ON HIS WIFE

Developments Are Expected in Case When Hearing Is Resumed.

New York, June 14.—There are inmony suits of Howard Gould and wife, will bristle with developments this week, when the trial is continued hefore Justice Dowling, in supreme court. According to papers put on file in the county clerk's office, chiefly in the form of affidavits, Gould will be charged with an attempt to manufacture false evidence against his wife. Employees of the Hotel St. Regis, where Mrs. Gould has lived since her separation from Gould, are said to be involved, including J. E. Kennedy. a former house detective, and one of the best-known hotel detectives in the country. In the signed confession of Michael Doody, now on file with the court, Kennedy is said to have offered the doorboy $2,000 to keep track of Mrs. Gould's movements, and write her down as coming back to the hotel in-

Montreal, Que., June 13. - The Canadian Pacific made another stride forward today, when it added new palatial library observatory cars to its already splendid equipment. These cars, which are intended for transcontinental trains, are of two types-the glens an the mounts-and when the two series are completed there will be 22 in all. Each one has elegant sleeping apartments, which provide the utaground at Amboy, ten miles east of most seclusion, and a buffet, a wellstocked library, writing-desks, etc., and a spacious parlor with wide windows, from which the scenery along the line can be uninterruptedly obcrew with small boats.
