THE OPPOSITION PLATFORM. The Mail, the London Free Press, the Star and almost every other Tory journal in Ontario, flaucts over their editorial headings what purports to be the Opposition platform during the coming contest. It appeared simultaneously in the Mail and Free Press and was inspired by Macdonald, Mousseau, Langevin & Co., who are fighting against the interests of Ontario. We print the platform in Italics, and sandwich in a remark or two between each plank, for the benefit of the upholders of Ontasio's Rights in Huron County and elsewkere.

"Confederation must be maintained." Even if it is necessary to steal half of Ontario's territory, and thereby lessen the influence of the premier Province,the backbone of the Confederacy.

JUDGE DOYLE'S "FRIEND."

WE understand the Opposition candidate in West Huron is building greatly upon the fact that the appointment of less. Judge Doyle by the Conservative Gov- fore her. ernment should act in his favor with the Roman Catholics of West Huron. If such be his opinion, he is doomed to disappointment. Does he for a moment imagine that the co-religionists of Judge Doyle will believe that Mr. Johnstonwho used his every influence to have his law partner appointed instead of Judge Doyle-was in any way responsible for the appointment of that gentlemans? If iriends who stood by him in past conof his reckoning. Why, Mr. Johnston fought Mr. Doyle's appointment tooth and nail. He did everything he possibly could to frustrate Mr. Doyle's chances, and the appointment of Judge Doyle was a triumph over the Johnston faction in this town. The facts of the case are notorious, and the satisfaction ananimously expressed by the Liberal press and the Reform party throughout the county is a full and free evidence of their hearty sympathy with Judge Doyle in his triumph over Mr. Johnston's machinations. Judge Doyle's appointment was due to the fact that he was the man best fitted for the position, that his legal abilities were such that they could not be ignored when compared with the qualifications of count of his religion-as Mr. Johnston position of trust or emplament under the Doyle when he is seeking the suffrages helping on the appointment of Judge Government.
