Remarkable Shooting for The Daily Graphic Cup-Scores in the Queen's Prize Match.

Bisley Camp, July 16.—The weather was rather cloudy, and a light wind swept across the commons this morning. The shooting at the 600 yards ranges in the first stage of the Queen's Prize was commenced shortly after 9 to'clock, and continued all day. The Canadians were in first-class condition and shot well throughout.

Al. A. Worrell, Q.C., submitted the plans of the five-story building which the Cobban Co. will build on the Esplanade, Ald. Jolliffe and R. H. Graham were appointed to confer with Architect Lennox and the City Engineer as to the road-ways, sewers, water-mains and hydrants. Ald. R. H. Graham secured the passing of a resolution that all valuations of property made by the Assessment Commissioner be filed with the City Solicitor before being sent to the Property Committee and being thus made known to the public.

Capt. J. K. Leslie's application for the use of rooms in St. Lawrence Hall for storing the arms of the city company of the 12th York Rangers was granted.

Architect Lennox was ordered to comply with the requisition of the City Cierk for allocation of more vaulting accommodation at the new Court House than had been arranged for originally.
