FIRST GUN FIRED FOR PROHIBITION

E. Tennyson Smith, British Temperance Lecturer, Opens at Campbellton.

A STIRRING ADDRESS.

Declares War on Liquor Traffic and Provincial Campaign Will be Inaugurated.

Campbellton, N. B., Nov. 11.— Ref. E. Tennyson Smith, the distinguished English temperance lecturer, arrived here on the English mail special on Friday evening to enter upon a week's campaign.
Friday evening he met the local committee and the plans for the meetings were discussed and final arrangements made, but it was not until today that the real campaign began.

On Saturday evening a welcome was given Mr. Smith by the temperance people and Mayor Murray, on behalf of the town. The mayor's address was warmly applauded and at its close he gave Mr. Smith a hearty handshake. J. M. Mc-Lean, W. P. of Campbellton division, presided and gave an appropriate address. Warm words of welcome were also expressed by each of the four Protestant clergymen of the town.

W. F. Trueman, who had just returned from the session of the Grand division at St. John, also spoke, and made it clear that the definite object of the campaign should be and is provincial prohibition.

The address in reply by Mr.
Smith proved him at once to be the very man wanted to arouse the province to the realization of the drink evil. He first extended thanks for the hearty welcome he had received and humorously contrasted the difference between landing at Rimouski and his arrival at Campbellton. After a very feeling reference to the death of his wife, and the sad trip to his native land, incidentally stating that had it not been for his pledged word to the committee at St. John it is doubtful if he would have ventured from his native shores, he asked those present to join him in singing "Blest Be the Tie That Binds." All hearts were touched, and needless to say the old hymn was sung with a new force.

Mr. Smith then launched forth upon one of the most stirring addresses ever heard in this town. He referred to the fact that war had been declared upon the liquor traffic and he wanted that understood from the outset. War means that someone is going to be hurt unless it is a sham fight, where blank cartridges were used. He didn't use blank cartridges. If no one was hurt he would take the first bullet to England. He had been called an extremist, and he frankly admitted that there was no word in the English language strong enough to express his feelings in regard to the liquor business. If he could talk Welsh he might accomplish it. (Laughter.)
"People didn't realize the evil.
We see the comedy but fail to see the tragedy," and here the lecturer told some incidents from his experience that somehow made a deep impression, and one found oneself unconsciously making strong and higher resolves.

In conclusion, Mr. Smith said he was glad to learn there was a definite object in view as the final outcome of the campaign.
Mr. Smith spoke in the Method-

NOBODY ON BOARD WRECKED ADEONA

Visitors to the Vessel Found Everything Intact on Deck.

BRAVE P. E. I FISHERMEN.

Subscriptions Taken Up to Reward Them for Saving Life—Dead Body Found.

Rexton, N. B., Nov. 10.—Word has reached here that some parties succeeded in boarding the Adeona this morning and found everything intact about the deck. There was no sign of life aboard except the cat.

Charlottetown, P. E. I., Nov. 10.
—Public subscription lists have been started to get a purse for Austin Grady and Duncan P.
Campbell, two young fishermen of Priest Pond, who, at imminent danger of their lives, set out in an ordinary double dory and rescued two out of the three men remaining on the wrecked Finnish ship Sovinto on Thursday morning. The mate of the ship is ill with pneumonia, and his recovery is doubtful. Another body was found today at Black Bush, four miles from the wreck. The survivors will be sent home by the Russian consul at Halifax.

PICKED UP

WRECKED CREW.

The S. S. Farmand, Bound For Miramichi Rescued
Sailors.

Halifax, N. S., Nov. 10.—The crew of the barquentine Marion C. of Halifax, were brought here today by the Norwegian steamer Farmand, bound from New York to Miramichi. The Marion C. had to be abandoned one hundred miles west southwest of Cape Sable.
The crew took to a boat, and were seventy hours drifting about before being picked up by the Farmand. They had a terrible experience. The Marion C. was bound from Bridgewater to New York.

KING'S HEALTH IS EXCELLENT.

His Majesty Celebrated His Birthday at Sandringham With His Family.

London, Nov. 9.—King Edward celebrated his 65th birthday quietly at Sandringham surrounded by his family. He is in excellent health. Very many congratulatory messages reached His Majesty during the day, and many valuable presents were received from the sovereigns of Europe and personal friends.

The customary salutes were fired by the warships at the naval centres.

ist church this morning, and in the afternoon a men's meeting was held in the Baptist church, which was well filled. A mass meeting will be held in the Presbyterian church tonight.

Mr. Smith is certainly a forceful speaker, and no report of his addresses would do him justice. He seems to have the rare gift of holding the attention of his hearers as long as he chooses, moving them to tears or out bursts of laughter at will, and underneath all is manifest the deep earnestness of the man and his love for his fellows.
Sometimes he tells a irresistibly funny story, and before the laugh has died away some potent truth, is shot out with startling effect.
His addresses abound with humorous and pathetic incidents told in a wonderfully effective manner, and his impersonations are very realistic, while occasional flights of oratory place him in the very front rank of platform speakers to have visited this province. The success of his campaign in this town is assured.

GOOD PLAY MONDAY NIGHT.

Do-Say Comedy Co. Presented "A Wife's Advice" in Good Style.

CLEVER WORK.

All Parts Taken in an Exceptionally Clever Manner for Amateurs.

Despite the most disagreeable weather and travelling a fairly well filled house greeted the Do-Say Comedy Company in the Opera House Monday evening. This company is a Bathurst organization under the leadership of the talented young actor, Mr. Theodore A.
Doucet. Besides being manager of the company, Mr. Doucet wrote this play and prepared all the special scenery features, which were more realistic than those usually shown in Newcastle.

The Bathurst orchestra under the leadership of Mr. H. Villet played an exceptionally good programme before the performance and between the acts.

The piece of the evening "A Wife's Advice" was as well put on as the plays given here by the best of professionals and with its special scenic features created a very favorable impression.

The cast was as follows:—

Mr. W. Raymond, Theodore A. Doucet Hank Jordan (a.k. assumed Party)
Little Charlie Kennan
Nancy, Little Bessie Rogers
"Tidy", Miss Irene Doherty Everett's Rolland, Mr. John Pitre Elsie Raymond, Miss Gussie Doucet Clifford Wallace, Mr. Frank Melanson
Bert Wallace, Mr. Arthur Melanson
IN ACT III. AND IV
Hank Jordan, Mr. Wm. Robertson Meady, Miss Ma. y White George (mail man), Edmond White Obsolet.

ACT I.
Steve Raymond's Backsmith Shop The Forged Letter. The Oath of Vengeance.

ACT II.
Steve's Home. Kitchen Noence. The Scare. The Storm. The Arrival of Elsie. The Murder. Death of Little Nancy. "There is the man."

ACT III.
Exterior of Steve's Home. The Chase, Another Forgery. The Attempted Bride. The Stamped Letter. "Touch it if you dare."

ACT IV.
Clifford Wallace's Home. The Arrival of the Polka. The Pie Eating. The Disguised Villain. Caught at last.
"A Wife's Advice."

Little Bessie Rogers and Charles Kennan won the hearts of the audience by their clever work, and received merited applause.

Miss Gussie Doucet as the heroine maintained the reputation she has already established by her excellent acting. Misses Mary White and Irene Doherty won hearty applause for the capable rendering of their difficult parts. Mr. John Pitre as the villain did excellent work.
Mr. Frank Melanson in the part of Clifford Wallace was exceedingly good. Mr. Arthur Melanson appeared at his best as Bert Wallace.
Mr. William Robertson in his acceptation of the part of Hank Jordan caused much laughter. Mr. Edmond White made a capital letter carrier and officer doing the part full justice. Needless to say Mr. Doucet performed in his usual brilliant style.

Another show is promised by this company in the near future and we know they will meet with an appreciative audience.

TERRIBLE WRECK NEAR CHICAGO.

Fifty Killed and Many More Injured—Fire Caused by Wreck.

Chicago, Nov. 12.—More than one half the passengers on an immigrant train on the Baltimore and Ohio road were killed and injured in a collision today with a freight train near Woodville, Ind.

One hundred and sixty-five passengers were on the train. Of these 47 were either killed outright or were burned to death in a fire immediately after the collision.
