HENRYS COMMENTARY.

Important to Ministers, Missionaries and Students of the Church of Scotland in Canada.

An Advertisement may have been observed in the "Home & Foreign Missionary Record of the Church of Scotland" for February to the following effect:—

"An Edition of the Holy Scriptures, with MATTHEW HENRY'S COMMENTARY, in Nine Volumes, Imperial Octavo, is in course of publication by Nisbet & Co., London, at the price of 45s sterling per copy to Subscribers.

"A few friends, Members of the Evangelical Alliance having had their attention called to the importance of bringing such works within easy means of purchase to those whose office calls them to expound the Word of God, have undertaken to contribute and collect a portion of the Subscription Price of the above-mentioned Commentary, so as to offer One Thousand Copies at the price of 20s sterling per copy to Ministers, Missionaries, Probationers and Divinity Students, of Scotland, who will take the work bona fide for their own use," &c., &c.

Through the kindness of James Alexander Campbell, Esq., of Glasgow, and of some friends in Montreal, a proportion of the 1000 Copies has been reserved for applicants (being Ministers, Students, &c.) belonging to the Presbyterian Church in Canada, in connection with the Church of Scotland.

Applicants are therefore requested to remit the subscription price, say 25s. currency, postage free, to the undersigned, on or before the first day of May next, giving their designation and address in full, and stating by what conveyance their copies are to be forwarded.

The work is expected to be ready for delivery in Scotland in June.

JOHN GREENSHIELDS,

Treasurer.

Montreal, 9th March, 1857.
