

ford. Also attended the Toronto Board Meetings in the months of December, January, February, September and October.

It was a matter of extreme regret to your Corresponding-Secretary that an enforced absence in Brooklyn, U.S.A., of nearly three months, prevented her accepting the cordial invitations to Toronto, Niagara, and Ontario Annual Meetings. Also, that owing to the pressure of study while absent, she was unable to originate as many letters as usual, though all received were duly answered and the Leaflet publication kept up from across the border.

Correspondence with Bishops, Clergy, etc., in the North-west, has been kept up as in former years, also with our lady missionaries, in both Domestic and Foreign fields.

Your Corresponding-Secretary cannot close her report without recording her heart-felt gratitude to our Almighty and loving Father for His many mercies and encouragements in our work during the past year, so evident on all sides. The very pleasant intercourse and correspondence with Provincial and Diocesan officers and other members of the W.A., whose help is so much valued and appreciated, is another source of gratitude, and your Corresponding-Secretary begs to take this opportunity of thanking one and all most heartily.

The near approach of our next Triennial should be a matter of deep interest to every member, whether they hope to attend it or not. The last in this century! Shall we not try to make it the best also? So all begin now to pray that God's Holy Spirit may quicken each more than ever before, and guide us during the intervening months to more faithful prayer, more self-consecration, more seeking to win those around us and afar to the loving Saviour whose kingdom on earth we are offered the very high privilege of helping to extend. Look at the promise held out to those who "turn many to righteousness," (Daniel xii, 3). Think how short our time may be to earn that blessed reward.

Cor.-Sec. Prov. W.A.
