GEORGE CANNING DIES SUDDENLY

Mr. George Canning, of Peregau, passed away suddenly on Monday morning at seven o'clock. He took his last look at his son in the coffin about three o'clock that afternoon. He leaves a widow, four daughters and one son. Great sympathy is felt for the family in their double affliction.

FRED A. CANNING

The death of Fred A. Canning took place at the Nova Scotia Sanatorium Friday afternoon at three o'clock, at the age of 24 years. Deceased was a son of Mr. and Mrs. George Canning, Peregau. He left school at the age of 16 years to enlist with the 219th Battalion.

In October, 1916, he left with the Highland Brigade for overseas. On reaching England he was transferred to the 85th Battalion, and remained with that unit until it left for France in February, when he contracted a severe cold at Whitley Camp and had to remain in England for treatment expecting to join the unit in France on recovery. Pleurisy developed, and he was removed to Bramshott Hospital, and later invalided to Canada and admitted to the Nova Scotia Sanatorium at Kentville. He made a remarkable recovery and regained his health. In February, 1920 he contracted flu and was re-admitted to the Sanatorium. After a year's treatment he seemed to again regain his health and left the institution to take a position at Berwick. He was very ambitious and energetic, and overtaxed his strength, and in September, 1922, again contracted a cold and was re-admitted to the Sanatorium, where he remained until the end came.

Mr. Canning was a great favorite with all, and his patient, cheerful, spirit and everpresent smile was highly commented upon by nurses, doctors and comrades, and his host of friends. The funeral service was held at the Baptist Church, Kentville, on Saturday, Jan. 26, at 11 o'clock. The Rev. D. G. Ross, of the Baptist Church, Kentville, and Rev. Mr. Rieborough, of Peregau, conducted the services. Interment was at Peregau.

MRS. EBENEZER COX

The news of the death of Mrs. Ebenezer Cox, who has been residing with her daughter, Mrs. C. D. McLellan, at Springhill, and enjoyed her life with exceptionally good health for over eighty years, came Monday as a shock. Mrs. Cox was Emma, daughter of the late Joshua Lewis, Esq., of Advocate Harbor, Cumberland County; Margaret, first wife of the late W. H. Bigelow, of Spencer's Island, and Eleanor, wife of Albert Atkinson, Esq., of Advocate Harbor, being sisters; and Capt. Robert Lewis, of Advocate Harbor, and Dr. John Lewis, of Boston, Mass., brothers. Of this family the last two named only survive.

As the wife of Ebenezer Cox, the veteran ship builder of Kingsport, Mrs. Cox spent a long and useful life at that place, contributing to every good work. She leaves six daughters and one son to mourn, with residences as follows: Annie (Mrs. Justus Bigelow), Margaret (Mrs. Frank Loomer), Nancy (Mrs. A. W. Dickie), at Kingsport; Mary (Mrs. C. McLellan), Springhill; Flora (Mrs. Chas. Tupper), Kentville; Louise (Mrs. J. R. Woodburn), Kingsport; and Dr. Newman Cox, at Baltimore, U. S. A. To all of these the sympathy of Cornwallis neighbors goes out. Mrs. Loomer, nurse at Acadia Seminary, is a niece.

The body will be brought to Habitant Cemetery for interment.

UPPER CANARD

The funeral of the late Mrs. Edwin E. Dickie was held from the residence of her son, Arthur H. Dickie, Upper Canard, on Saturday afternoon, Jan. 26, at half past two, and largely attended. The service was conducted by Rev. G. A. Logan, assisted by Rev. G. D. Hudson, and was a very comforting one, touching tributes being paid to one beloved by many. Into The Hills Around, Do I Live, Mine, Eyes, Abide With Me were sung. The floral tributes were beautiful. The pall bearers were Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Logan.

and Fred, Upper Canard, her son-in-law Alfred Dickie, Halifax, and Arthur B. Harris, nephew of Canning. The remains were laid to rest in the cemetery Upper Canard.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Dickie, guests of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Dickie, returned to Halifax on Monday.

Mrs. C. F. Reynolds, and Miss Reynolds, who were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Dickie, returned to Canning on Monday.

MY MOUNTAIN SPRING

If any tourist, or traveller, is thirsty in summer or winter as they go to survey the valley or the Minas Basin from the Look-off, or to visit Cape Split and Scots Bay, on the Canning Hill, just a few yards above the Hubbard mountain road, there is a beautiful spring of water fresh and sweet. Let them drink and refresh themselves and give thanks to God. Job 33: 4. "The Spirit of God hath made me and the breath of the Almighty giveth me life."

I sit beside my mountain spring
And laugh and sing for joy
For I have found the secret source
Which shall my song employ.

Whence came I? Mystery, so great?
I could not see the why or how:
But now beside the mountain spring
I see, and at his feet I bow.

He made us down the Potters clay
And breathed in me the wondrous breath
The Father of our spirit spoke
And I rose out of old, dark death.

I sit beside my mountain spring,
My heart is full of peace and joy:
Thou wondrous God of wondrous life,
In Thee I am for ever blest.

DECLARES PROHIBITION A SUCCESS

"His prohibition proved a success in the United States and Canada? Yes, 'Should Scotland have prohibition?'

"Should it be brought about gradually or suddenly? Gradually."

"What is the best way? Local option for a start."

"Has government control in Canadian provinces been a success? No."

"Is there any connection between the increased use of narcotic drugs and prohibition? No."

These are the conclusions of the Commission of Scottish churchmen investigating the working of prohibition in the United States and Canada.

A CANDIDATE'S SOLILOQUY

(By Rambler in the Digby Courier)

To run, or not to run; that is the question: whether it is nobler as a citizen to suffer the slings and gibes of the damnable critics, or to take a back seat and look on. To loaf, to sleep, no worries; and by a sleep to say we end the headache and the thousand yearly shocks and jolts that councillors are heir to; 'tis a prospect devoutly to be wished. To loaf, to sleep, perchance to dream; ay, there's the cushy job, for in that sleep on inaction what dreams may come, when we have shuffled off this infernal responsibility. Who would bear the quips and sneers of Rambler, the oppressor's dictation, the proud man's swank, the pangs of disappointed glory or rank, the pangs of the family aren't fond of fruit, serve it to them in the form of lemonade or other fruit drink.

BURNS NIGHT IN KENTVILLE

The Progressive Club of the Kentville Baptist Church had "A Night With Burns" on Friday evening, the anniversary of the birthday of Scotland's great poet. After the devotional exercises led by the president, H. G. Harris, an address was given by Rev. D. G. Ross, who outlined the life of this great poet. Burns' birthday song, "There Was a Lad Was Born in Kyle," was sung by Mrs. D. G. Ross. Excellent Burns lyrics were read by the speaker, after which Mrs. Ross sang "Ye Banks and Braes of Bonnie Doon." Further interesting and humorous incidents in the life and work of the poet were cited in the address, concluding with the duet, "O Wert Thou in the Cauld Blast," sung by Mrs. R. L. Eaton and Mrs. D. G. Ross. Miss Viola Bishop was accompanist.

ANNIVERSARY CELEBRATED AT KENTVILLE

KENTVILLE, Jan. 26.—The 40th anniversary of the Nova Scotia Branch of the St. Stephen's Women's Missionary Society, was celebrated on Friday afternoon, when the members of the Society were "At Home" to the ladies of the United congregation in the School room of St. Paul's Church. The room looked very attractive with decorations of plants, Japanese charts, and the chart of the 40th anniversary.

Mrs. George W. Whitman, of Grand Pre, Secretary of the branch, gave an interesting address, tracing the work of the Dominion Society for the past forty-three years, and of the Nova Scotia branch during forty years, giving a full synopsis of work done, both in home and foreign fields.

Closing her address with a stirring appeal to the women to help make this Canada, not alone a civilized but a Christianized nation, Mrs. Whitman showed by the chart large sections of Country in Western Canada with only Ukrainian, Russian and German schools; and urged everyone to assume responsibility, and be a "Living Link" in prayer and service.

At the close of Mrs. Whitman's address, Mrs. J. W. Turner, Secretary and charter member of the Kentville Society, spoke words of appreciation of the work of Mrs. W. A. Outerbridge, of Hantsport, the organizer of the Kentville Society, and the guest of honor of the meeting. Mrs. Turner also spoke of the growth of this branch of the Society; the amount sent to Missions twelve years ago being $12, this year had increased to $119.00.

A special feature of the "At Home" was the bringing in of the large Birthday Cake, decorated with forty candles. The first place was cut by Mrs. B. J. Porter, followed by Mrs. Outerbridge, Mrs. A. M. Shaw, Mrs. E. H. Munro and others.

Mrs. E. B. Newcombe, President of the Society, presided and the occasion proved most enjoyable to the large number present.

CANADIAN SKATER LOSES FIRST RACE AT OLYMPIC GAMES

CHAMONIX, Jan. 26.—Canada lost its first contest of the 1924 Olympic games this morning, when Charlie Gorman, of St. John, N. B., was defeated after a thrilling exhibition of speed in the 500 metre race. The Canadian skater was beaten by Charles Jewtraw, of Lake Placid, N. Y., in the fifteenth heat of the race. Jewtraw's time was 44 seconds flat. This was the best of any heat skated and under the rules made him the winner of the heat. The Canadian skater came seventh in the list, his time being 45.25 seconds.

The results of the race with the ten leading competitors in the order of their standing were:

Charles Jewtraw, United States, 44 seconds.

Oscar Olsen, Norway, 44.15 seconds.

Thunberg, Finland, and Larkson, Norway, 44.5 seconds.

Vallenius, Finland, 45 seconds.

Blomquist, Sweden, 45.15 seconds.

Charles Gorman, Canada, 45.25 seconds.

Joe Moore, United States, and Harold Stroom, Norway, 45.35 seconds.

Julius Skutnabb, Finland, 46.25 seconds.

HINTS TO HOUSEWIVES

One way to make cake light is to fold into the batter made of the other ingredients, the stiffly beaten egg white the last thing.

Mash squash and pumpkin for pies with a potato masher; then beat with the egg beater until smooth. Less time is required than if a sieve is used.

Fruit should have a prominent place on the late summer diet. If members of the family aren't fond of fruit, serve it to them in the form of lemonade or other fruit drink.

All pieces of beef or chicken fat should be cut fine and carefully rendered to be used for frying. Fat left from frying bacon or ham should be saved, but kept in a separate jar, as the smoked flavor is not desirable for all frying.

Slice cold roast beef very thin, arrange on a waffle platter. Just before serving pour a hot meat sauce or gravy over the slices of meat. If the beef is reheated and allowed to stand over the fire in the gravy it becomes tough.

FREE PUBLICITY

(From the Digby Courier)

The Courier wish to give notice that, so far as is humanly possible, they are all through running free publicity for any person or organization.

The amount of stuff that is sent this office in the course of a year, or even a month, for free insertion, is simply appalling.

Individuals and organizations are assaulting the newspaper columns of this country for free publicity with an assiduity wonderful to behold.

Organizations in Upper Canada maintain palatial offices and well paid secretaries to grind-out propaganda for free insertion in such newspapers as are foolish enough to print it. The rent is paid, the secretary is paid, the job printer is paid, the post office gets money for the stamps used; but the newspaper is expected to be unbusinesslike enough to print the stuff for nothing. We have used some of this stuff in the years that are gone; but never again.

Every few days we receive communications on Church Union. Some of them favor it; some oppose it. They are sent us for free insertion. Sometimes the letter is over a typewritten signature. We have been getting these for months and every last one of them has been promptly consigned to the waste basket.

In the meantime other daily and weekly papers have been publishing paid display advertising from both sides. We are open to publish this matter as advertising, but not otherwise.

As we write this there are several requests for free publicity on our desk. One is a two-column letter on Church Union, clipped from the Montreal Star; another is a statement of rules for an essay contest, publication of which would require half a column of space.

Newspaper space costs money to produce. It is just as much an article of commerce as the goods on a merchant's shelves; and the newspaper can't give it away any more than the merchant can give his goods away.

The Courier is familiar with the type of free publicity hunter who brings yards of stuff to the office for just one purpose: to increase the gate receipts.

Probably the event has some new value; after it is over. But the free publicity hunter will not write it up for the newspaper. He has got what he wanted; and he throws down the newspaper, which gave him his wares for nothing, like a kicked orange.

It is time these free publicity hunters received some straight from the shoulder talk.

WHAT THE SMALL TOWN CAN DO

When a little town in the United States with only 500 inhabitants decided that the best thing for both young folks and old was a Community House, they decided to build one—nothing daunted by the seemingly large task.

Today there stands in that town a Community House such as every town in Nova Scotia ought to have. It cost them $9,500.

There is an assembly hall, a stage, a dining room and kitchen and a small library room, all on the ground floor, the structure being very nearly T shaped.

The way the American folks worked out the problem was by co-operative effort. They put in $3,000 worth of labor and materials gratis; and they raised $5,500 in cash. All they had to borrow, therefore, was $1,000. The town gave $50 toward the upkeep of the library; the cost of lighting is paid by rentals of the hall and receipts from entertainments; and the building is headquarters for all its social activities from dances and suppers to Red Cross sessions.

COOKING HELPS

In cooking cranberries, if the berries are put through the food chopper and cooked with equal amount of sugar the flavor of the jelly is delicious and much labor saved.

When preparing spinach for cooking after it has been washed thoroughly, do not add any water to it when boiling as enough remains from washing.

In this way, all the iron it contains will not be wasted.

The best way to boil cauliflower so as to have it remain white is to boil it quickly, without adding any salt, and do not cover.

If the gravy will not brown in a hurry a tablespoon of coffee will help considerably and leaves absolutely no coffee taste. Strain it out, of course.

When cooking acid fruit stir in a little baking soda before adding sugar. It is surprising how little sugar you will require this way.

Try adding a finely sliced orange to apple pie the next time you make one. It improves the flavor considerably.

EXCELLENT PROGRESS MADE

In the Boy Scout Movement Throughout Nova Scotia

Excellent progress in the Boy Scout movement throughout Nova Scotia was shown for the past year when reports were submitted at the 13th annual meeting of the Provincial Council of the Boy Scouts Association for the Province at Halifax last week. There was a considerable increase of the numerical strength of the Boy Scouts, and there had been a very marked development and extension of the work; and with more attention paid to greater efficiency and more effective scouting, the standard of scouting in Nova Scotia is now on a very high plane and second to none in all Canada.

One of the interesting and significant features of the Scout movement in the Province for the past year was the growing interest reported from the French sections of Digby, Yarmouth and other counties. Literature printed in French language had been procured and supplied to interested parish priests and other citizens in those sections. There are now 160 active groups, including wolf cub packs, sea scout troops, and rover troops, and the total enrolment, including scout-masters, cub-masters and assistants, was 3,416.

There were six summer camps conducted under the supervision of Provincial headquarters, and about 500 Scouts were under camp during the summer months. Plans under consideration for the summer of 1924 include eight Scout camps.

An outstanding feature of Scouting was the visit of His Excellency, the Governor General, the Chief Scout for Canada, and while in the Province he showed keen interest, and impressed the authorities in communities where there were no Scouts with the importance of the programme being organized.

The Rotary Clubs in Halifax, Sydney and Yarmouth rendered very marked assistance, taking a very active interest in the promotion of Scouting, and special reference to their work was made in the report of the Provincial Commissioner, I. W. Vido.

A report submitted by the chairman of the business managing committee, W. C. Nickerson, called for an expenditure of $6,900 during the present year and suggested means whereby the money can be secured to meet this budget.

The treasurer's report for the year showed that the Council closed the year with a small balance on the right side and bills paid.
