NEW SOCIETY STATIONERY, HAMPER, BENT LINES, IVORY VELLUM, DUPLEX SILVERIAN, SUB ROSA, and other styles of Writing Papers with Envelopes to match in the New DAWMAR Shapes. THE SOCIETY MOVING STATIONERY is a new departure which appeals to the most refined taste.

KNIGHT & CO., 125 Granville Street.

Provincial Notes.

CHARLOTTETOWN.—Hon. Senator Macdonald is ill of typhoid fever at Ottawa. Miss Macdonald and Mr. Eneas Macdonald have gone thither to be with the Senator of whose improvement telegram lately received give pleasing assurance.

Miss Rodgers from England is visiting her sister Mrs. Hamlyn at the Rectory.

Last Sunday Rev. Wm. Hamlyn took Rev. James Forbes' duties at Alberton while Mr. Forbes did duty in Summerside for Rev. C. F. Lowe, who officiated at St. Paul's here.

Next morning Mr. Lowe was groomsman at the marriage of Miss Maude DesBrisay to Rev. James Simpson, Priest Incumbent of St. Peter's. Miss DesBrisay is granddaughter of the late Colonel Peter Stewart, R. A., and daughter of the late Theophilus DesBrisay Esquire, of Spring Park. The bride wore a heavy blue travelling costume. She was given away by her brother-in-law, R. F. DeBlois Esquire, and was attended by her sister, Miss DesBrisay, as bridesmaid. There were no guests except the immediate relatives. The marriage ceremony, which was preceded by a celebration of Holy Communion in the Chapel connected with the Church, began at 6 o'clock. The altar was beautiful with a profusion of white flowers and the lights still further brightened the pretty scene. The service was fully choral. Mr. L. W. Watson, brother-in-law of the bride, occupied his accustomed place at the organ. A large number of persons crowded into the church in spite of the early hour and the rain which unfortunately was falling at the time. His congregation presented Mr. Simpson with a well-filled purse a day or two before the event, and the bride's presents testified to the number of her friends. After the ceremony Mr. Simpson and his bride drove to the Railway Station whence they set out for their honeymoon in various towns in the provinces.

Mrs. Simpson and Miss Simpson went to Georgetown the following day to spend the summer months.

The Misses Sullivan have returned from school in Montreal.

Miss Newburn of Lethbridge, N. W. T., is visiting her sister Mrs. Leslie MacNutt.

Mr. and Mrs. Earnest Dawson (India), are visiting Mr. W. E. Dawson and family.

HER HANDS FULL.—Excited Boy—Come on, quick! The old man is batin the old woman again.

Police Justice.—Why don't she come herself if she wants to make a complaint, or have him arrested?

Excited Boy.—She's too busy; she's got him down and is bumpin' his head on the flure.—Texas Siftings.

THE HEINTZMAN PIANOS

Are fast becoming the favourite Pianos here, as they have been in Western Canada for the past thirty years.
