Sir William Dawson and Rev. Dr. Cornish reported from the Normal School Committee that it had been found necessary to relieve the Head Mistress of the Girls' Model School from her duties and to entrust the management of the School to Miss M. J. Peebles, the First Assistant Mistress, under the Principal. It was asked that the salary of the Head Mistress be continued to the end of the financial year in such manner as may be most suitable to her interest.

Moved by Sir William Dawson, seconded by Dr. Cornish, "That the action of the Normal School Committee be approved, and that leave of absence be granted till July 1st.—Carried.

The following financial statement of Protestant Committee was received and accepted :
