A Great Country

A Great Country. Another great wave of emigration is about to flow over the country. The Northwest will receive the greatest benefit from it and every State in that region is prepared for it. From the Great Lakes to the Pacific Ocean, Boards of Immigration have been formed, full of energy and enthusiasm, and glad to give the newcomer and conquer all the assistance possible.

In Minnesota the renowned Red River Valley and the newly opened lands of the Red Lake Reservation attract the home-seeker.

In North Dakota there are rolling hills and rich prairie lands. In Montana, the great Yellowstone Valley, with its new irrigation enterprises, the noted Gallatin Valley and the Bitter Root Valley, extend arms of welcome. In Idaho and Washington, the Nez Perce Reservation lands recently ceded, and the Palouse, Potlatch and Yakima Valleys east of the Cascades are bound to be rapidly settled. West of the mountains are the fertile valleys of Puget Sound in Washington, and the Columbia and Willamette Valleys in Oregon.

Homes for millions of people are found here.
Come and take possession; others are coming, you
