The Battle of the Capitals.

Then will come the battle of the cap-Once the far north town of Battleford was the capital of the Territories and its people waxed fat and kicked because of its pre-eminence over other hamlets; but when the country was divided into districts and 'Pile o' Bones" had its name changed to Regina and the Government speculators made their pile from the disposal of town sites, the glory departed from the northern center.

capital will have to be chosen-perhaps two, if Regina does not look sharply after her vested rights. My opinion is that Calgary or Edmonton will chosen, perhaps Edmonton. As the future development of the province contiguous to the Rockies will be northward, in the district of which Edmonton is destined to be a large rity center, it would be reasonable to ix the capital in that city.
