

'I am about to describe an establishmont which cost the proprietors one hundred and fifty thousand dollars in its construction, and top which they pay the Government of Canada a 'ax of one hundred and fifty thousand dollars a year for paraits on to work it. It is the distillery of Messes. Gooderham & Work, at Toronto. Canada West.'—Ed. Canadan 'Llustrated Naws.

'Certainly the world in its early stages never saw, as the New World in this age had not before seen, any distillery more perfect, and but few, if any, equal in a lesspecies to that of Gooderham & Worts, Toronto.'—Ind.
