"Now or Never."

President Taft's Declaration.

Special to Evening Telegram.
NEW YORK, To-Day.
Reciprocity with Canada must be adopted now or never. It must stand or fall by its own merits, declared President Taft in an address last night at a banquet of the Associated Press. The address was the first of a series in a plan to evoke public sentiment in support of the policy of the proposed Arbitration Treaty with Great Britain. The President said: "It is moving along with such rapidity as is consistent with the drafting of the Agreement for securing for it as broad a scope as possible." He referred to Reciprocity with Canada as a kindred subject that will indirectly stimulate international peace. The President repeated the argument that the Treaty would have the effect of steadying prices, rather than reducing them. He realized that agitation had raised opposition to the Agreement. There was one way of clarifying the situation, and that was to give the Agreement a trial. If it were found then that there was injury to the farmers, they possessed sufficient control of legislation to bring an end to the Agreement, as neither country was bound to continue it indefinitely. Another conclusive reason for closing the contract, said Taft, "is the opportunity it gives us of increasing the supply of natural resources, which with the wastefulness of children, we have wantonly exhausted. The timber resources of Canada which will open themselves to us inevitably under the operation of this Agreement, are not apparently inexhaustible. Under proper modern methods the timber resources of Canada may be made inexhaustible, and we may derive ample supplies of lumber from Canadian resources, to the profit of Canada and for our benefit. In conclusion the President said, "I have said this was a critical time for the solution of the question of Reciprocity. It is critical because unless it is now decided favourably for Reciprocity it is exceedingly probable that no such opportunity will ever again come to the States. The forces, which are at work in England and Canada to separate her by a Chinese wall and make her a part of an Imperial Commercial band, reaching from England around the world to England again by a system of preferential tariffs, will derive an impetus from the rejection of this treaty. If we would have Reciprocity with all the advantages that I have described and that I believe will follow its adoption, we must make it now or give it up forever."

Black Hand Bomb.

Chicago April 20.—A score of persons are injured and a whole row of two-story buildings are in ruins to-day as a result of the explosion of a Black Hand bomb shortly after midnight at Grand Avenue and 12th Street. The bomb, which was nothing like the cannon-cracker affair usually employed by the Black Handers, set buildings afire and sent hundreds of nearby residents to the streets in terror.

Here and There.

Hr. Breton to-day reports herring very plentiful at Little Bay West and Millers Passage, Fortune Bay. Some 500 barrels were hauled at Little Bay.

DID NOT GO.—Capt. W. C. Winsor, having business in St. John's, did not go on the Stella Maris this trip, and the Chief Officer, Mr. Hann is in command.

UNUSUALLY FINE.—The splendid summer-like weather which we enjoy to-day, prevails around the whole island and that it will continue all will ardently wish.

LEFT HOSPITAL.—Max Mitchell, Nurse Taylor, Miss Burgess and two Hall children, who have been ill of diphtheria, left the hospital fully recovered yesterday.

WILL GIVE OUT TRACTS.—The Wesley Epworth League, who at once begin the season's work distributing religious tracts and papers on the harbor on board the outport schrs. Two boys will do the work.

PIERCE STREET FIGHT.—Yesterday afternoon on Cochrane Street, a fierce street fight occurred in which a Portuguese Cove man and two others were involved. The Cove man was pretty badly cut, his face was covered with blood and Officers Frampton and Harrigan arrested him. The others escaped but the police have their names and they will be summoned.

Possessions.

Why do men toll so constantly
For things of which no man hath need?
Ask not my toll. Ask not of me
Success where I would not succeed.

Things that breed things are foolishness:
Who builds castles needs a moat;
The doxy with a showy dress
Puts to the blush her simple coat.

Wine craves more wine; and carriages
Craves cushions where success may sit
And out. We have no need of these
Our life having such joy in it.

The only joys that life can give
Are those that money cannot buy:
So while we live, for these we live,
And, these possessing, we can die.

In Three Accidents

It would seem that Zam-Buk, the famous healing balm, we hear so highly spoken of everywhere, is particularly useful in the family circle. A report sent by Mrs. E. Davey, 786 Ellice Ave., Winnipeg, will illustrate this. She says: "My little boy of three, while playing, fell from a high veranda to the ground, cutting his forehead badly. Instead of calling a doctor, who would undoubtedly have put in a number of stitches, I bathed the wound with, and applied Zam-Buk. The little fellow, although suffering keenly, soon had relief from his pain. In the course of three weeks, by applying Zam-Buk daily, the wound was nicely healed."

"Since then I have also used Zam-Buk for a boil which came on my cheek, and which proved very painful and looked unsightly. Zam-Buk soon drew the boil to a head, and it then quickly banished it."

"Another time my baby was scalded on her left thigh and calf of leg with boiling water. Directly it was done I thought to use Zam-Buk, and spreading some on it I wrapped up the baby's limb. Next morning she rested much easier and I applied a fresh bandage with Zam-Buk. I kept this treatment up daily, and was rewarded by seeing a great improvement each time I dressed the wound. In a very short space of time the scalds were all nicely healed."

"I cannot recommend this wonderful healing preparation too highly for family use, and I have such great faith in its healing powers that my house is never without a box."

For all skin injuries and diseases, ulcers, eczema, salt rheum and face sores, Zam-Buk is absolutely unequalled. 50c. box all druggists and stores, or post free from Zam-Buk Co., St. John's, Nfld., for price. Try Zam-Buk Soap too! Only 25c. tablet.

A Man of Genius.

Mr. Patrick Hickey, of St. John's, though a shipwright by trade, shows himself to be possessed of much artistic skill. At his home he has some splendid specimens of the taxidermist's art, including the mounting of a family of pheasants with natural scenery in the background, and a spread eagle, which he carved and which is a splendid reproduction. He has also beautiful models made of such old time ships as the barque Queen, Wm. Punton and Isabella, and for the past 20 years Mr. Hickey has done much of this excellent work.

Indigestion & Dyspepsia

In all its Forms can be Cured.

It is quite a daily occurrence to hear persons say: Oh, what a feeling of distress I have after meals, fullness of the stomach, heaviness and headache, I feel too tired to do anything. I have no heart to exert myself and at times I care for nothing. I often have a pain in the pit of my stomach, no appetite, my heart beats rapidly on the slightest exertion. I feel just as tired when rising in the morning as when retiring to bed. My sleep is often disturbed, and I often awake with a sense of suffocation and a difficulty of again going to sleep. I have to be careful of what I eat, and my life seems a veritable burden.

Now, it seems a shame and a pity for persons to be suffering like that when it is in their power to get cured by taking a Bottle of Dr. Stafford's Prescription A. A sure cure for persons afflicted with stomach troubles. It can be obtained at

DR. F. STAFFORD & SON,
Duckworth Street and Theatre Hill.
Small size, 25 cents; postage, 5c.
extra; large size, 50 cents; postage, 10c. extra. Mail orders must be accompanied by remittance.—oct29.1m.

WILL GO FOR SHIP.—Capt. J. Randall, of Trinity, will go to New York shortly to bring down the British ship, Amazon, bought lately for coast visitation.

UNDERWENT OPERATION.—Mr. Ashbourne, of Twillingate, underwent an operation in a New York Hospital recently and a message was received from him yesterday saying that he was much improved and would return here by the middle of May.

When Sleep Fails You

DR. CHASE'S NERVE FOOD will bring rest, comfort and vitality by building up the nerves.

Mr. Jas. Wesley Weaver, a veteran of the Fenian Raid, Port Dalhousie, Ont., writes: "For years I was afflicted with nervousness and dreaded insomnia, so that I never knew for three years what a full hour's sleep was, never more than dozing for a few minutes at a time. Heart pains and headaches almost drove me wild. I had spells of weakness and cramps in stomach and limbs."

"Though I tried several doctors, it was money uselessly spent." Finally Dr. Chase's Nerve Food was brought to me and eight boxes cured me. It is simply wonderful what benefit I have obtained from this treatment. Sleeplessness and headaches are warnings of approaching nervous collapse. You can positively remove these symptoms and prevent prostration or paralysis by the use of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food. 50 cents a box, 6 for $2.50, at all dealers or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Toronto. Write for free copy of Dr. Chase's Recipes.
