HORSES PURCHASED

Half Million Dollars Worth of French Thoroughbreds Shipped Across Atlantic

New York—Ninety-four British and French thoroughbreds, valued at half a million dollars and comprising the most valuable shipment of horses to cross the Atlantic since before the war, are due to reach New York Saturday or Sunday on the steamship Mississippi.

All were purchased by horse fanciers from the United States at the December sales at New Market, England, and the destination of the majority of their number is the blue grass region of Kentucky.

Among the better known stallions in the shipment are Craighower, five-year-old chestnut by Polymelus out of Fortune, by Spearmint, and Royal Canopy, a gray ten-year-old, by Roi Herod out of Cream o' The Sky.

FALKLAND RIDGE

Miss Addie Cochrane, of Victoria, who has been visiting at the home of Mrs. C. R. Marshall, has returned home.

The young people met at a progressive croquet party in the hall Dec. 31st. They also watched the Old Year out.

C. R. Marshall, who has been spending a few days with his brother at Halifax has returned. His daughter, Florence, who accompanied him, stopped off at Wolfville.

Harry Whynot went to New Germany, called there by the serious illness of his aged mother.

Bessie Allan, of No. Springfield, was a guest of her aunt, Mrs. H. Whynot last week.

Edgar Oickle, of this place, has received word that his sister, Mrs. William Mahoney of St. John, N. B., has been presented by the stork with quadruplets, three girls and one boy, on Xmas day.

Rev. Geo. Durkee, wife and son Harold, were guests at the home of Robert Swallow, Jan. 2nd.

Ira Stoddart received word on Jan. 1st that his sister, Mrs. Albert Langle, had just passed away at her home in Middleton. The body was brought to Springfield for interment.

Little Gertrude Mason, who was operated on Wednesday for the removal of tonsils, is doing finely.

Eva Marshall returned to her studies at Wolfville on Wednesday.

A number here watched the fire which burned to the ground the store of J. C. Grimm at Springfield on Friday evening, Dec. 28th.

DISASTROUS FIRE IN BUSINESS SECTION OF WINDSOR, N. S.

Ten Families Rendered Homeless, Several Persons Injured and a Property Loss of $75,000, Caused by Fire Which Started in the Mounce Block—Firemen Fought the Blaze in a Blizzard.

Windsor, N. S.—Ten families were rendered homeless, several people were painfully injured, and damages estimated at $75,000 caused by a fire that started in the furnace room of Koppell's Variety Store on Gerrish Street at four o'clock Sunday morning, and spreading east and west through the block kept the entire Fire Department busy for nearly ten hours in the midst of the worst blizzard of the winter.

LENT HELD WITHOUT BAIL

William Lent, of Bear River, is held without bail for trial at June Court on charge of detaining against her in his house for years, Bertha Potter. Girl will be given new start in life under her own name.

Local Happenings

Attention is called to a Public Auction on page five.

On Tuesday evening of last week Mr. Maurice Armstrong gave an illustrated lecture on Bird Life in Labrador. This was much enjoyed by those present. Mr. Armstrong has made a study of bird life from his earliest years and his experience in bird study during last Summer under the Federal Government appointments gave him abundant material for a very interesting review describing birds and their habits in the relatively little known territory of Labrador.

On Tuesday of last week Chief Bishop conveyed Arthur Sims to Annapolis to serve a three months' term on the charge of infraction of the Nova Scotia Temperance Act at Inglewood.

The barn belonging to the Beckwith estate and just at the rear of the store collapsed on Thursday afternoon last under a tremendous weight of snow made heavier by a rain of some duration. The fall broke one of the electric company poles in front of the structure and the sudden strain on the wires decapitated another alongside E. C. Crowell's store. The barn was pretty badly wrecked, but a cow and hens owned by Chief Bishop came through the disaster undamaged and were removed to other premises.

The rink is now in full swing for the winter months and is being well patronized. Up till recently the weather has been rather unfavorable to ice making but the management have worked most strenuously early and late to secure a good sheet of ice, and are seeing success crown their efforts.

Kentville citizens this year have subscribed upwards of $622 for school prizes.

The G.W.V.A. meet this evening (Wednesday) at 8 o'clock in the Board of Trade rooms. Every comrade is cordially invited to attend.

The Women's Institute held a pleasant and profitable meeting last Thursday afternoon. The hostesses were Mrs. S. N. Wear, Mrs. F. H. Beattie and Mrs. E. R. Orlando.

Where is the man who said we were going to have no winter this year. Successive falls of snow have made the travelling good and recent temperatures have been favorable to all winter sports.

Mrs. Good Housekeeper was asked why it was she always served good tea. Her answer was as follows:—"I always use MORSE'S SELECTED ORANGE PEKOE and I never make it so strong that I have to thin it out with hot water after it is poured in the cup. The best cup of tea is the cup that you get just as it comes from the pot."

Elected officers of Autumn Leaf Rebekah Lodge were installed on Monday evening as follows by D. D. P. Mrs. Gladys Whitman; N. G. Mrs. O. C. Jones; V. G. Mrs. Edith Jackson; Rec. Sec. Mrs. F. E. Bath; Fin. Sec. Mrs. Nellie Rice; Treas. Miss Ida Williams; Chaplain, Mrs. Frances Longmire. The appointive officers will be installed at next night of meeting.

WHITE GIFTS FOR THE KING

The pageant "White Gifts for the King" was presented in the Falkland Ridge Church on the evening of Dec. 23rd, by local talent, consisting of thirty-five characters and as they marched slowly into the auditorium singing "Silent Night", as a processional. The women and girls were robed in white with silver trimmings, the men in oriental robes. They took their allotted places, the adult choir and children's choir each being screened off by an artificial snow-storm which with snow laden evergreen trees, and other green and white decorations, transformed the church into an impressive winter scene.

Kathleen Sproule, as the Madonna, sang a lullaby each verse of which was answered by the choir of children's voices—"Away in a Manger". A very impressive feature was the music and singing by the Oriental Kings, robed in scarlet, royal purple, and gold, who brought gifts of myrrh, gold, frankincense to lay at the feet of the Christ Child. Other gifts were presented by representatives of the various Missions and Sunday School classes. Excellently rendered, too, were the various solos, duets, and choruses. Little Myrna Sproule was torch bearer, and Marlon Marshall, Marie and Grace Sproule in flowing robes, represented the Angels. Mildred Starratt was reader and Miss Bernice Sproule, to whose indefatigable efforts a great part of the credit is due, was organist. The offering of the evening was also placed beside the manger, followed by a prayer by the pastor, Rev. G. Durkee.

The service closed by singing "Silent Night". The church was full, nearly 90 being present from Springfield, a number from E. Dalloousie. From all was heard "the best ever."
