

The Equipment and Faculty of WESTERVELT'S COLLEGE
 Y. M. C. A., London, Ont.
 Is unsurpassed in Canada. We may be out-talked—but out-worked never. Catalogue free.
 J. W. WESTERVELT, C. A., Secretary
 J. W. WESTERVELT, Principal.

$20.00
Men's Suits
 Made to Your Order.
O. Labelle
 Merchant Tailor.
 220 DUNDAS STREET.

DEER HUNTERS
 CAN OBTAIN THEIR COMPLETE OUTFIT HERE
 Winchester Rifles, .303 British, 32-40, 38-55 and .351 Automatic. Savage Rifles, 303 and 38-55 cal. Marten Rifles, 32-40 and 38-55 cal. Smokeless and Black Rifle Cartridges.
 Hunting Knives. Safety Pocket Aves. Drinking Cups and Flasks. Leather, Corduroy and Canvas Coats.
 Vests, Pants, Leggings, Belts, Covers, Etc.
 Deer Hunters' Licenses issued here.
GURD'S GOOD GUNS
 185 DUNDAS ST.

Clark's Business College
 DAY SCHOOL
 NIGHT SCHOOL
 Not the cheapest, but pre-eminently the best. Most broadly educated specialists ever assembled in a Canadian business college. C. H. CLARK, Pres. 203-212 1/2 Dundas St., London, Phone 703

R. K. COWAN
 BARRISTER, SOLICITOR, ETC.
 County Bldg., next Court House, London.

Genuine Pittston Coal
 Why worry about your coal or have an empty bin? We make it a business to fill bins and keep you supplied.
SOUTHCOTT & KETTLE
 Phone 229 G. T. R. and Maitland.

LARGE DISCOUNT SALE FOR OCTOBER
 Trunks, Bags and Suitcases, Ladies' Bags, Saddles, Harness, Horse Clothing, Waterproof Horse Clothing, Men's Coats and Hats. We can also make you anything out of leather. Trunks and bags repaired. Sent for and delivered.

Tackaberry & Co's
 'Phone 866.
 364 RICHMOND STREET.

$2 Buys a Good Shoe
 AT PAXMAN'S, 290 DUNDAS ST

We Deliver
 All kinds of Coal and any size order, always quoting the lowest price.
 If you deal with us your troubles will be over as far as your Coal Supply
 is concerned. Eggs, Stove, Chestnut, and Pea Coal.

Hunt Bros., Ltd
 OFFICE: 363 RICHMOND STREET.
 Telephone 123 or 412.

FOR SALE
 Frame cottage, Adelaide street, only $200.00 down, balance in monthly payments.

LONDON LOAN AND SAVINGS COMPANY.

WHOLESALE AND RETAIL.
 "Gathering up the Sunbeams." Look on the bright side of things and BUY YOUR Christmas Presents IN NOVEMBER
 You have the best choice now.

R. E. Davis & Co.
 Direct Importers.
206 Dundas St.
 CHINA AND ART GOODS.

Order Hamilton's
 Hamilton's Porter is fully aged. It is the best. Ask for Hamilton's when you are buying.

Order Hamilton's

COAL
 For range, baseburner, furnace or grate. We have a large stock, and can satisfy the most particular, as our coal gives the maximum heat, and has the minimum ash.
Webster & Kernohan
 Piccadilly Street, West of Richmond
 Phone 1383

OUR COAL
 Is giving the very best of satisfaction, arriving in box cars, bright, clean and dry. You will do well to place your order early, and avoid the rush when the snow flies. We furnish coal for every purpose, the very best that is known today.

May Bros. & Co
 'Phone 1224. 685 York Street.

Odd things not found elsewhere
Where to Buy the Wedding Silver
 (AT GILLEAN'S)
And What to Buy
 In our collection will be discovered "just the thing" for the case in mind.
Thos. Gillean
 402 RICHMOND STREET.

Have You Tried It

JOHNSTON BROS.
X X X BUTTER BREAD

JOHNSTON BROS. XXX BUTTER BREAD settles the question entirely. The taste says so, the appetite is perfectly satisfied and the sound body proves it. Nothing has been found that so fully and satisfactorily supplies the every want; no other bread has ever been made so carefully, so accurately, so uniformly. Your grocer will supply you, or phone

JOHNSTON BROS.
 'Phone 944

Give the devil his due, for he is sure to get it in due time.
 The secret of success is to be found in the gospel of hard work.

Have you seen our CUFF LINKS
 If you are going to buy Cuff Links don't fail to see ours. We can please you, both in style, quality and price.

SUMNER
 The Jeweler.
 380 RICHMOND STREET.

Have you tried
OUR COAL?
 The Famous Cross Creek
ANTHRACITE
 Satisfaction Guaranteed.
John Mann & Sons
 401 Clarence.
 425 York.
 Phone 470.

WHAT DO YOU THINK OF DIAMONDS?

Of course you know there's a big difference in Diamonds. See ours for quality and price.

C. H. WARD & CO.
 374 RICHMOND ST.

TAKOMA LOAF

Made with the best BUTTER AND MILK we can buy.

HAVE YOU TRIED IT YET?
 MADE BY
PARNELL, The Bread Man
 Phones 1390 and 929.
 EVERY LOAF WRAPPED.

"PURITY"
 You'll find it easy to make good Cakes and Tea Biscuits when you use "Purity" Baking Powder. Every test proves "Purity" best. It never fails to make nutritious and appetizing food.
Only 20c Pound
Cairncross & Lawrence
 Chemists and Druggists
 216 Dundas Street London, Ont.

LONDON AND DISTRICT

—Miss Grace McLeay, of Boston, a former Londoner, is visiting with Mrs. Wm. T. Williams.

—Adelaide Street Baptist Church choir gives a "Service of Praise" this evening. A musical treat is promised.

—On Tuesday, Oct. 8, in St. Paul's Church, Seattle, Wash., Amelia (McLeay) Martin, formerly of this city, was united in marriage to Mr. Louis N. Johnson. Mr. and Mrs. Johnson will reside at 224 Seventeenth avenue North Seattle, after their return from their honeymoon trip.

—Dr. G. L. Clarke, of 478 King street, who has been for the past year and a half studying in the hospitals of Great Britain and the continent, has returned and will confine his practice exclusively to diseases of the eye, ear, nose and throat.

Factory at Portage.
 The London Fence, Limited, whose factory at Portage la Prie was burned early in the summer, has about completed rebuilding and will be in running order again in a few weeks.

Emphatic Denial.
 Rev. Mr. Hamilton, pastor of the First Congregational Church, denies emphatically the allegation that during the trouble on the street yesterday over Sunday cars, he shook his fist in anyone's face.

Card of Thanks.
 Mr. Hier and family, of Cavendish street, desire to thank their many friends for their kindness to them during the accident to their son who was hurt the other day at the London Printing and Lithographing Company. The boy is doing well.

London Delegates.
 The London delegates to the London Conference of the Epworth League, which began today at St. Matthew's Church, Miss Martindale, and Miss Whitaker. It is expected that the business of the conference will be finished by tomorrow evening.

St. Luke's Basement.
 The opening of the basement room of the new St. Luke's Church, Broughdale, took place last evening. Ven. Archdeacon Richardson gave a very interesting history of the growth of St. Luke's Church. Addresses were also given by Rev. J. B. Freeman, of the Richmond Street Mission, and by Rev. W. Lowe, of St. Matthew's Church, East London. Mrs. Robyn-McKillop gave several solos in splendid voice. Mr. Thomas Mitchellree also rendered several piano solos in a very pleasing manner. The offering on behalf of the building fund was very liberal.

Not Enough Laborers.
 Collingwood Schreiber, who, accompanied by Fletcher, arrived in Winnipeg Friday, told a newspaperman that he left F. W. Morse, general manager of the G. T. P., at Saskatoon. Mr. Schreiber did not seem altogether satisfied with the progress that had been made by construction; but pointed out, in explanation, that it had been difficult to obtain an adequate labor supply.

Excellent Concert.
 A large attendance was present last evening in the Kensington Church, when an excellent concert was rendered. Those who took part were as follows: Mrs. Harold B. Watson, Wellington Street Church Quartette; Miss Dodo Simcox, Mr. A. Greenslade, Mr. F. Jones, Miss Verna Hewer, Miss Muriel Fraser, Mr. Y. L. Hower, and Mr. Russell Walker. The programme was a well-selected one, and was thoroughly enjoyable from every standpoint.

Young People's Society.
 The Young People's Society of St. James' Church, South London, held a very successful meeting last night. The president, Mr. A. L. Charles, was in the chair. Three papers were read by Miss B. Barrum, Miss Hodgins, and Miss Maud Beattie on "The Life of David." Miss McDonald gave a vocal selection, and Miss Charles read a short lecture on the poetry of the next meeting will be John Ruskin and his work.

The Late Mrs. Baty.
 The funeral of the late Mrs. Baty, wife of Mr. Thomas Baty, of this city, was held on Saturday last at Pond Cemetery. The services were conducted by the Rev. J. G. Stuart, and Rev. Dr. McCrae, of Westminster. The pallbearers were Messrs. Edward Beattie, Adam Nichol, Adam Baty, Arthur Baty, A. MacQueen and G. Rowat.

Suing for Damages.
 Mr. John Burgess, of Chelsea Green, has commenced an action against the Wilcox Manufacturing Company for $125 for the loss of three cows, alleged to have been poisoned by drinking a solution of arsenic that the defendant firm is alleged to have emptied into the creek running through the field where the cows pastured.

An Explanation.
 Mr. Lorne Saunders, the G. T. P. operator at Hyde Park, writes to state that a mistake was made in a recent article to the effect that he was responsible for a wild-goose chase upon which two of the county constabulary were recently sent to Hyde Park. Mr. Saunders states that he did not know that the constables were coming until they arrived on the spot.

Funeral at Belmont.
 In connection with the anniversary service of Belmont Presbyterian Church a most successful recital was given last evening by the Belmont Concert Party, a strong musical combination lately out from Glasgow, Scotland. Mr. and Mrs. Lamont Galbraith opened the programme with an excellent rendition of a pianoforte duet and the high-class note struck therein was sustained throughout the evening. Miss Jean Robb charmed with song and recitation. The tenor solos of Mr. Galbraith were received with well-merited applause, and the singing of his pupil Miss Isabel Wilkie, evoked careful training and great artistic excellence. Two vocal duets sung by Miss Wilkie and Mr. Galbraith, were a feature of the programme. Mrs. Ave Galbraith proved herself an accomplished pianist and sympathetic accompanist. The hearty appreciation of the large audience was shown in the number of encores demanded, and a most enjoyable entertainment was brought to a close by the audience joining in singing the National Anthem.

P. O. H. Board Elects Old Officers

The annual meeting of the Protestant Orphans' Home was held yesterday afternoon, with Mr. J. H. Flock in the chair.

Rev. Dr. Ross opened the meeting with prayer, after which the election of officers was proceeded with.

All of the old officers were re-elected, and Mrs. R. Davis, of South London, made a member of the advisory board.

JOLLY FANNY RICE IS AT BENNETT'S

The Big Bill Attracted Large Audiences Yesterday Afternoon and Evening.

The bill at Bennett's this week is one that is worth the effort. It is perhaps the best balanced and interesting bill of sales of good ones. It attracted a large audience of first nighters, and they stamped with their approval. That helps some.

The headliner is Jolly Fanny Rice, just as winning and just as jolly as in the halcyon days of yore. Her act is a distinct novelty. There is a miniature stage rigged up, curtains, footlights and everything. Brownie bodies are attached, and with this "makeup" she does some imitations. They are exceedingly clever, and she made a great hit yesterday. Her imitations of John D. Rockefeller and President Roosevelt are very good. Besides this there are many more. The staging is that of a good show, with a clever background. Mr. Callahan plays an old Irish character, that is real, not a burlesque. He has some very funny conversation. Miss St. George plays the harp very well, and sings splendidly. Mr. Callahan plays the flute and piccolo with great success. That itself would make the act good, but when Miss St. George laughs—well, the world laughs with her. She is very stout and very jolly, and has a laugh that is catching. The setting and the final picture of the act is very fine. It should not be missed by anyone. It's the real act of the bill.

Oscar Lorraine does some very clever imitations of great musicians, and also plays the violin himself with considerable distinction.

"His Day Off," that has some light and some good comedy. The act is good.

The three La Maza brothers are acrobats extraordinary. Donat Bedini has some interesting dogs, and the Cheater Sisters are splendid dancers.

Go to Bennett's and forget your troubles. The bill will do that for you.

CON WALSH SUSPENDED
 Madison Square.

[Special to The Advertiser.]
 Woodstock, Oct. 22.—Con. Walsh, the famous amateur athlete whose specialty is hammer throwing and shot putting, is under suspension by the American Athletic Union. Walsh sent an entry to New York for games at Madison Square Garden this week, and it was refused, for reason of his suspension. It is alleged that he played in Toronto with men under the ban of the I. A. A. U.

Comfortable rubber-tired carriages for theater. Hueston's Livery.

A ten-dollar bill in the contribution box is passing strange.

The seamstress' success should be more than seaming.

PILES
 Dr. Chase's Ointment is a certain cure for hemorrhoids, piles, and every form of itching, swelling, and protruding piles. See testimonials in the press and ask your money back if not satisfied. 60c. at all druggists or ENHAYSON, Ltd., Toronto.

DR. CHASE'S OINTMENT.

has commenced an action against the Wilcox Manufacturing Company for $125 for the loss of three cows, alleged to have been poisoned by drinking a solution of arsenic that the defendant firm is alleged to have emptied into the creek running through the field where the cows pastured.

An Explanation.
 Mr. Lorne Saunders, the G. T. P. operator at Hyde Park, writes to state that a mistake was made in a recent article to the effect that he was responsible for a wild-goose chase upon which two of the county constabulary were recently sent to Hyde Park. Mr. Saunders states that he did not know that the constables were coming until they arrived on the spot.

Funeral at Belmont.
 In connection with the anniversary service of Belmont Presbyterian Church a most successful recital was given last evening by the Belmont Concert Party, a strong musical combination lately out from Glasgow, Scotland. Mr. and Mrs. Lamont Galbraith opened the programme with an excellent rendition of a pianoforte duet and the high-class note struck therein was sustained throughout the evening. Miss Jean Robb charmed with song and recitation. The tenor solos of Mr. Galbraith were received with well-merited applause, and the singing of his pupil Miss Isabel Wilkie, evoked careful training and great artistic excellence. Two vocal duets sung by Miss Wilkie and Mr. Galbraith, were a feature of the programme. Mrs. Ave Galbraith proved herself an accomplished pianist and sympathetic accompanist. The hearty appreciation of the large audience was shown in the number of encores demanded, and a most enjoyable entertainment was brought to a close by the audience joining in singing the National Anthem.

Funeral at Belmont.
 In connection with the anniversary service of Belmont Presbyterian Church a most successful recital was given last evening by the Belmont Concert Party, a strong musical combination lately out from Glasgow, Scotland. Mr. and Mrs. Lamont Galbraith opened the programme with an excellent rendition of a pianoforte duet and the high-class note struck therein was sustained throughout the evening. Miss Jean Robb charmed with song and recitation. The tenor solos of Mr. Galbraith were received with well-merited applause, and the singing of his pupil Miss Isabel Wilkie, evoked careful training and great artistic excellence. Two vocal duets sung by Miss Wilkie and Mr. Galbraith, were a feature of the programme. Mrs. Ave Galbraith proved herself an accomplished pianist and sympathetic accompanist. The hearty appreciation of the large audience was shown in the number of encores demanded, and a most enjoyable entertainment was brought to a close by the audience joining in singing the National Anthem.

Funeral at Belmont.
 In connection with the anniversary service of Belmont Presbyterian Church a most successful recital was given last evening by the Belmont Concert Party, a strong musical combination lately out from Glasgow, Scotland. Mr. and Mrs. Lamont Galbraith opened the programme with an excellent rendition of a pianoforte duet and the high-class note struck therein was sustained throughout the evening. Miss Jean Robb charmed with song and recitation. The tenor solos of Mr. Galbraith were received with well-merited applause, and the singing of his pupil Miss Isabel Wilkie, evoked careful training and great artistic excellence. Two vocal duets sung by Miss Wilkie and Mr. Galbraith, were a feature of the programme. Mrs. Ave Galbraith proved herself an accomplished pianist and sympathetic accompanist. The hearty appreciation of the large audience was shown in the number of encores demanded, and a most enjoyable entertainment was brought to a close by the audience joining in singing the National Anthem.

Funeral at Belmont.
 In connection with the anniversary service of Belmont Presbyterian Church a most successful recital was given last evening by the Belmont Concert Party, a strong musical combination lately out from Glasgow, Scotland. Mr. and Mrs. Lamont Galbraith opened the programme with an excellent rendition of a pianoforte duet and the high-class note struck therein was sustained throughout the evening. Miss Jean Robb charmed with song and recitation. The tenor solos of Mr. Galbraith were received with well-merited applause, and the singing of his pupil Miss Isabel Wilkie, evoked careful training and great artistic excellence. Two vocal duets sung by Miss Wilkie and Mr. Galbraith, were a feature of the programme. Mrs. Ave Galbraith proved herself an accomplished pianist and sympathetic accompanist. The hearty appreciation of the large audience was shown in the number of encores demanded, and a most enjoyable entertainment was brought to a close by the audience joining in singing the National Anthem.

Funeral at Belmont.
 In connection with the anniversary service of Belmont Presbyterian Church a most successful recital was given last evening by the Belmont Concert Party, a strong musical combination lately out from Glasgow, Scotland. Mr. and Mrs. Lamont Galbraith opened the programme with an excellent rendition of a pianoforte duet and the high-class note struck therein was sustained throughout the evening. Miss Jean Robb charmed with song and recitation. The tenor solos of Mr. Galbraith were received with well-merited applause, and the singing of his pupil Miss Isabel Wilkie, evoked careful training and great artistic excellence. Two vocal duets sung by Miss Wilkie and Mr. Galbraith, were a feature of the programme. Mrs. Ave Galbraith proved herself an accomplished pianist and sympathetic accompanist. The hearty appreciation of the large audience was shown in the number of encores demanded, and a most enjoyable entertainment was brought to a close by the audience joining in singing the National Anthem.

Funeral at Belmont.
 In connection with the anniversary service of Belmont Presbyterian Church a most successful recital was given last evening by the Belmont Concert Party, a strong musical combination lately out from Glasgow, Scotland. Mr. and Mrs. Lamont Galbraith opened the programme with an excellent rendition of a pianoforte duet and the high-class note struck therein was sustained throughout the evening. Miss Jean Robb charmed with song and recitation. The tenor solos of Mr. Galbraith were received with well-merited applause, and the singing of his pupil Miss Isabel Wilkie, evoked careful training and great artistic excellence. Two vocal duets sung by Miss Wilkie and Mr. Galbraith, were a feature of the programme. Mrs. Ave Galbraith proved herself an accomplished pianist and sympathetic accompanist. The hearty appreciation of the large audience was shown in the number of encores demanded, and a most enjoyable entertainment was brought to a close by the audience joining in singing the National Anthem.

Funeral at Belmont.
 In connection with the anniversary service of Belmont Presbyterian Church a most successful recital was given last evening by the Belmont Concert Party, a strong musical combination lately out from Glasgow, Scotland. Mr. and Mrs. Lamont Galbraith opened the programme with an excellent rendition of a pianoforte duet and the high-class note struck therein was sustained throughout the evening. Miss Jean Robb charmed with song and recitation. The tenor solos of Mr. Galbraith were received with well-merited applause, and the singing of his pupil Miss Isabel Wilkie, evoked careful training and great artistic excellence. Two vocal duets sung by Miss Wilkie and Mr. Galbraith, were a feature of the programme. Mrs. Ave Galbraith proved herself an accomplished pianist and sympathetic accompanist. The hearty appreciation of the large audience was shown in the number of encores demanded, and a most enjoyable entertainment was brought to a close by the audience joining in singing the National Anthem.

Funeral at Belmont.
 In connection with the anniversary service of Belmont Presbyterian Church a most successful recital was given last evening by the Belmont Concert Party, a strong musical combination lately out from Glasgow, Scotland. Mr. and Mrs. Lamont Galbraith opened the programme with an excellent rendition of a pianoforte duet and the high-class note struck therein was sustained throughout the evening. Miss Jean Robb charmed with song and recitation. The tenor solos of Mr. Galbraith were received with well-merited applause, and the singing of his pupil Miss Isabel Wilkie, evoked careful training and great artistic excellence. Two vocal duets sung by Miss Wilkie and Mr. Galbraith, were a feature of the programme. Mrs. Ave Galbraith proved herself an accomplished pianist and sympathetic accompanist. The hearty appreciation of the large audience was shown in the number of encores demanded, and a most enjoyable entertainment was brought to a close by the audience joining in singing the National Anthem.

Funeral at Belmont.
 In connection with the anniversary service of Belmont Presbyterian Church a most successful recital was given last evening by the Belmont Concert Party, a strong musical combination lately out from Glasgow, Scotland. Mr. and Mrs. Lamont Galbraith opened the programme with an excellent rendition of a pianoforte duet and the high-class note struck therein was sustained throughout the evening. Miss Jean Robb charmed with song and recitation. The tenor solos of Mr. Galbraith were received with well-merited applause, and the singing of his pupil Miss Isabel Wilkie, evoked careful training and great artistic excellence. Two vocal duets sung by Miss Wilkie and Mr. Galbraith, were a feature of the programme. Mrs. Ave Galbraith proved herself an accomplished pianist and sympathetic accompanist. The hearty appreciation of the large audience was shown in the number of encores demanded, and a most enjoyable entertainment was brought to a close by the audience joining in singing the National Anthem.

Funeral at Belmont.
 In connection with the anniversary service of Belmont Presbyterian Church a most successful recital was given last evening by the Belmont Concert Party, a strong musical combination lately out from Glasgow, Scotland. Mr. and Mrs. Lamont Galbraith opened the programme with an excellent rendition of a pianoforte duet and the high-class note struck therein was sustained throughout the evening. Miss Jean Robb charmed with song and recitation. The tenor solos of Mr. Galbraith were received with well-merited applause, and the singing of his pupil Miss Isabel Wilkie, evoked careful training and great artistic excellence. Two vocal duets sung by Miss Wilkie and Mr. Galbraith, were a feature of the programme. Mrs. Ave Galbraith proved herself an accomplished pianist and sympathetic accompanist. The hearty appreciation of the large audience was shown in the number of encores demanded, and a most enjoyable entertainment was brought to a close by the audience joining in singing the National Anthem.

Funeral at Belmont.
 In connection with the anniversary service of Belmont Presbyterian Church a most successful recital was given last evening by the Belmont Concert Party, a strong musical combination lately out from Glasgow, Scotland. Mr. and Mrs. Lamont Galbraith opened the programme with an excellent rendition of a pianoforte duet and the high-class note struck therein was sustained throughout the evening. Miss Jean Robb charmed with song and recitation. The tenor solos of Mr. Galbraith were received with well-merited applause, and the singing of his pupil Miss Isabel Wilkie, evoked careful training and great artistic excellence. Two vocal duets sung by Miss Wilkie and Mr. Galbraith, were a feature of the programme. Mrs. Ave Galbraith proved herself an accomplished pianist and sympathetic accompanist. The hearty appreciation of the large audience was shown in the number of encores demanded, and a most enjoyable entertainment was brought to a close by the audience joining in singing the National Anthem.

Funeral at Belmont.
 In connection with the anniversary service of Belmont Presbyterian Church a most successful recital was given last evening by the Belmont Concert Party, a strong musical combination lately out from Glasgow, Scotland. Mr. and Mrs. Lamont Galbraith opened the programme with an excellent rendition of a pianoforte duet and the high-class note struck therein was sustained throughout the evening. Miss Jean Robb charmed with song and recitation. The tenor solos of Mr. Galbraith were received with well-merited applause, and the singing of his pupil Miss Isabel Wilkie, evoked careful training and great artistic excellence. Two vocal duets sung by Miss Wilkie and Mr. Galbraith, were a feature of the programme. Mrs. Ave Galbraith proved herself an accomplished pianist and sympathetic accompanist. The hearty appreciation of the large audience was shown in the number of encores demanded, and a most enjoyable entertainment was brought to a close by the audience joining in singing the National Anthem.

Funeral at Belmont.
 In connection with the anniversary service of Belmont Presbyterian Church a most successful recital was given last evening by the Belmont Concert Party, a strong musical combination lately out from Glasgow, Scotland. Mr. and Mrs. Lamont Galbraith opened the programme with an excellent rendition of a pianoforte duet and the high-class note struck therein was sustained throughout the evening. Miss Jean Robb charmed with song and recitation. The tenor solos of Mr. Galbraith were received with well-merited applause, and the singing of his pupil Miss Isabel Wilkie, evoked careful training and great artistic excellence. Two vocal duets sung by Miss Wilkie and Mr. Galbraith, were a feature of the programme. Mrs. Ave Galbraith proved herself an accomplished pianist and sympathetic accompanist. The hearty appreciation of the large audience was shown in the number of encores demanded, and a most enjoyable entertainment was brought to a close by the audience joining in singing the National Anthem.

Funeral at Belmont.
 In connection with the anniversary service of Belmont Presbyterian Church a most successful recital was given last evening by the Belmont Concert Party, a strong musical combination lately out from Glasgow, Scotland. Mr. and Mrs. Lamont Galbraith opened the programme with an excellent rendition of a pianoforte duet and the high-class note struck therein was sustained throughout the evening. Miss Jean Robb charmed with song and recitation. The tenor solos of Mr. Galbraith were received with well-merited applause, and the singing of his pupil Miss Isabel Wilkie, evoked careful training and great artistic excellence. Two vocal duets sung by Miss Wilkie and Mr. Galbraith, were a feature of the programme. Mrs. Ave Galbraith proved herself an accomplished pianist and sympathetic accompanist. The hearty appreciation of the large audience was shown in the number of encores demanded, and a most enjoyable entertainment was brought to a close by the audience joining in singing the National Anthem.

Funeral at Belmont.
 In connection with the anniversary service of Belmont Presbyterian Church a most successful recital was given last evening by the Belmont Concert Party, a strong musical combination lately out from Glasgow, Scotland. Mr. and Mrs. Lamont Galbraith opened the programme with an excellent rendition of a pianoforte duet and the high-class note struck therein was sustained throughout the evening. Miss Jean Robb charmed with song and recitation. The tenor solos of Mr. Galbraith were received with well-merited applause, and the singing of his pupil Miss Isabel Wilkie, evoked careful training and great artistic excellence. Two vocal duets sung by Miss Wilkie and Mr. Galbraith, were a feature of the programme. Mrs. Ave Galbraith proved herself an accomplished pianist and sympathetic accompanist. The hearty appreciation of the large audience was shown in the number of encores demanded, and a most enjoyable entertainment was brought to a close by the audience joining in singing the National Anthem.

Funeral at Belmont.
 In connection with the anniversary service of Belmont Presbyterian Church a most successful recital was given last evening by the Belmont Concert Party, a strong musical combination lately out from Glasgow, Scotland. Mr. and Mrs. Lamont Galbraith opened the programme with an excellent rendition of a pianoforte duet and the high-class note struck therein was sustained throughout the evening. Miss Jean Robb charmed with song and recitation. The tenor solos of Mr. Galbraith were received with well-merited applause, and the singing of his pupil Miss Isabel Wilkie, evoked careful training and great artistic excellence. Two vocal duets sung by Miss Wilkie and Mr. Galbraith, were a feature of the programme. Mrs. Ave Galbraith proved herself an accomplished pianist and sympathetic accompanist. The hearty appreciation of the large audience was shown in the number of encores demanded, and a most enjoyable entertainment was brought to a close by the audience joining in singing the National Anthem.

Funeral at Belmont.
 In connection with the anniversary service of Belmont Presbyterian Church a most successful recital was given last evening by the Belmont Concert Party, a strong musical combination lately out from Glasgow, Scotland. Mr. and Mrs. Lamont Galbraith opened the programme with an excellent rendition of a pianoforte duet and the high-class note struck therein was sustained throughout the evening. Miss Jean Robb charmed with song and recitation. The tenor solos of Mr. Galbraith were received with well-merited applause, and the singing of his pupil Miss Isabel Wilkie, evoked careful training and great artistic excellence. Two vocal duets sung by Miss Wilkie and Mr. Galbraith, were a feature of the programme. Mrs. Ave Galbraith proved herself an accomplished pianist and sympathetic accompanist. The hearty appreciation of the large audience was shown in the number of encores demanded, and a most enjoyable entertainment was brought to a close by the audience joining in singing the National Anthem.

Funeral at Belmont.
 In connection with the anniversary service of Belmont Presbyterian Church a most successful recital was given last evening by the Belmont Concert Party, a strong musical combination lately out from Glasgow, Scotland. Mr. and Mrs. Lamont Galbraith opened the programme with an excellent rendition of a pianoforte duet and the high-class note struck therein was sustained throughout the evening. Miss Jean Robb charmed with song and recitation. The tenor solos of Mr. Galbraith were received with well-merited applause, and the singing of his pupil Miss Isabel Wilkie, evoked careful training and great artistic excellence. Two vocal duets sung by Miss Wilkie and Mr. Galbraith, were a feature of the programme. Mrs. Ave Galbraith proved herself an accomplished pianist and sympathetic accompanist. The hearty appreciation of the large audience was shown in the number of encores demanded, and a most enjoyable entertainment was brought to a close by the audience joining in singing the National Anthem.

Funeral at Belmont.
 In connection with the anniversary service of Belmont Presbyterian Church a most successful recital was given last evening by the Belmont Concert Party, a strong musical combination lately out from Glasgow, Scotland. Mr. and Mrs. Lamont Galbraith opened the programme with an excellent rendition of a pianoforte duet and the high-class note struck therein was sustained throughout the evening. Miss Jean Robb charmed with song and recitation. The tenor solos of Mr. Galbraith were received with well-merited applause, and the singing of his pupil Miss Isabel Wilkie, evoked careful training and great artistic excellence. Two vocal duets sung by Miss Wilkie and Mr. Galbraith, were a feature of the programme. Mrs. Ave Galbraith proved herself an accomplished pianist and sympathetic accompanist. The hearty appreciation of the large audience was shown in the number of encores demanded, and a most enjoyable entertainment was brought to a close by the audience joining in singing the National Anthem.

Funeral at Belmont.
 In connection with the anniversary service of Belmont Presbyterian Church a most successful recital was given last evening by the Belmont Concert Party, a strong musical combination lately out from Glasgow, Scotland. Mr. and Mrs. Lamont Galbraith opened the programme with an excellent rendition of a pianoforte duet and the high-class note struck therein was sustained throughout the evening. Miss Jean Robb charmed with song and recitation. The tenor solos of Mr. Galbraith were received with well-merited applause, and the singing of his pupil Miss Isabel Wilkie, evoked careful training and great artistic excellence. Two vocal duets sung by Miss Wilkie and Mr. Galbraith, were a feature of the programme. Mrs. Ave Galbraith proved herself an accomplished pianist and sympathetic accompanist. The hearty appreciation of the large audience was shown in the number of encores demanded, and a most enjoyable entertainment was brought to a close by the audience joining in singing the National Anthem.

Funeral at Belmont.
 In connection with the anniversary service of Belmont Presbyterian Church a most successful recital was given last evening by the Belmont Concert Party, a strong musical combination lately out from Glasgow, Scotland. Mr. and Mrs. Lamont Galbraith opened the programme with an excellent rendition of a pianoforte duet and the high-class note struck therein was sustained throughout the evening. Miss Jean Robb charmed with song and recitation. The tenor solos of Mr. Galbraith were received with well-merited applause, and the singing of his pupil Miss Isabel Wilkie, evoked careful training and great artistic excellence. Two vocal duets sung by Miss Wilkie and Mr. Galbraith, were a feature of the programme. Mrs. Ave Galbraith proved herself an accomplished pianist and sympathetic accompanist. The hearty appreciation of the large audience was shown in the number of encores demanded, and a most enjoyable entertainment was brought to a close by the audience joining in singing the National Anthem.

Funeral at Belmont.
 In connection with the anniversary service of Belmont Presbyterian Church a most successful recital was given last evening by the Belmont Concert Party, a strong musical combination lately out from Glasgow, Scotland. Mr. and Mrs. Lamont Galbraith opened the programme with an excellent rendition of a pianoforte duet and the high-class note struck therein was sustained throughout the evening. Miss Jean Robb charmed with song and recitation. The tenor solos of Mr. Galbraith were received with well-merited applause, and the singing of his pupil Miss Isabel Wilkie,