PORT OF SAINT ANDREWS

ARRIVED.
March 25, Bg. Elizabeth Caroline, Whitty, Barbados, 20 days, Sugar and Molasses, N. Marks, market, Lumber $25-00.
CLEARED.
March 24, Bg. Frederick, Branscomb, Barbados, Lumber.
The Brig Arctus, which sailed from hence on the 18th inst. for Belfast, when off Quoddy head encountered head winds and being late in the evening, made for the Passage, where she rode at anchor until next morning; a heavy gale then came on from the southward, and the tide causing a tremendous sea, one of her chain cables snapped, and the other was slipped in order to save the vessel from going ashore. She then bore for a harbour, but unfortunately grounded opposite Lubec. She has since been got off, returned to this port on the 24th, and is now undergoing the necessary repairs.

APOTHECARIES' HALL.

COHLERA MEDICINES put up in small packages, with concise printed directions, will be kept constantly on hand. In consequence of the Asiatic Cholera having appeared in Halifax, the Subscriber, after carefully examining the most scientific documents on the subject, has been induced to draw up a code of directions for the prevention and treatment of the disease, in order that those who live at a distance from medical assistance, may be enabled to render prompt aid until they can procure medical attendance. As this awful disease runs its course, and often ends fatally in a few hours, it is also necessary for families to supply themselves with all the most approved medical remedies that no time may be lost on the first appearance of the malady; for in fact, if the patient attends to the preliminary symptoms, and applies the proper medicines, he will almost always be successful in preventing the disease; or at all events, rendering the attack much more mild and manageable. WM. LIVINGSTONE, Surgeon. St. John, 30th August, 1834.
