breast. It was as if a great veil had dropped over the past, which he dreaded for a moment to lift. ed before my eyes. The Son of God, which he dreaded for a moment to lift, the Son of the Great Maker of the universe and all the millions of worlds above us, came down to a stable in Bethlehem, to a workshop in a wicked away from me?" he asked, an hour or two later, as he descended with the tuleves, to save every one who simply receives His atonement from the conse She looked up with that rare smile which had become so sweet, her eyes asking the question her lips did not saking the question her lips did not sake the ques He not have the first love of our hearts, the best service of our days? Should the real Annis, the spirit that dwells in and hung her head in shame. He was She made the confession brokenly, this fair frame is far away still. I am conscious of something that divides our to say. Perhaps even then conscience "Perhaps you do not understand me," awoke from its death-like slumber, and "Show me the fair writing on your a fear. Was this fair woman, the love be subjected to. It is for these "Show me the fair writing on your heart," he pleaded. "Show me your a fear. Was this fair woman, the love of his youth, a creature once "not too high or good for human nature's daily Many an angel, and sore away from him into this.

regions where he dared not follow? There was a tempest created in his breast by those earnest words of faith and hope. The sea vex-d him with its quiet. He would rather have got away just then to where it broke and roared and seethed and mouned over ome sunken reef or bolder barrier than that beneath which they found a shel ter. He may have felt at the tim with another voyager, who saw what h be blood purifiers, but which have no real medicinal value. To make use of any other than the old standard AYER'S Sarsaparilla—the Superior Blood-purifier—is simply to invite loss of time, money and health. If you are afflicted with Scrofula, Catarrh, Rheumatism, Dyspepsia, Eczema, Running Sores, Tümors, or any other blood disease, be assured that

PEOPLE FIND

It Pays to Use AYER'S Sarsaparilla, and AYER'S only. AYER'S Sarsaparilla can always be depended upon. It does not vary. It is always the same in quality, quantity, and effect. It is superior in combination, proportion, appearance, and in all that goes to build up the system weakened by disease and pain. It searches out all impurities in the blood and expels them by the natural channels.*

AYER'S

Prepared by Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass.

"Alas! lor those that love and may not "Annis," he said, after a long, long pause, during which the minds of both had been busy, "I must leave you or loose myself." She started, and again looked up for an explanation "My holiday term expires two days hence. I must be true to my appointment and return to my work. I should

The Countess was silent. She could call no pride to her aid, and all here late high courage had vanished away.

Her head was bowed in assent. It days-a moment when you felt you

He waited desperately. He had staked his all upon this issue now, and answered at the last. She felt this: felt all that a former isunderstanding had cost them; felt ow hopeless an explanation must prove essayed to speak, though the utterance was very faint. (TO BE CONTINUED.)

"German Syrup"

J. C. Davis, Rector of St. James' Episcopal Church, Eufaula, Ala.: "My sou has been badly afflicted with a fearful and threatening cough for several months, and after trying several prescriptions from physicians which failed to relieve him, he has been perfectly restored by the use of two bottles of Bo-

An Episcopal schee's German Syr-Rector. hesitation.

"a still, small voice" made itself heard severe, deep-seated coughs like this standing cases that Boschee's Ger

J. F. Arnold, Montevideo, Minn. writes: I always use German Syrup for a Cold on the Lungs. I have never found an equal to it—far less

G. G. GREEN, Sole Man'fr, Woodbury, N.J. $3,500 IN REWARDS

The Canadian Agriculturist's Great Hall

Sarsaparilla Cures others, will cure

SLEEP, S. R.—Importer and dealer in General Hardware, Stoves, and Tin ware. Agents for Frost & Wood's Plows SHAW J. M.—Barber and Tobac prevents a discord.

blend for a moment, rise and fall, then form with his arm. Presently he sagain:

"Annis, is Four boy delicate?"

"Yes, George."

WALLACE, G. H.—Wholesale and Water Grocer.
WITTER, BURPEE.—Importer and dealer in Dry Goods, Millinery, Ready-made Clothing, and Gents' Furnishings.

TRY OUR CELEBRATED