"Fruit-a-tives" Conquered Nervous Prostration

R. R. No. 4, GUNTER PLAINS, MAR.
"In the year 1910, I had Nervous Prostration in its worst form, dropping from 170 to 115 pounds.
The doctors had no hope of my recovery, and every medicine I tried proved useless until a friend advised me to take 'Fruit-a-tives'.
I began to mend almost at once, and never had such good health as I have enjoyed the past eight years. I am never without 'Fruit-a-tives' in the house." JAS. S. DELGATY.
For a box, 6 for $2.50, trial size 25c. At all dealers or sent postpaid by Fruit-a-tives Limited, Ottawa.

MISS AMY L. PERRY

There was deep sorrow when it became known on Thursday afternoon May 12, that Amy, only daughter of the late John N. and Mrs. Perry of Connell, had passed away after an illness of seven months, borne with great patience and Christian fortitude. She was but 23 years of age and her death is particularly sad for the fact that her invalid mother is bereft of the companionship of a loving daughter, who has tenderly and almost solely cared for her since the death of her father just two years before. In the early autumn she contracted what seemed to be a severe cold, but later tuberculosis developed, and after much suffering, in spite of all that medical skill and the tenderest care could do, she succumbed to the dread disease. From the first she insisted that she would not recover and earnestly desired to depart and be with her Saviour, in whom she implicitly trusted. Her childlike sweet faith and patient waiting for her Lord was an inspiration to her many friends who visited her during her illness. She was a consistent member of the United Baptist church at Connell, having been baptized by Rev. E. C. Jenkins, during a series of meetings held by him when he was pastor of the church. In addition to her Christian character, she was a young lady of refined intelligence, kind, cheerful and unselfish in her nature which endeared her to all who knew her. No where outside of her immediate family and other near relatives will she be more sadly missed and lovingly remembered than in her home community, where by her many virtues she won the love of everybody.

The funeral which was largely attended was held from her home on Saturday afternoon, May 14. There being no resident pastor, the service was conducted by Rev. L. A. Fenwick, Jacksonville, a former pastor and an old friend of the family. The Florenceville Baptist choir, with Mrs. T. McCain at the piano, feelingly rendered beautiful hymns: "Does Jesus Care," "Gathering Home," "I'll Awaken in The Morning" and "Abide With Me." The first three selections were chosen by her and at her request were sung the night before she died by her aunt, Mrs. J. A. Grant and Mrs. George Perley. The pall bearers, who were also chosen by herself were her cousins, Ernest B. Shaw, James S. Turner, Carleton T. Miller and Norman Miller. The numerous and beautiful floral offerings from relatives and friends bore silent but eloquent tribute to the memory of one they loved. Interment was made in Garrison Hill cemetery by the side of her departed father. She is survived by her grief-stricken mother and brothers, Bertram and Fred, who have the heartfelt sympathy of the whole community. The other near surviving relatives are her uncles and aunts, one of whom (Mrs. George W. Johnson) tenderly cared for her during the last three months of her illness.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank our neighbors, friends and the Florenceville choir for their help and sympathy during the illness and death of our beloved daughter and sister; also for their beautiful floral offerings.

BASSETT-PETERSON

The home of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Peterson, Tracey Mills, was the scene of a very happy event on Wednesday June 1, at four o'clock, when their eldest daughter, Pauline Alberta, was united in marriage to Lieu. Frank E. A. Bassett of Derbyshire, Eng. The ceremony was impressively performed by Rev. H. R. Bell in the presence of about 60 guests. The bride was charmingly attired in a gown of white satin with silk over lace and bridal veil gracefully caught with a wreath of orange blossoms. She was unattended and carried a bouquet of white carnations. Little Greta Peterson, cousin of the bride acted as flower girl. The house was tastefully decorated for the occasion in evergreen and white. The bride enjoyed the strains of Mendelssohn's Wedding March played by her sister, Miss Leota Peterson. After the ceremony a sumptuous luncheon was served which fully catered to the wants of the inner man. The many beautiful presents testified to the esteem in which the young couple were held. They left by auto for Woodstock from whence they will proceed on their honeymoon to different points. On their return they will reside at Tracey Mills.

The bride was an efficient teacher in our public schools. The groom is a young man of sterling character. He served four years over seas in the 48th Canadian Infantry. He was disabled in the Great War and honorably discharged. Their many friends join in wishing them a long and happy married life.

ENTERTAINMENT AT BRISTOL

The entertainment given by the young people of Bristol Union Sunday

School on the evening of May 23 was a grand success all around. The theme of the Character Sketch, was the bringing home of a bride by a young minister. The unusual traits of criticism and speculation of some of the ladies of the congregation as to the necessity of a bride at the minister's home and what she should be were well in evidence even the time coming in for their share.

The home coming of the bride with its usual social events, intermixed with humorous occurrences. The evening party in the home of the minister and the piano duets, solos and recitations were all so well rendered that no special mention can be made of any one part.

The young people are to be congratulated on their great success which was made possible by their efforts and the kindly assistance of Mrs. G. W. Somerville, Mrs. Duncan Rogers and the other friends who loaned the necessary articles.

It is hoped that our young people will continue their good efforts.
