MESSRS. FERRIS & CO.,

DEAR SIRS.—About two years ago I was in Philadelphia, and while there I bought one of your Steam Washers, and brought it home to my wife. She has been using it ever since, and is well pleased with it.
It does all you claim for it, and every family should have one, for the saving on clothes every few months would more than pay for the machine.

RHEUMATISM

CURED.

This cut represents Edward Cates, of 72 Stafford street, Toronto. Mr. Cates had for years been a victim of rheumatism of the joints, which at each attack caused intense pain and swelling, and was rapidly approaching the time when he would have been a cripple and an invalid. Being a foreman in the Central Prison he was in constant danger of losing his position because of these attacks, while at the same time he had the opportunity to avail himself of what is supposed by the public to be the best medical skill in the city. That skill failed even to give temporary relief, and when Dr. McCully found this victim of disease and profound medical ignorance, he was in bed, his arms were useless, and one of his legs: under Dr. McCully's treatment he was able to get out of bed and walk in four days: his disease gave way under treatment, and now, after months have elapsed, Mr. Cates finds no tendency to relapse. Reader, perhaps this story may seem a little marvellous in the light of the general experience of the public as handled by the medical men of this Province, but if you have a single doubt of a fact here stated just go to Mr. Cates and hear his story and you will be convinced 1. That we have not told the whole truth. 2. That the general practice of the medical profession of this city is one of haphazard ignorance and stupidity, that because of this ignorance many, very many, people die who without the doctor might have lived but for the purlblindness of the profession. You may ask in despair for a remedy, but your remedy is to cut out that pack of bloated stupidities that row cut, carve and kill at the mill of the medical gods, in spite of law and in the face of abashed medicine and surgical science. Again we repeat an investigation is needed. Remember Dr. McCully treats all chronic diseases, operates on the eye, on deformed limbs and joints, on cancers, tumors and all unnatural growths of the human body. Positively cures catarrh, skin disease, blood diseases, from every cause. Cures nervous debility in male and female from accident disease, or the errors of youth. Cures all female diseases, whether from the accidents incidental to other diseases or from the brutal treatment of the medical profession during confinement.
