A MISAPPROPRIATION.—Some of the boys about town are laboring apparently under the erroneous idea that the Post office is a place erected for their sole amusement. Unfortunately for the Liberals it was the minority at Mr. Allison by five to one and the Conservatives easily vanquished their opponents. This was not as if the Liberals was "the young man's party."

WEDDING BELLS.—The residence of Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Oulton, Baie Verte Road, was on Tuesday afternoon 10th inst., the scene of a very interesting and happy event. The occasion being the marriage of their niece Miss Alice Maud, eldest daughter of Rufus Oulton, Esq., to Mr. J. F. Powell, a successful young farmer of Port Lawrence, N. S. The bride looked charming and was very becomingly dressed in cream muslin trimmed with satin and lace with veil and wreath of orange blossoms and bouquet of natural flowers. She was attended by her sister Leona D. who was dressed in pale blue cashmere trimmed with lace and natural flowers. The groom was ably supported by Mr. Gilmour D. Allen, of Cape Spear. The ceremony was performed by Rev. L. S. Johnson of Baie Verte. The bride was away by her uncle and as they entered the room the wedding march was played by Miss Vere Weeks, of Amherst, assisted by Mr. Goodwin, on the violin. The high estimation in which the fair and popular young bride was held by her many relatives and friends was shown by the valuable and handsome presents which she received, notable among which was an elegant six octave piano case organ, a gift from the Oulton family. The happy couple took the evening train at Baie Verte, accompanied by many friends and good wishes which was shown by the very generous supply of rice which followed them. They left for Boston and intend taking an extended trip throughout the New England States.
