Animal Attacked Several People on Dundas Street and Was Shot By Police.

MADE A VICIOUS FIGHT

Knocked Down by a Baton, It Was Later Destroyed by a Bullet From a Revolver.

"Bum," a nondescript homeless dog, possibly affected with rabies, attacked and bit a six-year-old lad named Charles Ernest Miller, residing in the Abbott block, Dundas street, on Monday afternoon, lacerating his ear and mouth badly. Later it bit W. Arm-strong, 326 Ridout street, 16 years of age, inflicting a gash on his arm. Dr. James D. Wilson cauterized the wounds. Then the animal was shot by Detective Thomas Nickle, after had attempted to bite P. C. W. T. Middaugh, who captured it. Dr. Hutchinson, M. H. O., will investigate, and will in all probability send the animal's head to Toronto for examination.

The dog, a half-bred coach dog, has been roaming the streets for some time. He was not of a particularly vicious nature, but amused himsel parking at horses and rigs. The animal had no home and begged his board wherever he could.

Its fangs sunk into the lad's ear, tearing it nearly off, and inflicted a couple of gashes in the lad's mouth. Russell Magee and W. T. From Profits-or Losses?

WE all advertise.

A man advertises his character by his deeds, his wisdom by his words or by his silence. A merchant's store, stock, and windows speak either well or ill of his business.

So when a man says "No, I do not advertise," he knows not what he says. What he really means is that he does not publish printed advertisements.

Some proclaim this as though it were a virtue-yet spend much effort and invest much money in advertising their business through mediums other than the printed word.

They may make their wares fit for a king-yet hesitate to introduce them to Brown or Smith.

This is inconsistency

The truth is, printed advertising is a vital force in every business, just as is the "silent" advertising of a product's quality or a merchant's service.

When you employ the Printed Word as your solicitor in the Court of Public Opinion, you build good will for your product or service-a good will that results in profi-

If unrepresented at this Court, your interests are as unprotected as though, when involved in a law suit, you failed to "enter an appearance" and the case is decided against you - by default.

So it is clear you pay for advertising - one way or the other. If you pay it wages, it will work for you.

If you refuse its offers of service, it will work against you, in just the measure of its employment by your Competitors.

So you are paying for advertising either out of your profits or by your losses.
